WIDOW OF IRWIN SUES TO COLLECT LIFE INSURANCE

$10,000 Sought Under Double Indemnity Clause in Crash Death of Husband

Elizabeth A. Irwin filed suit today against the New York Life Insurance company for collection of $10,000, under the double indemnity clause of a policy issued to her husband, Lester Irwin, killed April 30 last, when the auto he was driving overturned and crashed off the Pacific highway near Gold Hill. His body was found several days after the accident.

The complaint sets forth that on January 3 last, Irwin applied for and paid for a life insurance policy for $5,000, with a double indemnity clause, in case of accidental or violent death, in which the plaintiff was named as the beneficiary. Demands for payment have been denied, the complaint states.

Attorneys George M. Roberts and William M. McAllister appear as counsel for Mrs. Irwin.

Irwin, a well-known resident of this city, operated a feed store, and his disappearance caused considerable local concern. Search was instituted, and his movements traced to Rogue River, where he ate a meal, attended to business matters, and started to this city. A week or so later, the car was found in the brush, where it had crashed into a tree after leaving the Pacific highway.

TOWNSEND SPEAKS FRIDAY EVENING

(Contributed.)

The public is reminded that Robert C. Townsend, secretary-treasurer of the Townsend National Recovery Plan and one of the ablest speakers on the American platform, will lecture at the Medford high school auditorium, South Oakdale avenuue and Dakota street, at 8 p. m. Friday.

This should be very interesting, as Mr. Townsend is in close touch with national affairs and will have a good message.

Doors will open at 7 o'clock and everyone is urged to get there early. A program of music, etc., will start about 7:15 in order to entertain until Mr. Townsend's arrival.

This meeting is for the general public as well as Townsendites and there will be no admission charge.

AMY A. WARNER TAKEN BY DEATH

Amy A. Warner, 46, wife of Alva Warner of south Pacific highway near Medford, passed away at 7:40 p.m. Tuesday following a lingering illness.

Mrs. Warner was born at Midvale, Idaho and came to southern Oregon 13 years ago. The family resided in the Williams creek district before moving to Medford eight years ago.

Besides her husband, she leaves two children, Francis and Elton Warner both at home. Also three brothers, Gilbert and Donald Reavis of Portland and Joseph of Payette, Idaho.

Funeral services will be held at the Conger chapel at 1:30 Friday with Rev. Leonard Weston officiating. Mrs. Warner was a member of the Full Gospel church. Interment will be in the Sparlin cemetery at Williams.

GRAHAM LOGGING BAN LIFTED BY FORESTERS

It was expected that Ralph Graham of Ashland, operator of the old Dow sawmill near Prospect, would resume operations today after complying with the Oregon law requiring the possession of certain specified fire-fighting tools on logging and mill premises.

Graham's logging and mill operations were closed late yesterday by the state forest department on the ground that he did not possess the required fire-fighting tools.

Attending the conference are representatives of the bureau of reclamation, biological survey, national park service, grazing service, Indian service and general land office from CCC camps in southern Oregon and northern California. The conference will be concluded tomorrow.

Purpose of the conference is to provide instruction in job training for the CCC enrollees through the technical agencies. About 25 of the CCC technical service administrative personnel are attending the conference.

Medford CCC district headquarters are being represented by George H. Fields, district educational adviser, and Joseph W. Scobey, district publicity officer.

BRAINERD TRIAL OCCUPIES COURT

The justice court case of Herbert Merle Brainerd of Butte Falls, charged with reckless driving, was underway today before a jury. The trial, transferred to the circuit court room, is expected to take most of the day. The jury is composed of Fred Fry, Charles Bateman, John Moffatt, Lester C. Taylor, G. W. Kellington, and James C. Collins.

Brainerd, a logging camp worker, is alleged to have recklessly driven a truck on the Butte Falls-Fish Lake road, striking an auto driven by Ray Shepard, causing it to overturn, and strike a log. Shepard was rendered unconscious in the accident, late in the afternoon of July 10, last.

Fourteen witnesses are scheduled to be called. The jury was drawn and taken to the scene of the accident yesterday.

The defendant is represented by Attorney Otto Frohnmayer, and the state by District Attorney F. J. Newman.

Washington, July 24.—(AP)—Brigadier-General Frederic May Wise, retired marine corps officer and widely-known author, died today after an extended illness.

20-30 'AMBASSADOR' PRINCIPAL SPEAKER AT DINNER MEETING

"Dad" Shimmin of Urbana, Ill., national good-will ambassador of 20-30 clubs, was principal speaker at last night's regular weekly dinner-meeting of the Medford chapter in Hotel Jackson.

Mr. Shimmin, who expects to visit 97 of the nation's 182 clubs before the national convention at San Diego, Cal., August 20 to 24, told local members of his various experiences in his eight years of getting acquainted with the country's clubs.

Another speaker was Harlan Wiley, Medford midget auto race driver, who described the art of herding a "doodle bug" and explained the mechanical technicalities of the tiny machines.

Other guests of the club were Ed Keogh and Shelby Tuttle of Medford; Joe Friend of Portland, and visiting 20-30ians George Warren of Crescent City, Cal., and Sterling Simon of San Francisco.

Shark-Shooters.

Port Isabel, Tex.—(AP)—A 550-pound shark was caught in a cotton patch near here. Rosilini Par and five companions bagged it with a rifle, pistol and axe. Here's how. The shark came through a levee break in a Rio Grande flood and was trapped on land when the waters receded.
