"Maryland" Coming Wednesday

Brenda Joyce and John Payne carry the romantic leads in the all-Technicolor picture, "Maryland," opening a four-day run tomorrow at the Craterian theater. Also featured are three Academy Award winners—Walter Brennan, Fay Bainter and Hattie McDaniel—with Charlie Ruggles and Marjorie Weaver rounding out the exceptional cast.

A colorful, romantic story of the proud south, "Maryland" climaxes its exciting action against the brilliant background of the famed Hunt Cup Steeplechase.

As an added attraction on the same program, the Craterian will have what is hailed everywhere as the best Donald Duck cartoon Walt Disney has yet made, "Mr. Duck Steps Out."

"Dr. Christian"

An engrossing new set of adventures faces popular Dr. Christian, the benevolent small town physician of River's End in the third release in the series, "Dr. Christian Meets the Women," which heads the laugh-and-fun-filled double bill opening for today and tomorrow only at the New Rialto theater. Starring Jean Harsholt again as the radio favorite, the new comedy-drama concerns a new menace, an unscrupulous dietitian with a get-thin-quick reducing scheme, who preys on the health and purses of the naive women of the community.

Dorothy Lovett again plays Nurse Judy and others in the cast include Edgar Kennedy, Frank Albertson and the favorite of yesterday, Rod La Rocque.

"The Captain Is a Lady," starring Charles Coburn as the only male inmate of an old ladies' home, plays as the companion fun hit. Beulah Bondi, Billie Burke and Helen Broderick have roles in the supporting cast. Coburn's stumbling but well-meaning attempts to play cupid and the understanding, friendly result in riotous situations seldom equalled on the screen.
