

MASTER PAINTERS MEET WITH UNION

Members of the master painters association and local union met last evening in the labor hall for the purpose of creating an amiable relationship among members and contacts locally.

It was one of the largest and most successful meetings of its kind ever held here, members said today. Approximately 55 were present. By unanimous approval it was decided to hold the combination social and business sessions every two weeks.

Fred Lawrence presided as chairman. Play in Band—Dr. L. L. Sanders, Tom Harvey and Fred Strang traveled to Ashland last evening to play in a park concert with the Ashland city band.

Indiana Family Here to Attend Wedding Service

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bolich arrived in Medford yesterday from their home in Angola, Ind., to attend the wedding of Mrs. Bolich's son, Dr. George K. Goodrich. The Bolichs were accompanied here by Dr. Goodrich's two sisters, the Misses Lucille and Marguerite Goodrich.

The wedding of Miss LaVerne Stephenson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stephenson, to Dr. Goodrich will be an event of Sunday, July 21 at high noon in St. Mark's Episcopal church.

The guests from Indiana are staying here at No. 5 Loring court where the young Medford couple will reside after their marriage.

Picnic Event is Set For Sunday

Past Noble Grands club will meet for a picnic at Ashland park Sunday at 12:30 o'clock. This annual event is for all members and their families. Each one is asked to bring a well filled basket and own service. Coffee, cream and sugar will be furnished by the committee.

Those in charge of refreshments are: Mrs. Carrie McDannel, Mrs. Grace Hamlin, Mrs. Rosie Young and Mrs. Nettie Grover. The entertainment committee will be Mrs. Maude Stickle, Mrs. Sarah Redden, Mrs. Nina Oatman and Mrs. Karen Bateman.

Medford Women Attend G. P. Party

Mrs. Eugene Childers of Medford, sister of Mrs. Fred Roper of Grants Pass, was complimented at a no-host birthday luncheon Wednesday at the Cave Shoppe in Grants Pass. Covers were laid for twelve guests.

Mrs. P. B. Bigelow, Mrs. F. J. Fry, Mrs. C. R. Fry, Mrs. Eugene Childers, all of Medford; Mrs. Ann Bragg and Mrs. Shirley of Los Angeles, and Mrs. C. B. Putman, Mrs. D. A. Hutchison, Mrs. Roper, Miss Marion Campbell and Miss Janet Ross, all of Grants Pass.

Garnetts to Visit in City

H. C. (Shorty) Garnett and family are expected to arrive in Medford tomorrow to spend a brief time before continuing on to Portland and Seattle for a visit.

The Garnetts formerly resided in this city and are well known here. Mr. Garnett owned a hardware store a number of years ago. The family now live in Alhambra, Cal., and have been attending the Golden Gate International Exposition on Treasure Island. After their stay in the north, Mr. Garnett will proceed on to Alaska for a sojourn while his family remains in Portland.

Thirty-eight Brownie Scouts attended day camp Wednesday. Councilors were Jean Smith, Dorothy Hayes, Patricia Farrell, Catherine Conroy, Mrs. H. C. Wells, Mrs. H. Harrison, Mrs. E. T. Curran, Mrs. M. Coulter, and Ruth Nordwick. Songs and folk dances were held and handicraft displayed which will be used for the closing day ceremony on July 17.

Mrs. Prentice to Leave Soon for Chicago Meeting

Mrs. Harry Prentice plans to leave next week for Chicago, Ill., to attend a meeting for the purpose of establishing a national accordian teachers association. While in the eastern metropolis, Mrs. Prentice will attend an accordian school for teachers, conducted by Anthony Galla Rini of New York, internationally famous accordianist and instructor.

The local woman also plans to attend the trades show, in Chicago. The local accordian band which had its inception two and a half years ago, now has a membership of over 150 including members from Grants Pass, Ashland, Talent, Gold Hill, Central Point and other Rogue River valley places.

Mrs. Prentice was recently invited to enter the band in the Golden Gate Exposition contest. Owing to her departure soon for Chicago, entry was not possible. During her absence from the city for three weeks, Miss Bertena Elmore will be in charge of instruction and band both in Grants Pass and Medford.

Spatz Hosts to House Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Spatz have as their house guests at their home on Vancouver avenue, Mrs. A. M. Blaker and Mrs. Mildred Engle of Vancouver, Wash. Mrs. Blaker is the mother of Mrs. Spatz and Mrs. Engle is her sister. The two expect to return to their northern home sometime this week.
