

SOCIETY AND CLUB NEWS OF THE WEEK

By OLARA MARY DAVIS

Miss Edwards Weds Mr. Wilder in Church Ceremony

At an impressive ceremony Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock in St. Mark's Episcopal church, Miss Georgia Edwards and Peter C. Wilder were united in marriage by the Rev. Father Herald G. Gardner in the presence of a large gathering of friends and relatives.

The attractive bride was given in marriage by her father, G. A. Edwards. She wore a white silk marquisette bridal gown fashioned bouffant style with inserts of lace and a finger tip veil of silk tulle which fell from an orange blossom coronet. She carried a white prayer book covered with a gardenia corsage and stephanotis streamers.

The bride's only attendant was her youngest sister, Mrs. Jack Walker, who as Matron of Honor wore an apricot colored marquisette bouffant frock and a touque of pale turquoise tulle. Pink gladioli and blue delphinium composed her colonial bouquet.

The bride's small niece, pretty Sandra Hubbard, was flower girl. Her long, white, sheer organdie dress was trimmed in lace and blue ribbon and she carried an old-fashioned nosegay of sweetheart roses. In her hair she wore a wreath of pale pink and lavender flowers.

The bridegroom's brother-in-law, R. G. Haskins of San Francisco, Cal., acted as best man. Ushers were the bride's three brothers-in-law, Edward Schack, Chester Hubbard and Jack Walker.

Mrs. Eva H. Marsh, organist, played "Still as the Night" throughout the ceremony and the wedding music. Mrs. Royal Bebb sang the beautiful hymn, "Oh, Perfect Love."

Church decorations were palms, white gladioli and white tapers.

Mrs. Mary Wilder wore a navy blue afternoon dress and a gardenia corsage to her son's wedding and Mrs. G. A. Edwards' ensemble was also of navy blue with gardenia flowers.

A reception for sixty guests followed the ceremony at the Lyman avenue home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Hubbard. Rooms were decorated in bouquets of white gladioli and a four-tier wedding cake was on the attractively appointed bride's table. Miss Dorothy Nyswander served the cake and the Misses Jane and Lella Carlton presided at the punch bowl.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilder left later for a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe and Yosemite National park. They will reside in San Francisco, Cal., where Mr. Wilder is associated with the Standard Oil company. For a going-away ensemble, the bride chose a pale blue polka dot redingote, white and blue accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

Among out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Schack and two children of Seattle; Mrs. Mary Wilder, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Haskins of San Francisco and Mrs. W. M. Porter of Berkeley, Cal. Mrs. Haskins and Mrs. Porter are sisters of Mr. Wilder. A number of pre-nuptial parties feted the bride, who has been for many years a popular resident of Medford.

Frances Port to Be Swim Director

Big Applegate, July 6.—(Sp.)—Miss Frances Port left by motor Friday for Dark Lake, northwest of Bend, where she will act as waterfront director at Camp Tamarack, exclusive girls' camp, for a six weeks' period. She was accompanied north by her mother, Mrs. Lee Port.

Miss Port has been active in swimming activities at Oregon State college, where she took a water safety instructor's course under Ben Carpenter, associated with the American Red Cross. Last month she assisted with the Red Cross life saving classes held in Medford.

Browns to Attend S. F. Exposition

Mrs. H. L. Brown and daughter, Margaret Ann, plan to leave Monday for San Francisco, Cal., to attend the Golden Gate International Exposition on Treasure Island and visit for a few days.

The Browns will return to Medford during the week, while Miss Brown will continue her stay in the Bay City for a month, visiting her brother, Dr. J. W. Brown.

Dorothy Gill to Vacation South

Miss Dorothy Gill left yesterday for San Francisco, Cal., to vacation for a week with her sister, Miss Bernice Gill, former well-known Medfordite. She also plans to attend the Golden Gate International exposition on Treasure Island.

She will be accompanied south by David Frank, who will also visit in the bay region.

Married In Church Rites

Mrs. Peter C. Wilder (nee Miss Georgia Edwards), whose marriage was an impressive event of yesterday afternoon in St. Mark's Episcopal church, with the Rev. Father Herald G. Gardner officiating. The couple will make their home in San Francisco.—(Photo by Wilfley.)

Young Group To Visit Los Angeles

William C. Strang left here Friday by motorcar for Los Angeles, Cal., after spending a week's vacation here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Strang at their home on South Central avenue. He is associated in the wing assembly division of Douglas Aircraft company in southern California.

He was accompanied south by his sister, Miss Mary Lee Strang, Miss Bette Reames, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reames and Walter Boze of Ashland, who also works at Douglas and had been visiting relatives for a week.

The group stopped in San Francisco enroute to attend the Golden Gate International Exposition on Treasure Island for a day. Miss Reames will visit a sorority sister in Pasadena and Miss Strang plans to visit friends and relatives in Los Angeles for a few weeks.

Shower Fetes Bride-Groom

A "bachelor" party honored Peter C. Wilder Friday evening when twenty men gathered at Burgoyne's for a no-host dinner.

Mr. Wilder, whose marriage to Miss Georgia Edwards was an event of yesterday afternoon, was presented with a shower of unlabeled canned goods at the affair.

Out-of-town guests were Ernie Arthur, Edwin Schack and R. G. Haskins.

Art Convention In San Francisco

Valley art enthusiasts will be interested to know that the American Federation of Arts will hold its first far-western convention in San Francisco, Cal., from July 11 to 13 inclusive.

Mrs. Porter J. Neff was recently in receipt of a letter from the federation extending an invitation to her and others interested to attend the convention. A member wrote that "the program will exceed in interest any recent meeting; it will be lively and timely."

Davis Home Will Be Meet Scene

Women's missionary society of the Christian church will convene Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. T. Davis, 1112 East Main street.

Mrs. Walter Kindred and group will present the program, the feature of which will be a play, "The Book Peddler." Miss Betty Dougherty will sing.

Mrs. Wayne Tronell and group will have charge of the social hour.

Pythian Club Will Convene Pythian club will convene at the home of Grace Reid, 328 Edwards street Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

Miss Mary Queen Weds Local Man In Recent Service

At the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Queen, Sunday afternoon, June 30, Miss Mary Regina Queen became the bride of Gordon E. Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Young of Chicago, Ill.

Dr. Sherman L. Divine, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, officiated at the pretty ceremony in the presence of a group of friends and relatives.

The improvised altar was decorated with ferns, gladioli and roses. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white tulle dress trimmed in lace and a finger tip veil held in place by a halo of gardenias. Her bouquet was composed of pink roses, gardenias and bavardia. Her bridesmaid, Miss Nola Harwood, wore a dress of pink chiffon and carried a bouquet of sweet peas and bavardia.

Herb Young was best man for Mr. Young. Prior to the ceremony, Miss Corine Harwood sang "Because" accompanied by Mrs. Myrna Frink, who also played the wedding music.

A reception for twenty-eight guests followed the ceremony. Mrs. Queen, mother of the bride, was assisted by Mesdames Edith Harwood, Myrna Frink, Gladys Robbins and Amy Moore.

The couple left later on a wedding trip to San Francisco, Cal. They will return today to make their home at 335 South Ivy street.

The Misses Corine and Nola Harwood were hostesses for a pre-nuptial surprise dinner party honoring the bride.

Mrs. Young is a graduate of Medford high school. Prior to that she attended school in Wichita, Kansas, where the bridegroom also received his education.

Recent Bride

Mrs. Gordon E. Young, who was Miss Mary Regina Queen, prior to her marriage on June 30, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Queen, in this city. The young couple will make their home in Medford.

Mrs. Whalley Is Medford Visitor

Mrs. Edward Whalley is a visitor in Medford at the home of her mother, Mrs. T. J. Hampson. She formerly made her home in this city, and is well known here.

Mrs. Whalley will remain in this city a week or two while her husband works on his master's degree at University of California in Los Angeles.

Miss Hayes Visits Parents in City

Planning to leave today to return to their respective homes in the north are Miss Mary Corinne Hayes and Miss Eve Davis.

The two have been the house guests for several days of Miss Hayes' parents, Dr. and Mrs. James C. Hayes at their home on East Main street. Miss Davis resides in Tacoma, Wash., and Miss Hayes lives in Aberdeen. They are both social service workers.

Miss Hayes was recently accepted into Washington university in St. Louis, Mo., where she will take a year's medical social course and work on her master's degree. She plans to enter the school in September. The course at St. Louis college is regarded as one of the finest in medical social work in the country.

Miss Buckles to Enter Training

Miss Mildred Buckles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Buckles, left Thursday for Portland, where she will enter training as a laboratory technician at Good Samaritan hospital.

Miss Buckles attended Oregon State College the past three years, where her major was in pharmacy. She was one of two women students accepted for special training at the Portland hospital.

Fidelity Group To Meet Soon

Fidelity circle will meet at the home of Mrs. Nellie Brainerd near Central Point Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock for a picnic luncheon. Those wishing transportation are to meet at the Methodist church at noon. Each member is asked to bring his own service and a covered dish.

Mrs. Thomas Emmens

Mrs. Thomas H. Emmens, who with her husband, Dr. Emmens, is visiting in Madford for the summer. The couple spent the past year in St. Paul, Minn. In this city they are guests of Mrs. Emmens' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Inch, and Dr. Emmens' mother, Mrs. J. J. Emmens. Mrs. Emmens, a bride of a year ago, is the former Miss Leah Inch.

ART EXHIBITS AT JUNIOR HI SLATED

An unusual treat is in store for persons who attend the Leisure Arts exhibit in the Junior high school arts shop located directly behind the school building, Wednesday from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. and from 7 p. m. to 10 p. m.

Exhibited will be numerous attractive articles of various descriptions made by grade and Junior high school students between the fourth and ninth grades. Among objects to be viewed are: weaving, pottery, copper and raffia works, wood work in small items, molding wood carving.

Leisure art in Medford was started in 1936 in the school system and is now well established with an average of one thousand students a day during the school year participating. Students attend the classes voluntarily and only those making a good grade average are permitted to enter. Students decide on the articles which they wish to construct and are advised and instructed in the making by Mrs. Conrad Wesela and Mrs. Larry Ogle, Jackson school leisure arts teacher.

Of particular interest will be on exhibit Wednesday is a large sailboat painted attractively in white and blue. The top is removable and the body of the boat is large enough to store a child's toys. Another interesting article designed by a student is a bag made out of striped canvas with painted wood circles on either side supporting the canvas handle. The combination wood and canvas work may be used for shopping or knitting bag.

Other objects which will be on display are flower baskets of varying description; clay articles; tooled copper, including book-ends, notebooks, letter holders, cane chairs, leather and painting works. The school will be closed for the summer on July 12. Two hundred students have attended the summer session each day. The public is invited to attend the exhibit Wednesday.

WE HAVE TRIED to establish a standing in the community by fair dealing in all regards of class or creed, rich or poor.

PERL FUNERAL HOME
John A. & Frank Post
Ambulance Service
PHONE 47

Butler Home Is Scene of Party

Mrs. J. H. Butler entertained with a luncheon party at her home on East Main street Thursday.

Guests were her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Claude M. Thompson of Los Angeles, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Butler, daughter, Barbara, and son, Roger, of Grants Pass, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Butler, daughter, Ann, and son, Bob, Mrs. C. D. Thompson and Miss Jeunesse Butler of Medford. Claude Thompson left Saturday morning for his home. Mrs. Thompson will remain as the guest of her mother for several weeks.

Couples Visit Lake o' Woods
Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Williams of Medford and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Vickoren of Shady Cove spent the Fourth of July at Lake o' the Woods.

Garden Club To Meet Soon
The regular meeting of the Phoenix Garden club will be held Friday afternoon at 1:30 at the home of Mrs. Susie Mauff on the South Pacific highway. Mabel Quackenbush will assist.

Get-Together Will Convene
A meeting of the Get-Together club will be held at the Eagle's Hall at 42 North Front street Wednesday at 12:30 for a covered dish luncheon, with a business meeting to follow.

Phoenix Ladies To Have Social
Phoenix Presbyterian Ladies' Aid Society will give an ice cream social Friday evening at 7 o'clock. A short program will be presented.

Mistletoe Club Will Convene
Mistletoe Club, Royal Neighbors of America, will meet at 12:30 o'clock Wednesday for a picnic at Ashland Lithia park.

U-Boats Believed Sunk
London, July 6.—(Sp.)—An air ministry communique today said that five German submarines were attacked by British warplanes within five days last month and in each case oil patches were seen on the surface after the attacks—usually considered evidence that a submarine has been sunk.

Closing time for Too Late to Classify Ads is 1:30 p. m.

PORTLAND'S Most Distinctive Hotel
Invites You
• Friendly Service
• Home-Like Rooms
• Wonderful Food
• Sensible Rates

Hotel Benson
Broadway at Oak—Portland

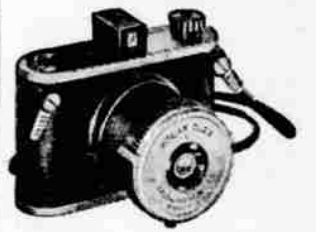

MANY SEE SHASTA EXHIBITS AT FAIR

Treasure Island—(Sp.)—More than 250,000 visitors have inspected and enjoyed the exhibits and outdoor court of the Shasta-Cascade Wonderland building at the Golden Gate international exposition to date, according to a report by Treffe R. La Senay, manager. Many of the visitors were so impressed with the Wonderland exhibit that they registered their attendance and, in many cases, wrote their impressions of the building and exhibit, La Senay said. Typical of such comments, the following were quoted:

Elizabeth D. Rawlins, San Francisco: "A most interesting and instructive exhibit revealing the wonders of God's creation in this beautiful setting."
Dean B. Holmes, Cheyenne, Wyo.: "Interesting and educational."
E. F. Spanier, Hammond, Ind.: "Interesting and realistic scenery; very appealing; displays unusually attractive."

PHONE 481
for Quick, Dependable Service
Unique Cleaners
Hotel Allen Bldg.—Bud Lawrents

JUST IN—A NEW AND DIFFERENT MINIATURE

KODAK DUEX
HERE'S the latest arrival at our camera counter. Gives you more pictures for your money; the latest in miniature camera style. Makes 16 album-size (1 1/2 x 2 1/4-inch) pictures per roll of No. 620 Kodak Film. Has the compactness of a folding camera, yet a simple twist of the mount extends the lens to picture-taking position. Smooth, precise-working shutter. Capable Doublet lens. Most exciting $5.75 of all its price—

Bring Your Films Here for Developing and Printing
"Twice-a-Day" Service
Free Developing Prints in All Sizes

SWEM'S
KODAKS & SUPPLIES

Mrs. Burhl Gilpin

Mrs. Burhl Gilpin, whose marriage to Dr. Gilpin, Medford physician, was an event of May in St. John's Lutheran church in Salt Lake City, Utah, arrived in Medford late last week to join Dr. Gilpin in making their home. She is the former Miss Ella Claussen of Harlan, Iowa, where she recently completed work with the Bigard clinic. She is a graduate of Immanuel hospital of Omaha, Neb., school of nursing, where she later served as supervisor for several years.

Flury Family Has Reunion

The Flury clan enjoyed a recent family reunion at the home of Mrs. John Cox and Ted Flury.

Those present were Mrs. C. W. Flury, Mrs. J. J. Flury and daughter, Evelyn, of Torrington, Wyoming; Mrs. Albert Jacot, Mrs. Lillian Haynes of Reno, Nev.; Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Dohy of Glendale, Ore.; Mrs. C. P. Snoddy and son, Bob, and daughter Ruthie of Roseburg and Mr. and Mrs. George Flury of Chiloquin.

Applegate Rites Of Interest Here

Big Applegate, July 6.—(Sp.)—Mrs. Inez Gleason and daughter, Betty, returned Thursday from a month's visit in Kansas City, Mo., during which time Mrs. Gleason and Kelly Gleason of that city were united in marriage. Mrs. Gleason and daughter will return to Missouri in a few weeks to join Mr. Gleason, who is a railroad mechanic, and Miss Betty will enter high school there.

During the visit of Mrs. Gleason and daughter just ended in the east, they visited the former's brother in Tucson, Ariz., and also journeyed to old Mexico.

Syrian Leader Slain
Damascus, Syria, July 6.—(Sp.)—Dr. Chahbandar, a well-known Syrian political leader, was assassinated today.

JULY NATION-WIDE SALE
DISCONTINUED STYLES

Enna Jetticks $3.95

Hurry and get your first choice of these July bargains. Lots of smart shoes—popular styles—colors—materials! Practically all sizes and widths available now. But (sorry!) not every size in every style. REGULAR STYLES $5 TO $4

M. M. Dept. Store

WE INTRODUCE THE NEW CHERAMY April Showers FACE POWDER

WITH A SENSATIONAL OFFER OF FREE PERFUME

The new April Showers powder brings you the beauty of youth in new thrilling skin tones. Large size box 79c. To introduce this marvelous new powder Cheramy perfume has made it possible for us to give FREE with each purchase of April Showers Face Powder a regular 30c flacon of April Showers Perfume—the perfume of youth.

HEATH'S DRUG STORE