"Ghost Breakers" Here Sunday

Zephyr-like ghosts, zooming and which opens Sunday at the Craterian theater. Even with their fingers crossed, they are beginning to believe that this is more harrowing—and funnier than "The Cat and the Canary," in which they first started their career of ghost-breaking.

Coming Thursday

Laughable Mischa Auer heads the quintet of comedians appearing opposite Baby Sandra in her new picture, "Sandy Is a Lady," which heads the double bill coming to the Rialto theater tomorrow for a three-day run. The other four fun-makers include Billy "Sneezy" Gilbert, Eugene Pallette, Edgar Kennedy and Fritz Feld, any one of whom has heretofore been considered sufficient for a comedy of ordinary proportions.

And to make the picture even more enjoyable—Tom Brown and Nan Grey have been added to carry out romantic interest; with little "Butch" and "Buddy," the little tornadoes of "Underpup" fame, also in the all-star cast. "Days of Jesse James," starring Roy Rogers, will play as the companion feature with "Sandy Is a Lady."
