Billy Hulén Says:

All-Star Outfit Named On Basis of Local Action

The selection of that state semi-pro tournament all-star team yesterday reminded us of a task we had planned to accomplish when the State league season was completed, namely; bend our brains to the picking of an All-State loop nine.

A strictly unofficial all-star outfit, understand; one that merely reflects the writer's own personal opinion and one that in no way supercedes any other that may be named by anybody. And also, one that is produced only on the basis of the performance of its personnel here in this town.

Some of the players we will name might not have been such hot stuff elsewhere, and by the same token we might fail to mention pastimers who were red hot in other towns, but had off days here. In short, our private all-star team will be composed of the best players we saw in action here in Medford. Nothing else will be taken into consideration. So here goes:

First base—Ken Manning. Silverton, the former Willamette university and Western International league smoothie. Manning wasn't spectacular, by many means, but he got those throws to the bag, and at the plate was plenty dangerous. He hit four for nine here. Honorable mention to Buster McMillan of the Portland Babes.

Second base—This is easy. Monroe Dean of the Eugene Athletics was far and away the best keystone we saw this season. His sensational fielding aided Eugene in their double trimmings of the Craters, and at the plate he got four hits out of seven tries.

Shortstop—Who else but Albany's Riley Richards, although Silverton's Don Kirsch and Medford's own Alex McDonald were right in there. Richards was positively uncanny on ground balls. He shelled Crater hurlers for four hits in nine trips.

Third base—Eugene's Johnny Dunn was clearly the best all-around hot-corner performer of the lot. Against the Craters he handled eight chances perfectly, and clubbed out two doubles, one triple and two singles in 10 trips.

Left field—Vic Brown of the Portland Babes is shifted from his regular centerfield berth to left. Against Medford he collected six hits in 14 attempts and played errorless ball afield.

Center field—Silverton's Dick Whitman gets the call over Eugene's Bill Carney. Whitman was stupendous here, what with 10 great fielding plays in the two games.

Right field—Medford's Al Wray, despite a batting slump the past month, gets the third outfield position. He never quit hustling and was the club's leading power-hitter.

Catchers—Because of his terrific hitting, we nominate Albany's Joe Leptich as one receiver, and Medford's Tommy Hawkins as the other. Leptich, who also played in the outfield, hit five for seven against the Craters, including a homer. Hawkins had a deadly throwing arm, hustle and was at his best in the clutch.

Pitchers—Oscar (Red) Miller of Albany, Jack Richards of Eugene, Jimmy Rego of Medford and Bob Wiltshire of Eugene. Miller blanked the locals, 3 to 0 with six hits and eight whiffs; Richards copped a 11-inning, 7 to 5 win from Medford, and Wiltshire gave the Craters five blows in hurling a 4 to 2 victory. Rego turned in some excellent games and was considered one of the loop's best southpaws. We didn't name Elliott because he was touched for 11 safeties in losing a 4 to 5 game here.

Utility—It couldn't be anybody else but Medford's Steve Crippen, with his batting average in the lofty .400's, his remarkable pitching record, and his ability to play anywhere at any time.

So that's it, fans, and our telephone number is 2141. Or just address your squawk letters to the Mail Tribune.

Drinking Tragedy
Tacoma, Aug. 5.—(AP)—James E. Bailey, 50, of suburban Midland, was fatally shot at the home of his best friend here yesterday following a night long "drinking bout." Under sheriff Clyde Knowles reported today. A 24-year-old Tacoma man, described by Knowles as Bailey's best friend, was held in Pierce county jail on an open charge pending investigation.

Piluso Tackles Dangerous Danny on Armory Mat Tonight

ERNE ACCORDED GOOD CHANCE TO WALLOP M'SHANE

Nazarian, Wagner to Battle in Middle Bout—Cummings and Clingman Open

Ernie Piluso can become the grappling man of the hour in Medford's armory tonight, and all he has to do to attain this honor is give Jitterbug Danny McShane, the Hollywood horror, the whacking of his soiled career.

When Ernie climbs through the hemp this evening for his main event fracas with the erstwhile light-heavyweight crown-wearer, not a man, nor a woman, nor a child in the audience will wish for anything else but to witness the utter and complete crushing of McShane.

And Ernie, so say an increasingly large number of "experts," may do just that. He possesses all the ring equipment necessary to thoroughly annihilate his crafty, cruel and conscienceless adversary. And he is confident, definitely convinced he can rivet McShane's quivering shoulders to the rug for the victory.

Ernie Has Sonnenberg
Against Danny's devastating piledrivers and his disregard for mat rules and regulations, Piluso will bring into play a tremendous variety of plain and fancy scientific holds, the most effective of which is the Sonnenberg. There may be better Sonnenbergs in the country than Piluso, but until they come along Ernie will pass as the tops in this respect.

The contest is slated for an hour or until one of the participants gets two falls, or incapacitates the other. McShane probably boasts the most dangerous payoff hold in his pilderiver, which has spelled curtains for his last two opponents, but Piluso will outspeed and out-think him, and possibly out-fight him.

It should be one of the season's best matches, and Promoter Mack Lillard looks for a large crowd of ladies' nighters, perhaps a capacity house.

Cleanness Open
A rough brawl will be seen in the center engagement when Mike Nazarian, mean Armenian, tangles with Popular George Wagner. Nazarian is expected to win, though only after a torrid tussle.

Opening the program, Bob Cummings of Great Falls Mont., faces Otis Clingman, the clean-wrestling favorite from Amarillo, Texas. Cummings is also a scientific performer, and the match looks like a tossup.

ROSEBURG ROUTED BY ROGUES, 9-7

The Medford Rogues unleashed a 16-hit batting attack against Barr and Scherner to trounce the Roseburg Pirates, 9 to 7, in a Southern Oregon league contest at Roseburg yesterday afternoon. Joe Spencer, Harold McAbee and Ray Tungate combined to limit the Pirates to nine hits as the locals chalked up their second victory of the second-half campaign.

John Gitzen, with a double and two singles, and Sam Van Dyke with ditto, led the Rogues attack. Kevan, Hoffard, Peccia and George Gitzen each collected two blows. Witcher and Sanders hit twice each for the losers. Medford scored once in the first inning, twice in the second, once in the third, three times in the sixth and twice in the eighth.

Score: R. H. E.
Medford 9 16 4
Roseburg 7 9 4
Spencer, McAbee, Tungate and G. Gitzen; Scherner, Barr and Goodman.

Grants Pass, Aug. 4.—(AP)—Grants Pass scored seven runs in the eighth inning here Sunday to crush Gold Hill completely, 14 to 4, and wind up home games, except for the Southern Oregon Baseball league playoffs with Crescent City.

Score: R. H. E.
Gold Hill 4 7 8
Grants Pass 14 10 1
Wilson and Coy; Ostrom and Woods.
To Willkie Meeting
Portland, Aug. 5.—(AP)—Allen W. O'Connell of Portland left here by plane yesterday for New York, where he will attend a national meeting of Democrats pledged to support the Republican presidential ticket of Wendell Willkie and Charles L. McNary.

Newest Grappling Villian

Armenian Mike Nazarian (above), who tangles with George Wagner in the middle event of tonight's wrestling program in the armory, is the latest in a long line of brutal matmen to be brought to Medford by Promoter Mack Lillard. His first start last week resulted in a victory over Otis Clingman, and he will be favored to win from Wagner this evening.

BEN HOGAN LEADS MONEY LINKSMEN

Milwaukee, Aug. 5.—(AP)—Little Ben Hogan failed to win a championship on professional golf's midwest summer program, but the little star picked up enough money to maintain easily his lead among the year's big money winners of the game.

Hogan, who finished in a tie for fourth place yesterday in the final championship of the Midwest Professional Golfers association schedule, the Milwaukee open, has won $9,405 since January 1. His fourth place tie earned him $375 as big Ralph Guldahl of Chicago walked off with first money of $1,200 on a great finish—a final round of 66-67 for a 72 hole total of 268.

Ed Cerver, the big star from Hornell, N. Y., who played well in the Chicago open and then won the St. Paul $7,500 event, finished second at 270, with Sam Snead turning in a blazing 65, six under par for the North Hills course, for a 271 aggregate.

Hogan's 272 tied Johnny Bulla of Chicago.

GRANTS PASS GOLFER BLIND BOGEY VICTOR

E. K. Miller, Grants Pass telephone employe, fired a net 66 to win yesterday's weekly blind bogey tournament at the Rogue Valley Golf club. The bogey number was 96.

L. Clement won low net, Dr. C. C. Goldsberry won high net, and Charles Clay, Ike Staples, Paul Meyers and John Mantle tied for low gross. Clement's score was 59. Dr. Goldsberry's was 107.

OAKS RAP LOCALS TO WIN RAG, 5-1

Albany, Aug. 5.—(AP)—Albany captured the first half championship of the Oregon State baseball league yesterday by defeating Medford, 5 to 1.

The game was a pitchers duel, with Johnson allowing Medford only three hits and Lanning limiting the Alocs to five, one a home run by Bill Moye in the second inning with one man on base.

Three errors proved costly for Medford.

In a league doubleheader at Eugene, Hills Creek upset Bend twice, 8-7 and 9-4. The games were postponed from the first half schedule.

Summaries:
Medford 1 3 3
Albany 5 5 0
Lanning and Caivert; Johnson and Leptich.
Bend 7 15 3
Hills Creek 8 16 1
Farmer, Murdock and Kremers; Kendall, B. Kelsay and G. Kelsay.

Bend 4 8 1
Hills Creek 9 10 0
Hatch and Nehl; B. Kelsay and G. Kelsay.

Medford's loss to Albany Sunday, and by a 7 to 13 score Saturday night, completed the Craters' State league campaign. The locals finished second to Albany in the first-half race, and tied for second in the second-half chase.

Tuna Boat Wrecked
San Diego, Calif., Aug. 5.—(AP)—Crew of the tunaboat Destiny was reported safe today after the 95-foot vessel piled up, a total loss, as Asuncion, Lower California, 400 miles south of here. The Destiny was, presumably, a victim of fog.

The above players moved into the round-of-four with first and second round victories yesterday. Y. Maruyama defeated Berry Sato, 6-1, 6-1, and Otto Krueger by default; Porterfield defeated Kay Nakagiri, 8-6, 6-2 and Clayton Lewis, 6-1, 4-6, 6-3; Cope advanced with a default win over Paul McDuffy and a 7-5, 0-6, 6-1 conquest of Del Cooley, and Pruitt went into the semi-finals by defeating Anas Velarde by default and Roy Kayama, 6-4, 5-7, 6-3.

Only one doubles match was played in the first round, S. Maruyama and Nakagiri measuring Browning and Halper, 8-6, 6-8, 6-4. Cope and Y. Maruyama are scheduled to face Lewis and Pruitt at 5:30 this afternoon.

The remainder of the doubles matches will be played Tuesday. With eight ladies entered, play in this division will begin today and probably be completed by Tuesday evening.

Yesterday 16 Rogue Valley members travelled to McCloud, Cal., for a team match under the Nassau point system, losing to the Californians, 24 to 27.

Those making the trip were Lee Watson, Leland Clark, Bob Hammond, Bill Caty, God Porter, Keith Kittle, Ivan Harrington, George Robertson, R. J. Donelson, Don Bagley, Stan Sherwood, Dr. F. G. Bunch, Bob Riley, Emil Mohr, Ted Nave and C. M. Harris.

Marshfield, Ore., Aug. 5.—(AP)—No records were broken in the finals of the Pacific Northwest Outboard Racing association regatta here yesterday but 3500 spectators thrilled to two spills.
