COLORED GHOSTS CLOWN TO 6 TO 3 MEDCO CONQUEST

American league: Fluhrer's vs. Catholic Men, 8 p. m.; Medco vs. Jennings Tire, 9 p. m. National league: Teamsters vs. Faber's, 8 p. m.

With an estimated 1,600 laughing fans in the stands, the Chicago Colored Ghosts, barnstorming softballers, handed Medford Corporation its first defeat of the year last night at the stadium, 6 to 3.

The Ghosts clown their merry way through seven hilarious innings, scoring whenever they needed to, and wound up their dizzy show by staging a 10-minute shadow game that laid 'em in the aisles. The colored boys ended their shadow exhibition in slow motion, and literally brought down the house.

When they weren't running bases the wrong way and good-naturedly harrassing the Medco players, the Ghosts were clowning Morrie Steiner, Medco hurler, for a dozen safeties, including triples by Hood and Wilkinson, and a double by Field. In the meantime, big, lanky Wilkinson, Ghost pitcher, was holding Medco to two blows, which were bunched in the second innings, with a walk, for Medco's three tallies. With two gone White walked, Kevan singled to right and Bob Wilson slammed a homer to right centerfield.

The Ghosts ran up their six runs in early innings, then broke out their wacky tactics. But while they proved they were polished comedians, they also showed Medford fans the best softball team ever seen here.

In the preliminary game, Hunt's Craterians nicked the Girls' Community club, 16 to 2, with A. Curry and P. Curry hurling six-hit ball for the winners, and the losers committing 11 errors.

There will be only one National league game this evening. Gasco was previously slated to play Copco, but the tilt has been cancelled because Unhappy!

Earl Browder, Communist party candidate for president of the United States, is opposed to pending legislation which would require registration of foreign controlled or directed organizations and he told a senate judiciary sub-committee in Washington so by testimony and facial expression. He is shown above looking both mad and unhappy. He told the committee the proposed law would be "a victory for Nazi political principles."

of Copco's advancement to the American league. Score: R. H. E. Colored Ghosts 6 12 0 Medco 3 2 2 Wilkinson and Metcalf; Steiner and Wilson.

Hunt's Craterian 16 16 4 Community Club 2 6 11 A. Curry, P. Curry and Davidson; Chapman and Swope.

Says Champion Golfer Joe Plunk, Whose playing at first was the bunk: "Since I've stuck to RAINIER For my 19th Hole CHEER, My scores have amazingly shrunk!"

A couple of bottles of Rainier Club Extra Pale waiting in the locker room is incentive enough for any golfer to hit 'em far and straight, so he can get to the clubhouse quicker.

If you're not a golfer—"don't even know which end of the club to hold"—you do know good beer, and what a peerless refresher and cooler it is when you're thirsty or hot.

In less than a year and a half, Rainier Club has become the favorite of thousands and thousands of westerners. Try a cold bottle today—savor its unequalled flavor, light but definite, and its sparkling, zesty tang—and you'll see why it's selling way over a million bottles a month.
