Billy Hulén Says:

Tiger Gridders Still Undecided On School Choice

The gridiron season isn't far off—about a month and a half—and as yet the three Medford high lads considered the most promising collegiate material haven't made up their minds which institution of higher learning they will head for . . . or if they have, it is still a dark secret . . .

John Saulsbury, fullback; Al Barrow, giant tackle, and Bob Newland, triple-threat left-half-back, all of last season's Black Tornado, are the boys drawing most of the looks from college representatives (only "looks," Mr. Atherton, only "looks") . . . although something may turn up between now and the start of school, it is almost certain that Oregon and Oregon State will get the trio, though who will go where is not known . . .

So far as Saulsbury and Barrow are concerned, there is no doubt but that they'll play football in college, but such is not the case with Newland . . . the latter weighs only about 170 at his heaviest, and he plans to confine his collegiate athletic activities to basketball, baseball and track . . .

And speaking of star preppers and their ultimate choice of colleges, we understand that Willamette university and the University of Oregon are both in the running for Charley DeAutremont, a really great grid and basketball player from Eugene's University high school . . .

Jim Ferrier, the big Australian, is being tabbed the best foreign bet to cop the U. S. amateur tourney since Sandy Somerville took the title back to Canada in 1932 . . . a minor boom in boxing is taking place in, of all places, London, England . . . the Dodgers, Giants and Yankees of the metropolitan area are drawing better this year than they did last, and none of them are red-hot pennant contenders . . .

A dozen Pacific coast football players will be members of the all-star collegiate squad which meets the Green Bay Packers, pro champs, in the big charity game at Chicago, August 29 . . . they are: Fisk, Smith, Schindler, Landsell, Winslow and Hoffman of U.S.C., Stubler, Schiechl and Anahu of Santa Clara, Ken Washington of U.C.L.A., Artoe of California and Frankie Emmons of the University of Oregon . . .

The finals of the American junior baseball tournament will be played in the Hillsboro ball park, which has been worked on to provide seating capacity for 1,000 . . . with a fine lighting system here, we would like to see the Legion junior finals brought to Medford in 1941 or 1942 . . .

Jack and Jill's amazing advance to the finals of the state semi-pro baseball tournament proves you never can tell what'll happen in this national pastime of ours . . . the Jitters finished sixth in the second half State league race, were defeated four times during the season by the local Craters, yet turned around and bumped the Medfords right out of the tournament . . . they are all kids, but when they get hot they smoke, and they've been torrid in the tourney . . .

SAN ANTONIO PITCHER CHALKS UP NO-HITTER

San Antonio, Tex., Aug. 1.—(P)—Loy Hanning pitched a seven-inning no-hit game last night as San Antonio defeated Tulsa of the Texas league 4-0. He struck out 12 and walked only one.

Medco, Boxmen Clash in Second Playoff Contest Tonight

ANOTHER VICTORY WILL CLINCH FLAG FOR MEDCO TEAM

Steiner and Peccia Slated as Opposing Hurlers—Copco to Play Elks Club.

Special game: Catholic All-Stars vs. Fluhrer's Breadeaters, 8 p. m. American league: Medco vs. Wooden Box, 9 p. m. National league: Jennings Tire vs. Bear Creek, 8 p. m.; Copco vs. Elks, 9 p. m.

Needing one more victory to become Medford's 1940 softball champions and repeaters from last season, Clarence English's Medco clubbers will be heavy favorites when they take the field at the stadium tonight for their second playoff game with Wooden Box. The encounter will start at 9 o'clock.

If Medco wins this evening, the playoff series will be all over and the English team will qualify for the district tournament to be held at Klamath Falls, August 8 and 9. If Wooden Box squares the series at one victory apiece, the third and deciding clash will take place Friday night.

Morris Steiner, who pitched Medco to a 11 to 1 victory over the Boxmen in the first playoff tilt, Tuesday night, will again be on the rubber for the first and second-round champions. He will be opposed by Joe Peccia, fireballer whose flinging was largely responsible for the Boxmen's third-round title.

Catholic vs. Fluhrer's. Another important contest will be the Copco-Elks struggle at 9 o'clock on the south diamond. The victor in this game will collide Friday evening with Bear Creek for the National league championship.

Other tilts tonight will find the Catholic All-Stars attempting to overturn Fluhrer's Breadeaters at 8 o'clock, and Jennings Tire meeting Bear Creek at the same time, on the south field.

M'SHANE, PILUSO SIGNED FOR BOUT

Wrestling Promoter Mack Lillard announced today he was successful in signing Ernie Piluso to meet Dangerous Danny McShane in the main event of next Monday night's ladies' night program in the Medford armory. The pair will battle an hour, or until one gent gets two falls.

Mike Nazarian, Armenian toughie, will face George Wagner in the middle event, and Bob Cummings of Great Falls, Mont., will tangle with Otis Clingman in the opener. Cummings, a clean grappler, hasn't appeared here in several months.

BROKEN KNEE BENCHES GALAN; OUT FOR YEAR

Philadelphia, Aug. 1.—(P)—Left fielder Augie Galan today was lost to the Chicago Cubs for the balance of the season because of a fractured knee. Galan was injured in yesterday's game with the Philadelphia Phillies when he crashed into Shibe Park's concrete left field wall while chasing a foul fly.

PLANS PROGRESS FOR BIG MIDGET SPEEDER DERBY

With the date and location of the race set for sometime between August 20 and 23, on Queen Anne avenue, committees are turning on the heat to make this year's Mail Tribune-Boy Scout midget speeder derby the best in the two-year history of the popular event, it was announced today by M. C. Wright, assistant to General Chairman Ray Harrison.

Pendergrass, during his short time on the mound, allowed one single, walked five, tossed two wild pitches and hit one batter. Elliott pitched five innings of no-hit ball.

PORTLAND LOSES TWICE TO SEALS

New York, Aug. 1.—(P)—Jimmy Johnston, manager of heavyweight Bob Pastor, said today he would go before the next meeting of the boxing commission August 6 and demand an investigation into the alleged arrangement whereby Billy Conn will meet Champion Joe Louis in September for the title.

Johnston's ire was aroused by the apparent ease with which Mike Jacobs, Conn, Louis and all parties concerned, took it for granted that Conn would lick Pastor at the Polo Grounds, August 13, and have gone ahead and virtually arranged for a Conn-Louis battle at Pittsburgh on September 25.

Johnston said: "The Pastor-Conn fight is two weeks off and they're arranging for Conn to fight Louis. Is Pastor licked before he enters the ring? If so, why? I'll find out from the commission and demand that Pastor be signed for a title fight with Louis—before he fights Conn—in case he licks Conn, which he certainly will."

ELLIOTT PITCHES ALBANY TO STATE SEMI-PRO TITLE

Albany, Aug. 1.—(P)—Albany piled up a five-run lead in the first inning and then coasted to a 12 to 1 win over Jack & Jill Tavern of Portland for the Oregon semi-pro championship last night.

Glenn Elliott, the bespectacled southpaw with the tantalizing curve, backed up his team's slugging by letting the Tavernmen down with only three hits.

The victory makes Albany eligible to meet the Washington State champion for the regional title and the right play in the national semi-pro championship at Wichita, Kas.

Summary: R. H. E. Albany . . . . . 12 12 2 Jack-Jill . . . . . 1 3 2 Elliott and Leptich; Pendergrass, Leighseiser; and W. Witke.

PROBE OF LOUIS-CONN FIGHT ARRANGEMENTS ASKED BY PASTOR BOSS

PAIGE HURLS ONE INNING AS MATES TIP DAVIDS, 7-4

The greatest crowd to attend a baseball game in Medford in 10 years—2,500 citizens—overflowed the fairgrounds park stands last night to see the Kansas City Monarchs, with Satchel Paige, hang a 7 to 4 defeat on the brushy chins of the Israelite House of Davids.

Paige, famous pitcher for the colored club, worked only one inning—the ninth. The lanky fireballer was just recovering from the effects of food-poisoning he contracted in Tacoma, Wash., late last week, according to Business Manager Wilkinson of the Monarchs, and was still too weak to do much flinging.

Paige faced four men in the ninth. He didn't whiff any of them, and only twice did he cut loose with the hard one that has made him famous. Wykoff, batting for Tucker grounded out on a curve; Clay popped to the third baseman, McGraw reached first on the third baseman's error, and Gardner lined out to left field. Satchel fired a fast ball at Clay, who popped it up, and McGraw looked at one of the sizzlers, inside for a ball.

Paige's other pitches were either curves or medium fast ones.

The Monarchs, never behind, clinched the game in the fifth inning with a five-run burst that drove young Jimmy Stelle, the Davids' starting pitcher, to the showers. M. Smith's single, O. Smith's triple to right, Douglas' triple and a walk to Wilson signified the end for Stelle, with two runs in.

With two men on, Cliff Clay relieved Stelle and was greeted by a mighty home run over the right centerfield fence by Babe Young, the Monarch's right fielder.

Prior to this explosion the Monarchs tallied once in the third on an error and a double by Douglas, and got their final tally in the seventh on Douglas' single to center, an error and an outfield fly.

Oren Smith, who hurled eight innings for the Monarchs, had only one bad frame, the sixth, when the Davids bunched three hits for as many runs. Doubles by Anderson and Miner, Reichelt's triple and an infield out account for the runs. A walk and singles by Miner and Reichelt drove the final Davids run across in the eighth.

The game was featured by the long-distance clouting and spectacular fielding of both teams. There were four doubles, three triples and one homer socked, and the outfielders of both clubs came through with circus catches galore.

The Davids' "pepper game" in the fifth inning drew a nice hand from the crowd. Because they played a twilight game at Grants Pass, the Monarchs were a few minutes late in arriving for the local contest.

MEDALIST HONORS COPPED BY HANEN

Tacoma, Aug. 1.—(P)—Dick Hanen, University of Oregon freshman, who won medalist honors in the qualifying round of the Washington State amateur golf tournament yesterday, drew a tough assignment today in his first match play.

He was to meet Jack Walters, the northwest's finest left-handed golfer who had the advantage of playing on his home Fircrest course.

Hanen led the qualifying pack yesterday with a one-under-par 70.
Three players tied for second low score: Gerry Bert, Jr., Seattle, Ralph Whaley, Seattle and Al Buhre, Tacoma, with 71's.
Albert (Scotty) Campbell of Seattle, defending champion and the pre-tournament favorite, didn't far so well touring the course in 75.

The average mile of railroad in the United States, together with its proportion of other tracks, yards, buildings, locomotives, cars, shops and other appliances, represent a recorded investment of $108,871.

Light-weight, Diesel-powered, air-conditioned stream-lined passenger trains have cost from $273,000 to $1,450,000 each, depending on the size of the power unit, length of train and other factors.

The railroads of the United States last year transported 976,334 carloads of fruits and vegetables for distances ranging from a few miles to more than 3,000 miles.

DIESEL - The TRACTOR That Doesn't Cost - IT EARNS

Yes sir! Here's a Diesel that's perfectly adapted for Rogue River Valley use—plenty of power—"turns on a dime" for orchard work—thoroughly dependable—economy that really counts! Here's what one user has to say about the "Caterpillar" D-2:
"I put off buying a 'Caterpillar' Diesel for a long time because I thought I couldn't afford it. Say, if I'd known that for every $100 I spent for fuel before, I'd only spend $25 on the D2, I wouldn't have put off buying it like I did. I figure now, I can't afford NOT to own it."

Let us show you how a CATERPILLAR will cut the cost of YOUR orchard and farm operation. You simply can't afford to overlook CATERPILLAR economy!
