NEWS VIEWS By WALEDO WHEELER WELL, the "glorious Fourth" has come and gone and the nation is gradually recovering from fireworks, picnics and patriotic orations. Every wrinkle has been waved out of the flag and the last firecracker of the season has been heard from. Independence and liberty got top billing for the day—and, as usual, turned out to be the most popular double bill of the year. After listening to the United States of Europe for a while, it was good to know there is still a country where you can still freedom ring—without finding it has been short-circuited. Because of public demand, Congressmen are staying in Washington for the summer. Pleasing the public means an X after their names, rather than an "E" in front of them. With warm weather—and every-one wearing light colors—renewed-ness a more frequent cleaning—it's more important than ever that your clothes are given the proper care. There's only one place to take them—where you'll be sure they are treated right—that's the Medford Cleaners, 20 So. Central. Phone 98.
