

RED CROSS PICKS NEW OFFICERS AT ANNUAL MEETING

Jackson County Chapter's Membership Goal Passed Is Word—Work Reviewed

Jackson county chapter of the American Red Cross was started today on another year of public service under the new staff of officers elected yesterday at its annual meeting.

At the helm is Seth M. Bullis, long identified with the chapter, who succeeded George T. Frey as chairman. Mr. Frey had been chairman since 1934.

Chapter membership now stands at 3428, the meeting was told. A 10 percent membership increase had been set as the goal in the latest membership campaign and it was exceeded.

Work Reviewed
A summary of the past year's activities was reviewed, the condensed report showing the variety of the activities carried on here by the Red Cross. These included relief of distressed families, child welfare, first aid courses, water life saving, aid in local disasters and work of various kinds for the relief of war sufferers.

Under the heading of "Local Disaster" it was stated that 11 families, whose homes and household goods were destroyed by fire during the year, were assisted by the Jackson county Red Cross.

Among those who gave oral reports were Mr. Bullis, on first aid, John Nagley, on water safety, Mrs. E. G. Burgess, on war production, and Mr. Frey, on finances. Mr. Frey substituted for Ben E. Harder, treasurer and director of the recent war relief fund campaign, who was absent. A report on her office was given by Mrs. D. H. Ferry, retiring secretary.

Efforts Appreciated
Votes of appreciation of their services were accorded the retiring officers. Miss Lillian M. Roberts, executive secretary, was commended for her loyal, efficient and sympathetic administration of the chapter's work.

Thirty-five members attended the annual luncheon-meeting and all manifested a keen interest in the chapter's affairs and in the leading part the American Red Cross is playing in the relief of suffering not only in this country but in other parts of the world where warfare has again made victims of millions of persons.

The following executive board was elected for 1940-41: George T. Frey, Seth Bullis, B. E. Harder, Miss Marjorie Kelly, Eugene Thorndike, John Nagley, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. V. Carpenter, Mrs. Frederick H. Johnson, Mrs. Evan Reames, C. C. Furnas, J. B. Coleman, Mrs. E. G. Burgess, Mrs. R. G. Bardwell, Father Herald Gardner, Miss Vera Humphrey, Mrs. D. H. ### FILM COWPUNCHER FREED IN SLAYING

Hollywood, July 19.—(U.P.)—Jerome (Blackjack) Ward, movie cowpuncher, today was freed of a charge of murdering his one-time pal when District Attorney Buron Fitts moved for dismissal of the case upon discovery of evidence that Ward had acted in self-defense.

Superior Judge A. A. Scott granted the motion for dismissal after a large pearl-handled knife, which Ward had contended was in the hand of John A. Tyacke, another film cowboy, when he shot him February 23, turned up in court.

The knife was produced by E. L. Jackson, a wrestler known as "Yukon Jake." Jackson testified although he had discovered the knife two days after the shooting in some weeds near the scene, he "never connected it up as being important" until yesterday.

"When I heard all this testimony about a knife," he added, "I figured maybe this was the one."

COUPLE CONFESS BURNING HOUSES

Roseburg, Ore., July 19.—(P)—John Henry Root, 52, and his housekeeper, Rose Lillian Detillon, 36. Pleaded guilty in circuit court here today to a district attorney's information charging them with burning a residence building for the purpose of collecting insurance. Root was sentenced to two years in the state penitentiary. Imposition of sentence on Mrs. Detillon was postponed.

Sheriff Percy Webb reported the couple had signed statements to the effect they had burned two houses in Roseburg, one on the date of April 12, 1940, and the other last Friday. They collected $500 from the first fire, the sheriff stated, and had $800 insurance on furnishings declared lost in last week's fire.

Groceteria, Medford, Oregon July 11, 1940
Gentlemen:

For the past fifteen months one of the items in the writer's diet in large quantities has been cottage cheese, which one grows tired of after that length of time.

While in Medford the writer had the pleasure of having lunch at your store and one of the items served was cottage cheese. I am very much interested in having the information as to whether or not this cheese is a local product, or if it is possible to obtain it in other cities in Oregon. The texture and the flavor of the cheese was so fine that I could again enjoy cottage cheese in my diet if I could always be sure of being served the brand which I had at your store.

Sincerely yours,
JOHN B. HARRISON
