JOHN APPLIGATE OUTFITS CAR FOR GREAT ADVENTURE

John Appligate, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Appligate, plans to leave around the first of August on a cross-country tour to Nova Scotia, fulfilling most any boy's dream of "The Great Adventure."

All his traveling will be done in a car he completely rebuilt into a house trailer. His car, complete in a cream paint job with plaid trimmings and plaid upholstery, will resemble, when finished, a very small but compact house.

This summer John has been helping his father and prior to that he was employed in the license department in the secretary of state's office. With the money he has earned, he will finance his entire trip.

In Nova Scotia, he plans to learn to sail and handle a boat from a friend of his brother, a Dick. At the end of this trip, if world conditions are such that the trip could be safely made, John will buy a boat and with two or three other boys return to the Pacific coast by way of the Panama canal.

A complete account of his trip will be kept and later John plans to write a book on his experiences.

John attended St. Mary's in Medford and later the seminary at Mount Angel college. He and his brother Dick, are both well known in Medford, Dick being manager of the United Press in Salem.

Any boy that is really interested in a trip of this kind, should get in touch with John at his home, for he would like a companion to share his traveling experiences.

LAST MINUTE APPEAL MADE IN EFFORT TO SAVE CLAUDE CLINE

Salem, July 25.—(P)—Last minute efforts to appeal the first degree murder conviction of Claude E. Cline, 46-year-old Fossil prospector sentenced to die in the lethal gas chamber at 8:30 a. m. tomorrow, were made today by the Rev. P. W. Eriksen, Salem minister.

Eriksen asked Gov. Charles A. Sprague to grant a brief reprieve so the appeal could be filed, but the governor gave no indication he would do so.

Portland, July 25.—(P)—A Portland attorney offered his services without charge today for an appeal of the first degree murder conviction of Claude E. Cline.

Irvin Goodman, the attorney, said he was willing to act, "at the request of the Oregon Prison association and the Rev. P. W. Eriksen." Salem minister, if Governor Sprague would stay the execution.

Tax Boost Upheld—Salem, July 25.—(P)—Circuit Judge Louis P. Hewitt of Portland sustained yesterday the state tax commission's increasing the valuation of the Mackay Radio and Telegraph company's Oregon properties from $125,000 in 1938 to $142,000 in 1939, the state tax commission said today.

Baby Sandy Is Rialto Headliner

Yes, sir! This is Baby Sandy, the little girl who stole your heart as a boy in Bing Crosby's "East Side of Heaven," and with Mischa Auer in "Little Accident." In "Sandy Is a Lady," which heads the double bill opening a three-day run at the Rialto theater, Sandy is a grown-up little lady and around her is centered the year's most laughable cast, headed by Mischa Auer, who has played in all of her pictures: Eugene Pallette, Edgar Kennedy, Billy Gilbert and Fritz Feld. Tom Brown and Nan Grey have supporting roles with "Butch" and "Buddy" of "The Underpup" fame.

"Days of Jesse James," starring Roy Rogers as the detective imported by the railroads to track down and capture the notorious James boys, plays as the companion feature with "Sandy Is a Lady."

Walter Brennan, that fire-eater, horse-lovin' old codger who was "Kentucky's" Academy Award winning star, heads an outstanding cast, including a couple of other award winners—Fay Bainter and Hattie McDaniel. Others are Brenda Joyce, John Payne, Charlie Ruggles and Marjorie Weaver. There's another player in the cast who simply must not be neglected. He's Ben Carter, in the role of Shadrach, dinky stable boy. Maybe it was because he was inspired by the presence of the three award winners, or maybe it's because he's never had a chance before, but this colored actor almost steals the honors from his more distinguished players.

The story centers on a mother's aversion to horses after her husband has been thrown and killed during a fox hunt. Despite her inhibitions, her son becomes an expert horseman and, to further complicate the situation, he falls in love with the granddaughter of the horse trainer. All the glory, romance and traditions are developed in the intensely human story, climaxed by the spectacle of flaming silks, flashing against blue sky and green turf at America's most spectacular steeplechase—the Maryland Hunt Cup race.

Although "Mr. Duck Steps Out," the new Disney cartoon on the same program, is listed as an added attraction, it can't help but be one of the most talked about subjects of the show. For in this one, Donald Duck finds himself a jitterbug—although much against his will—his three nephews and Daisy—a ducky Hedy Lamarr—are the cause of the excitement. It's undoubtedly one of the funniest Duck cartoons Disney has ever produced.

Walter Brennan is Heading Brilliant Cast at Craterian. Packed with thrills, romance and beauty—solid entertainment all the way through—"Maryland," which came to the Craterian theater yesterday, tops one of the finest all-around programs to be shown here for quite some time. Filmed in Technicolor, the picture captures the great tradition of the proud south.

BACKACHE, LEG PAINS MAY BE DANGER SIGN Of Tired Kidneys

If backache and leg pains are making you miserable, don't just complain and do nothing about them. Nature may be warning you that your kidneys need attention. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking poisons out of the blood. They help most people pass about 2 pints of urine each day.

If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, throbbing pains, leg pains, loss of sleep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with stinging and burning sometimes show there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood. Get Doan's Pills.
