

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Return Home—Mrs. J. Orbin Cooksey and infant daughter, Pamela, returned to the Cooksey home at 928 East Jackson boulevard last night by plane from Portland.

In Klamath—Mr. and Mrs. Sebastian Apollo of 131 South Grape street spent yesterday in Klamath Falls on business, and attended the wrestling matches there last evening.

Guests from Roseburg—Mr. and Mrs. Bill Unrath and daughter, Mary Elise, of Roseburg are visiting at the home of Mrs. Unrath's aunt, Mrs. Susan Eads, 29 Kenwood avenue.

At Springs—Edward, Rita and Norman Kubli of Applegate were among Sunday visitors at Cinnabar Springs. The road to the resort is in good condition and "like a boulevard," says Chris Kenney, manager, said today.

Injured—Sarah Ellis of 425 North Grape street is confined in Community hospital as the result of a serious accident Sunday when she was thrown from a horse. She was reported by hospital attendants to have had a good night last night.

Father Ill—Mrs. V. R. Balantyne of 522 West Tenth street left by plane today for Portland from where she will go to Hillsboro where her father, A. E. Brandaw, is seriously ill. Mr. Brandaw has visited in Medford frequently and has friends here who will be sorry to learn of his illness.

Visiting Here—Miss Margaret Dow of San Francisco arrived by motorcar this morning to spend a few days with relatives here. During her visit she will be guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Beebe of Central Point, and her cousin, Miss Barbara Lee Koehler of 610 King street.

Firemen's Picnic—Medford's volunteer firemen and regulars off duty will hold their first annual picnic Sunday at Bybee Beach park on Rogue river at Bybee bridge. The men's families also will attend, between 50 and 60 persons being expected. The picnicers are to gather at the park at 1 p. m. Swimming, a ball game and other diversions will precede the serving of the picnic lunch.

To Give Lectures—Louise Billings of the I Am Sanctuary, 210 Craterian building, has returned from a three weeks stay in Los Angeles where she attended a Great Shrine class. She announced today that Frances Ekey of Philadelphia, prominent leader in the I Am philosophy, will speak at the Medford sanctuary at 8 p. m. Friday and Saturday. Anyone interested is invited to hear her.

Have Baby—Word was received here today of the birth of a boy weighing eight pounds, three ounces, Sunday, to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bennett in Grants Pass. The baby was named Edward Franklin, Jr. The baby's father is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Carl Bennett of 343 South Grape street, and Mrs. Bennett is the former Miss Bertha Finney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Finney of 910 Stevens street.

Nebraska Picnic—The Nebraska picnic association will hold its 17th annual picnic at Avery park in Corvallis on Sunday, August 4. All Nebraskans are invited. Each is to bring his own picnic lunch and service. Free coffee will be provided. A program of entertainment will be presented. Last year 2500 former Nebraskans attended the picnic. Avery park is situated on highway 99-W about a quarter mile south of Corvallis. Signs mark the way.

Dakota Picnic—The annual North and South Dakota picnic will be held in the upper part of Litchia park in Ashland on Sunday, July 28. All former residents of the Dakotas are invited to attend. Each family will provide its own picnic lunch. Coffee, feed tea and lemonade will be furnished free. The picnic will start at noon. Alexander's guitar band will provide music. The program includes various games and races, a tug-of-war between the two states, impromptu talks and vocal and instrumental music.

On Vacation—Dan Hull of 517 South Grape street left by motorcar this morning on a ten-day vacation trip to the San Francisco bay area. His itinerary included the Golden Gate international exposition.

Lodge to Meet—Pocahontas lodge will meet Friday at 8 p. m. in Redman hall on Apple street. Members will go to the home of Mrs. Wayne Keesev, 28 South Peach street, for a lawn party after lodge session.

Place Changed—Degree of Honor picnic scheduled for Sunday at 10 a. m. will take place at Helman Baths in Ashland instead of McKee bridge as was first planned. The Klamath Falls lodge will also attend the affair.

Flying North—Lieut. Q. T. Quick stopped at Medford municipal airport today to have his army Northrup attack plane refueled. He was en route from Hamilton field, San Rafael, Cal., to Boeing field, Seattle, Wash.

Chimney Fire—No damage was done by a chimney fire at the home of C. A. Nutter, 826 South Central avenue at 9:10 this morning. The fire department's chemical crew stood by while soot in the chimney burned itself out.

To Picnic—Cub packs 1, 2 and 8 of Medford and 40 of Central Point will hold a picnic Thursday evening at Jackson Hot Springs. Cubs are to attend in the afternoon to swim, and parents are to go at 6:30 p. m. for the picnic. Families are to bring a drink and salad or cup cakes. Awards will be made after supper.

Plane Passengers—J. S. Ashley left by United Mainliner this noon for Portland. Mrs. J. Mount and C. C. Bechtold arrived from Portland on the forenoon Mainliner. Passengers leaving early this morning were L. W. Wright, Mrs. V. R. Balantyne, George Hiles and Russell Olson, to Portland, and R. W. Crutchfield, to Seattle. Arrivals from Portland on the midnight plane were Mrs. J. Orbin Cooksey and daughter Pamela and H. Kaplan. J. Anderson arrived from Oakland last night, and leaving on the same plane were J. J. Stavert, to Seattle, and Louis B. Gerlinger, to Portland.

Succeeds Wilkie—Wilmington, Del., July 17.—Justin R. Whiting, elected president and a member of the board of Commonwealth and Southern Corp. here today to succeed Wendell L. Wilkie, told newsmen when asked what he thought of Wilkie's presidential prospects.

"My Favorite Wife" Comes To Craterian Sunday

What to do when long-lost wife returns on the very day hubby gets married again is the hilarious situation confronting Cary Grant who, with Irene Dunne and Gail Patrick, as wife and bride, respectively, is starred in the comedy of marital entanglements, "My Favorite Wife," coming to the Craterian Theater Sunday for a three-day showing. Irene, presumably lost on an African exploration, returns after a seven-year absence on the day that Cary weds Gail. Randolph Scott is also merrily involved as a scientist with whom Irene spent that period on a desert island.

Western Stars

Chester Morris is sure to add another feature to his acting cap with his dual characterization of twin brothers in "Wagons Westward," which heads the action double bill opening a three-day run tomorrow at the New Rialto theater. Morris plays both Tom Cook, a desperate renegade of the west; and his twin brother, David Cook, who has chosen to be an officer of the law—and, who, after a series of notorious arrests is sent to capture his twin brother and return him to the government. While wagons roll westward and David looks for his brother and two other dangerous criminals, he falls in love with the girl his brother loves—and his resemblance to the notorious Tom Cook gets him into and out of one jam after another. George "Windy" Hayes, Buck Jones and Anita Louise head the large supporting cast. Renfrew of the Royal Mounted, featured in "Murder on the Yukon," will play as the companion feature with "Wagons Westward."

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere appreciation to our friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy during our recent bereavement. Also for the beautiful floral offerings. J. M. "Pop" Ormsley.

PADUCAH COLONEL ENTERTAINS LIONS AT WEEKLY LUNCH

Continuing his appearances here, Col. Jack Major of the Paducah, Kentucky, Majors entertained the Lions club at its weekly dinner-meeting in the Hotel Medford last night.

Major gave his novel program of yarns and humor. His feat of remembering the names of all the Lions after hearing them only once slipped a cog when it came to Henry Zacharisen and this added to the club's enjoyment of the young colonel's program. Major is a publicity representative of the Union Oil company.

Earl Sims presented to his fellow clubmen the trophy won by the Medford Lions bowling team at the first annual Lions Redwood Empire tournament at Eureka, Cal., last month.

A past president's pin was presented to Leland Knox, now district governor. The presentation, considered a signal honor, was made by Art Rinder, club president who presided. Marmie Olson was given a membership key for his work in procuring new members.

Guests were Kenneth Parrett, L. C. Taylor, Fred P. King, Roy Pruitt, Robert Crutchfield and Earl Reisma.

On Roxy Bill

"Blackmail" brings Edward G. Robinson to the screen of the Roxy theater for today and tomorrow only with "His Exciting Night," starring Charlie Ruggles, as the companion feature. "Blackmail" tells the shocking story of a man who came back to civilization after a living hell in prison. Bobs Watson plays opposite as Robinson's son.

RED CROSS MEET COMING THURSDAY

A large attendance is expected at the annual Jackson county Red Cross meeting to be held Thursday at noon in the Hotel Medford.

George T. Frey, chairman, will preside. Luncheon will be followed by election of officers and a program. Other year-end business will also be transacted. Because of the great increase in the demands upon the Red Cross by wars in all parts of the world, more than usual interest is being shown this year in the meeting.
