72 GIRLS LISTED FOR OPENING OF FIRST WEEK CAMP

Girl Scout camp at Lake O' the Woods opens Sunday with 72 girls registered for the first week with 18 counselors, and a kitchen crew of five.

Eighteen senior Girl Scouts will be in the Pirute unit with Mrs. Conrad Wessela, Miss Kay Gott, Miss Jane Lund and Catherine Conroy as counselors. Girls in this unit will take part in the advanced program of boating, long hikes, pioneer cooking and archery.

Twenty-three girls will be in the Foresters unit with Mrs. Gertrude Armstrong, Misses Elsie Older, Marianne Hartwick, Dorothy Row, Jeanette Thatcher and Sybil Walker for counselors. Thirty girls will be in the Gypsy unit with Mrs. Ivah Dobbs, Murray, Mrs. Paul Prescott, Misses Dorothy Root, Rose Hutton, Charlotte Older and Geraldine Bunch for counselors.

Other counselors will be Mrs. Lina Wright, Mrs. Francis Spurlin, Mrs. Cecil Gall, Mrs. Raymond Driver and the camp director, Mrs. Marjorie Pena.

Campers are reminded to bring extra bedding, bed socks or wool blankets because the nights are chilly at Lake O' the Woods.

Because the Boy Scouts are checking out Sunday, parents bringing in Girl Scout campers are asked to please not arrive in camp before 2 o'clock.

One hundred and fifteen Girl Scouts have registered for the camping period of two weeks. There are still 10 vacancies in the first week and girls may register for this period if the registrations are in the office by Thursday night.

Bed rolls must be left at the Scout office before Saturday afternoon or brought down by 8 o'clock Sunday morning. The supply truck will make only one trip into camp, taking campers' bed rolls.

MEDCO LOGGERS WILL TAKE VOTE

A national labor relations board election will be held by wood-workers of the Medford Corporation but no information has been received as to the date. James H. Owen, general manager, stated today. The corporation, Mr. Owen added, is taking no interest in the forthcoming election, viewing that as a matter between the employees and the labor board.

Mr. Owen disclosed that on July 23 he met with C.I.O. executives and seven employees and consented to the election in accordance to labor board provisions to determine what agency would represent the employees in their contacts with the management. Among those at the meeting was L. H. Fenton, international executive board member of the IWA, a C.I.O. affiliate.

The IWA executives conducted an open meeting at Loggers and other in city park at Butte Falls last Monday night.

GRANDMOTHER IS GIVEN TEMPORARY CUSTODY OF BOY

Under an order of the Lane county circuit court, Mrs. Ida Lipas of near Gold Hill, grandmother of Vernon Houk, eight, has been granted his temporary custody, and a hearing to make it permanent has been set for September 17 at Eugene.

Habeas corpus proceedings, instituted by Wanda Hansen, the boy's mother, in the Jackson county circuit court, to obtain custody from the grandparents, Ida Lipas and Walter Lipas, will be held in abeyance until the decision of the Lane county court.

The case was moved to Lane county on the grounds the divorce decree granting the mother the boy, was issued there in 1935, and that court retains jurisdiction.

The mother in her writ application alleged the grandparents were withholding the lad, when she wanted to take him to her home in California.

As a side angle on the case, charges of assault and battery were filed two weeks ago, against Chris Hansen and Vernon Hansen, father and son, by Walter Lipas. The complaint charged the Hansens assaulted Lipas and his companion, a man by the name of Jensen, in a local restaurant, when the boy was with them. This case is still pending in justice court.
