Hillbilly Show Opens At Rialto

From the Ozarks to the movies is no easy matter for a corn-fed lassie from the hills—but for Alan Mowbray it means an extra bonus for taking Judy Canova, screen and radio's most popular hillbilly songstress, to Hollywood by mistake in "Scatterbrain," which heads the double bill opening a three-day run today at the Rialto theater. Mowbray, as a movie talent scout, is sent to the Ozarks to bring back a nightingale—but in a mixup, brings back instead Judy Canova (the "Jenny Lind" of the Ozarks). Her genial, homespun humor and easygoing manners make her an overnight sensation, but Hollywood is really taken by surprise when her kinkoff start moving in on the film city. Others in the cast of the movie based upon the popular hit, "Scatterbrain," include Billy Gilbert, Ruth Donnelly, Luis Alberni and Wallace Ford.

"Pioneers of the West," featuring the Three Mesquiteers, plays as the companion Western.

Gene Autry, the screen's most popular singing cowboy, comes to the Roxy theater for tomorrow and Saturday only in "Rolling Tumbleweeds," which plays as the added Western with "Tropic Fury," co-starring Richard Arlen and Andy Devine for the fifth time.
