FIGHT POSTPONES EARLY ADOPTION DEMO PLATFORM

that the anti-third termers be given a hearing.

"Convention Railroaded"

"We're all through with hearings," Wagner snapped, turning on his heel and walking away.

There still was no assurance that a formal Roosevelt speech would be offered.

It was certain, however, that Farley's name would be offered as well as those of Vice-President John N. Garner and Senator Burton K. Wheeler of Montana. Senator Millard E. Tydings of Maryland may also be presented as a favorite son.

Roosevelt Secret Out

President Roosevelt's close-held secret in out. He does not want to be renominated nor to be president again.

Everyone here believes he will accede to a third term draft, possibly within 24 hours, a step which will dissolve the great political partnership of Roosevelt, Garner, Farley and Co.

Mr. Roosevelt released his delegates last night. There were around 800 of them more or less committed to his renomination and another hundred or so on his band wagon. He formally advised this convention that he had neither desire nor purpose to be renominated or re-elected. But his statement had no braking power. The third term juggernaut is still rolling and his words seemed to have hastened its pace.

Barkley Gives Word

Permanent Convention Chairman Alben W. Barkley, the senior senator from Kentucky, tripped the trigger on the Roosevelt show last night by reading a statement of these presidential views. Twice he shouted his glasses off his nose as he called the roll of new deal accomplishments and had great praise for the man he knew would become this convention's man who.

"* * * He has no wish to be a candidate again," Barkley told the convention last night. "* * * In no way whatsoever has he exerted any influence in the selection of delegates * * *.

"The president has never had and has not today, any desire or purpose to continue in the office of president, to be a candidate for that office, or to be nominated by the convention for that office.

"* * * all of the delegates to this convention are free to vote for any candidate."

The delegates heard that and streamed, whooping, into the aisles brandishing state standards and before long Barkley was kissing them as they were poked under his nose by perspiring paraders on the floor. He gave a big kiss to Massachusetts where Postmaster General James A. Farley believes he has a solid bloc of anti-third term votes. Genial Jim does not have them solid any more.

The demonstration ended after some 45 minutes.

That wasn't the real Roosevelt demonstration anyway.

Fights on Floor

Barkley let the real one go early in his speech, at 10:33 p.m., when he praised the "leadership of one of the world's outstanding democrats — Franklin Delano Roosevelt" and they were off. There was a fight fight in Massachusetts—the floor area reserved for delegates from that state — and it spilled into the aisles where fists began flying. There are Roosevelt and Farley delegates in that delegation and Farley's men would not have their state's banner in the parade. But it went in any got the biggest kiss of all from Barkley.

Texans fought, too, and perhaps better than the men of Massachusetts. The Texans wrestled themselves and their state standard to the floor but it stayed in the parade and few states were not represented although that is just short of an honest count because some states had two or thre standards and one could be parading and the other firm in its socket—to the satisfaction of all factions, if possible.

BLACKBERRY PRICES FIXED FOR OREGON

Salem, July 17.—(U.P.)—Blackberry growers will receive four cents a pound for both Himalaya and Evergreen berries, the Oregon blackberry control board announced today.

The crop is estimated at between 400 and 500 tons as compared with last year when 800 to 1000 tons were harvested, for which growers were paid only 2½ cents a pound.

SHANGHAI DISPUTE IS AGGRAVATED BY STAND ON HONOR

render or be destroyed" ultimatum, as heralded by the fascist editor, Virginio Gayda—were strengthened with the scheduled departure of Italy's foreign minister, Count Galeazzo Ciano, for Berlin.

Ciano Due Friday.

Count Ciano, due in Berlin Friday, is expected to confer with Hitler regarding possible "terms" to be offered Britain.

The Japanese foreign office announced Britain has agreed to close the Burma road—China's main lifeline of war supplies—and also shut off the flow of arms traffic into China from the British crown colony of Hongkong.

China, however, has insisted she will not give up the fight against Japan, despite these amputations.

In Tokyo, Emperor Hirohito summoned Prince Fumimaro Konoye to the imperial palace and commanded the 48-year-old advocate of a totalitarian one-party system, to form a new cabinet.

Prince Konoye's predecessor, Admiral Mitsumasa Yonai, resigned yesterday under criticism for his failure to satisfy expansionist demands that Japan sieze the "golden" chance provided by the European war to extend Japanese influence over rich British, French and Netherland possession in the Orient.

U. S. Warships Move.

Powerful forces of the United States battle fleet, which steamed out of Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, yesterday, were believed en route to "patrol" British and French islands in the South Pacific—the region eyed by Japan.

In the European war theater, the German high command reported bad weather reduced air attacks on Britain, but nazi planes flew high over the island kingdom again this morning and heavy explosions were heard in a southeast town.

The high command said a merchant ship had been left in flames in an attack on a north Scotland harbor and that a British troop concentration was bombed at Scapa Flow.

Peace Hints Rebuffed.

Peace hints from Rome were met by London newspapers with a reminder that Prime Minister Winston Churchill has already served flat notice on the axis powers tha Britain will "tolerate no parley."

Newspapers in London's old Fleet street flared black headlines over stories under New York or Rome datelines that Germany may start her invasion this Friday night from a 1,200-mile front along the English channel ranging from Brest, France, to Bergen, Norway.

Sharing the spotlight with the Far Eastern situation was the totally unexpected action of Spain in severing diplomatic relations with Chile.

The Spanish government said it had acted because of an anti-nationalist campaign in Chile had "reached intolerable limits."

HIGH POSITION MAY GO TO OREGON MAN

Portland, Ore., July 17.—(U.P.)—Two prominent Oregonians were considered today for the post of U. S. maritime commissioner scheduled to be vacated in August by the retirement of Edward C. Moran, Jr., of Maine.

The candidates are Mayor Joseph K. Carson, Jr., of Portland and Dean Wayne L. Morse, University of Oregon, federal west coast labor mediator.

PORTLANDER ADMITS MAKING VOID CLAIM

Portland, Ore., July 17.—(U.P.)—Delmer C. Kiernan, 31, Portland, was under orders to repay $51.86 to the state or go to jail today after he pleaded guilty to a charge of wilful false statement to obtain state unemployment compensation benefits. He was drawing benefits at the same time he worked as a truck driver.
