

SPORTS

BOXMEN CONQUER LAKEVIEW EASILY, TO STATE EVENT

Medford's Wooden Box softball crew looked toward the state tournament to conquer Friday night after Joe Peccia flung a beautiful two-hitter and his teammates pounded one to seven hits, including a home run by Al Wray, to submerge Lakeview, 8 to 1, at Klamath Falls in the finals of the district tournament.

The Boxmen, becoming the first Medford club to earn a berth in the state tourney, will mark time until they head for Salem for the meeting opening on August 26. The tournament lasts one week.

The locals clinched the game in the first inning with a three-run explosion at the expense of Peters, Lakeview flinger. An error, a walk and singles by McLean, D'Arcy and Campbell did the trick.

Wray belted his homer in the fourth with the sacks vacant, and the Boxmen went on to tally twice each in the sixth and seventh.

Lakeview's lone run came across in the first inning as Peccia walked two men and an error led the marker score.

Prior to the title game, Lakeview defeated the Grants Pass All-Stars, 6 to 1, by scoring four runs in the third and two in the fifth on Hansen's homer with a man on.

An all-star team, selected by tournament officials, found four Wooden Box, four Lakeview and one Klamath Falls player on the select list. The first team follows:

Peccia, Medford, pitcher; J. Hay, Lakeview, catcher; Wray, Medford, first base; Vossen, Lakeview, second base; Pacheco, Medford, third base; Lasater, Lakeview, shortstop; Hensen, Lakeview, left field; Piche, Medford, center field; Mahoney, Klamath Falls, right field.

The second team was: Peters, Lakeview, pitcher; D'Arcy, Medford, catcher; Howerton, Grants Pass, first base; H. Crapo, Klamath Falls, second base; Klamath Falls, Lakeview, third base; Leaming, Ashland, shortstop; King, Klamath Falls, left field; Dollarhide, Lakeview, center field; Boyle, Medford, right field.

Score: R. H. E. Grants Pass 1 6 3 Lakeview 6 5 5 James and Pruitt; Peters and J. Hay.

Score: R. H. E. Lakeview 1 2 4 Wooden Box 8 7 4 Peters, Langley and J. Hay; Peccia and D'Arcy.

Legion Baseball Title Finalists

REDS WHITEWASH CARDINALS, TAKE SIX GAME LEAD

Cincinnati, Aug. 10.—(P)—With his high, hard one and snapping curve working like a clock, Whitey Moore pitched the Cincinnati Reds to their third straight victory today, a four-hit 5 to 0 whitewash of the St. Louis Cardinals.

His performance, coupled with Boston's defeat of Brooklyn, stretched the Reds' national league lead to six games.

The tall Ohioan also helped himself to his fifth win and best game of the year with a pair of singles, one driving in a run and then handcuffing Terry Moore in center field to let in another.

Score: R. H. E. St. Louis 0 4 2 Cincinnati 5 0 0 Bowman, Doyle and Padgett; Moore and Lombardi.

Boston, Aug. 10.—(P)—Chet Ross' eleventh home run of the year came in the sixth inning with the bases loaded today and gave the Bees a 4 to 3 victory over the Brooklyn Dodgers, shattering a five-game winning streak for the visitors.

Luke Hamlin, whose "home run ball" recently incurred the acid displeasure of president Larry MacPhail, was the victim of the Ross wallop. He just had relieved Lee Grissom after three straight singles had filled the bases.

Score: R. H. E. Brooklyn 3 11 0 Boston 4 8 2 Grissom, Hamlin, Head, and Phelps; Salvo and Berres.

Pittsburgh, Aug. 10.—(P)—Southpaw Vern Olsen held the Pittsburgh Pirates to seven scattered hits today as the Chicago Cubs capitalized on Dominic Dallesandro's fourth-inning triple to break the Bucs' eight-game winning streak 1-0.

Dallesandro scored the Cubs' winning tally on Al Todd's long fly to shove the Pirates out of the first division which they gained yesterday in defeating the Cubs.

Score: R. H. E. Chicago 1 8 0 Pittsburgh 0 7 0 Olsen and Todd; Klinger, Brown, and Davis, Lopez.

Philadelphia, Aug. 10.—(P)—Harry Gumbert of the New York Giants was the victor, 1 to 0, in a rattling good pitcher's duel with old Si Johnson of the Phillies today.

Though he didn't strike out a man, Gumbert allowed only five hits and supplied the winning run himself when he doubled in the third inning.

Score: R. H. E. New York 1 5 1 Philadelphia 0 5 1 Gumbert and Danning; Si Johnson, L. Brown, and Warren.

Jimmy Goodrich, the former Notre Dame football luminary, will provide the opening event opposition for Newcomer Jack Hagen in Monday night's armory wrestling program.

Goodrich, who has been in Hollywood the past couple of weeks, wired Lillard that he would be here Monday to go against the 190-pound scientific matman from Shreveport, La. Jimmy also is a clean wrestler.

Clashing in the one-hour main event will be Klamath Falls' Ernie Piluso and Weed's Pete Belcastro, as opposite in their grapple tactics as night and day Piluso, strictly legitimate, is nevertheless well able to protect himself against dirty work men, such as Belcastro.

Mike Nazarian and Bob Kenaston, both of them out and out bad men, are slated to hammer each other from pillar to post in the six-round middle event.

TIGERS LENGTHEN LEAD TO 6 GAMES, RED SOX VICTORS

Chicago, Aug. 10.—(P)—The Detroit Tigers stretched their American league lead to a full game today with a 5 to 2 victory over the Chicago White Sox in a five-inning, rain-shortened contest before 17,247 spectators.

The rain, which held up the game an hour and 29 minutes in the third inning, forced postponement of the second game of a scheduled double-header.

The victory was Schoolboy Rowe's eleventh of the season as against two defeats, although he was hit freely in the early stages.

The victory, coming as second-place Cleveland was rained out at St. Louis, enabled the Tigers to gain a half game in the two-team battle for first place.

Score: R. H. E. Detroit 5 7 1 Chicago 2 8 1 Rowe and Tebbetts; Lee and Tresh.

New York, Aug. 10.—(P)—The Yankees scored their second straight shutout over the Philadelphia Athletics today, 13 to 0, as Rookie Ernie Bonham held the luckless Mackmen to five hits to score his first American league victory.

The youngster from Kansas City struck out three and didn't give a base on balls, while his mates plastered three Athletic flingers for 13 hits, including home runs by Charley Keller, Joe Gordon, Babe Dahlgren, Red Rolfe and Joe DiMaggio.

DiMaggio also slugged a double and drove in four runs.

Score: R. H. E. Philadelphia 0 5 0 New York 13 0 1 Potter, Dean, Beckman and Hayes; Bonham and Dickey.

Washington, Aug. 10.—(P)—Earl Johnson, rookie left-hander from the Piedmont league, checked the Nationals here today as his Red Sox mates made the most of their five hits off Ken Chase and Walter Masterson to deal Washington a 3-0 defeat.

Boston capitalized on an error by Third Baseman Cecil Travis to score their runs, all unearned, in the third inning.

Score: R. H. E. Boston 3 5 1 Washington 0 9 2 Johnson and Fox; Chase, Masterson, Wilson and Ferrell.

Cleveland at St. Louis postponed, rain.

DR. GITZEN TEAMS IN CRATER DEF

Manager G. A. (Doc) Gitzen of the Southern Oregon League Medford Rogues, yesterday, on behalf of his team, issued a challenge to the State League Craters for a game to decide the city baseball championship.

"Many of our players feel that we can beat the Craters," Gitzen said, "and would like a crack at them. We'll play them any time they say."

BEAVER UPRISING DOWNS OAKS, 4-2

Portland, Ore., Aug. 10.—(P)—The Portland Beavers rallied behind the two-hit pitching of Ad Liska today to defeat Oakland, 4 to 2, in a Pacific coast league game.

The veteran hurler with the submarine delivery was in rare form and retired Oakland in 1-2-3 order until Bill Lyman doubled in the seventh inning.

Lyman was brought home on Marvin Gudat's infield grounder.

Catcher Bill Conroy got Oakland's other hit—a home run into the centerfield bleachers in the eighth.

The cellar-place Beavers grabbed a three-run lead in the third inning on three hits, a walk and a sacrifice and then added one more in the fifth.

The Portland win evened the four-game series at 1-1.

Score: R. H. E. Oakland 2 2 2 Portland 4 7 2 Corbett, Mulligan, Darrow and Conroy; Liska and Adams.

Los Angeles, Aug. 10.—(P)—The second of Rip Collins' two doubles and "Peanut" Lowrey's third hit of the day drove over a run with two out in the ninth inning to give Los Angeles its second consecutive Coast league victory, 7 to 6, over Sacramento today.

The victory, coupled with Portland's upset of Oakland, boosted the Angels into second place.

Score: R. H. E. Sacramento 6 10 3 Los Angeles 7 15 3 Munger, Riel, Gabler and Ogdowski, Grik; Stine, Falton and Holm.

San Francisco, Aug. 10.—(P)—San Diego made it three Coast league victories in a row over San Francisco today, 8 to 3.

Southpaw Wally Hebert spaced 10 Seal hits and was never in serious trouble. The Padres scored all their runs off Larry Guay, who started for the Seals. They tallied twice in the fourth and four times in the fifth.

Score: R. H. E. San Diego 6 11 1 San Francisco 3 10 3 Hebert and Salkeld; Guay and Sprinz.

CALL ISSUED TO HORSESHOE AGES

Horseshoe pitchers of Jackson county desiring to enter the annual state horseshoe pitchers' tournament at Salem Sunday, September 1 and Labor day, September 2, have been requested to send notice of their intention to S. A. Stone, Capital Journal office, Salem, Ore.

In recent years entrants have come from Salem, Portland, Wallowa and occasionally Eugene, but this season tourney officials hope that central and southern Oregon will be represented by expert tossers.

MERMAIDS FLOCK FOR TITLE TEST PORTLAND BEACH

Portland, Aug. 10.—(P)—Feminine record-breakers from Massachusetts to Maui converged today on Janitzen beach pool for the opening of the National Women's Amateur Athletic union championships here August 16.

The entire crop of present American girl diving and swimming champions is scheduled to arrive or file entries before the Monday midnight deadline.

Early arrivals, joining Portland's own champions in training at the pool, included four 'teen-aged girls of the Alexander House Community association, Walluku, Maui, Hawaii. They included Fujike Katsutani, 15-year-old national 800-meter breast stroke champion.

The Women's Swimming association team of New York, boasting one of the nation's foremost relay combinations, will arrive Sunday.

Other Sunday arrivals will include Helen Crienkovich, national indoor and outdoor springboard diving champion, and Leota Woodmansee, both of San Francisco; Doris Brennan of Olneyville Boys' club auxiliary, Providence, R. I., national outdoor 300-meter individual medley champion, and Dorothy Leonard, Worcester, Mass., former national indoor 200-yard freestyle champion.

Portland hopefuls already working in the pool include Nancy Merkl, 14-year-old who overcame infantile paralysis to become national 400 and 800-meter freestyle champion.

ASTORIA TOURNEY LURES GOLF AGES

Astoria, Aug. 10.—(P)—Three defending champions were registered today to defend their titles in the annual Oregon coast mid-summer golf tournament opening at the Astoria golf and country club Monday.

Qualifying rounds of medal play will start then with more than 150 Oregon and Washington golfers entered. Match play will begin Tuesday.

Defending champions are Dr. Kay Bridge, Portland dentist, champion of the "under-32" age group; Leon Hanseth, 42-year-old Portland broom manufacturer, the "over-32" titlist, and Miss Jessie Miller, Gearhart, Mills college student, women's champion.

KLAMATH, SHASTA ON CRATERS' LIST

The Big Lakes club of Klamath Falls, champions of the Interworldwide league, and the State League Medford Craters will play the second game of their two-tit exhibition series at the fairgrounds park starting at 2 o'clock this afternoon. First contest was staged last night.

One of the season's best games will be staged here next Wednesday when Mt. Shasta City, current leaders of the strong Northern California loop, tangles with the Craters under the fairgrounds arcs. Thus far the California team has won 12 games and lost only one, and will send Rex Cecil, the loop's top hurler, against the locals.

Nails Irritated.

Berlin, Aug. 10.—(P)—German political circles showed irritation today—presumably directed at Rumania—over the "slowness" with which the Balkan nations are settling their disputes.

Lumber Pickets.

MIOLAND, OREGON BRED HORSE WINS, TITLE ALL AWRY

Chicago, Aug. 10.—(P)—Splashing through a sloppy track in a driving rain, Mioland, an Oregon bred horse, galloped to a three length victory in the $62,000 American derby at the Washington park today to throw the three-year-old championship into a perplexing puzzle.

Mioland, owned by Charles S. Howard of San Francisco, led from start to finish. Sirocco, winner of the Arlington classic, finished second, and Weigh Anchor third, four lengths back of Sirocco.

Gallahadion winner of the Kentucky derby, finished fourth after running last most of the way, with Super Chief fifth in the five-horse field.

The race lost much of its appeal by the last minute scratch of Bimelech, Col. Edward R. Bradley's potential three-year-old champion of 1940. An hour before the race, a terrific thunderstorm drenched the racing strip and thousands of spectators jammed under the stands.

Most of the 35,000 received a soaking.

Mioland, fourth in the Kentucky derby, and second to Bimelech in the Preakness, never was headed, with Jockey Johnny Adams piloting him to victory. Mioland splashed over the mile and one-quarter route in 2:05 4-5.

The winner returned $14.20 to win, $5.00 to place and $3.40 to show. The place price on Sirocco was $3.00 and $2.60 to show. Weigh Anchor returned $3.20 to show. Gallahadion, holding a reputation of great mud-running ability, went to the post at two to one with heavy backing.

With the field reduced to five, the race had a gross value of $62,150. Owner Howard collected $44,900.

Mioland's owner is the San Francisco automobile dealer who bought Seabiscuit for $8,000, then saw the Biscuit become the largest money winner of all time. Mioland is a bargain purchase, too. Howard paid H. W. Ray of Oregon $15,000 for him on the eve of the Santa Anita derby.

Philadelphia, Aug. 10.—(P)—Officials of the Baldwin Locomotive Works expect to begin "within six months" production of $5,689,725 worth of giant tanks for the U. S. army.

HELEN JACOBS NO TEST FOR ALICE, WHO WINS EASILY

Rye, N. Y., Aug. 10.—(P)—The end of the trail came today for Helen Jacobs, four-time national champion, and one of the few women believed capable of extending Alice Marble, queen of the world's tennis courts.

Her game ready and her strategy carefully planned, she took the field against Alice, hoping to end the ruthless domination of the blonde Californian but Alice won with ridiculous ease—6-1, 6-0.

That gave the girl who hasn't been beaten since the semi-finals at Wimbledon in 1938, her third straight eastern grass court tennis championship, a margin of four matches in the six times the two bitter rivals have met—and left her atop her field by a margin as wide as any champion ever enjoyed.

In gaining the trophy—one of tennis' most coveted possessions—Alice lost only one set, and that to Pauline Betz, another coast girl.

In the day's other headliner, National Champion Bobby Riggs was far from good—but even then he was far better than Henry Prusoff, winning 6-2, 6-2, 6-1 in a thoroughly uninteresting semi-final struggle.

The victory sent Riggs into tomorrow's final against Don McNeill, Oklahoma City's national clay court and intercollegiate champion.

Gardner Mulloy and Prusoff defeated Charles Mattmann and Bob Harman, 6-4, 6-4, 3-6, 6-1 in one semi-final doubles match while McNeill and Frankie Parker took care of the veteran duo of Wilmer Allison and John Van Ryn, 6-4, 6-3, 6-3, in the opener.

OREGON FOOTBALL COACH TO VISIT HERE WEDNESDAY

Football Coach Gerald A. "Tex" Oliver, Basketball Mentor Howard Hobson, Federation Director Roy Vernstrom and his assistant, Elmer Fansett, of the University of Oregon, will present a program at 8 p. m. Tuesday in Medford's Lincoln grade school gymnasium. The public is invited.

The two Webfoot coaches will talk about intercollegiate athletics, telling stories about their chosen sports. Of interest to the audience will be several reels of motion pictures of football and basketball games in which Oregon participated last season.

Hobson and Oliver will make comments as the films are shown.

Local members of the Oregon Federation who are arranging the program include Phil Lowry of Medford and Don Walker of Ashland. Representing the alumni is Otto Frohnmayer, county alumni director for the university.

Oliver, who recently signed a contract for another three years as Duck grid coach, and Hobson, Vernstrom and Fansett, are making a 5,000-mile tour of the state under the sponsorship of the Oregon Federation.

Vancouver, B. C., Aug. 10.—(P)—Robert Howard, wealthy Los Angeles sportsman, and his film-star wife, Andrea Leeds, are in Vancouver today in the course of a week's vacation in British Columbia.

than his verbal protest. It was the first time Crosetti ever had been suspended.

SWIM DRINKING WATER...

MERRICK'S 1 P. M. to 9:45 P. M.

We Know a Lot of Men Who Wear Tropical Worsteds and Gaberdine Suits in Winter as Well as in Summer!

It's an old fashioned idea that Tropical Worsteds and Gaberdine Suits are for Summer only—and as we say in the heading of this ad, we know lots of men who wear them the year round... but nevertheless when the end of Summer arrives, sales on these fine suits drop off... hence this August special... If you are an office man and want a light weight suit for Fall, we suggest one of these dark shaded worsteds or gaberdines. They are certainly priced right.

Single & double breasted models in Gray Teal blue dk. Green and Tan

DIAL 4923 for Quick, Dependable Service Unique Cleaners Hotel Allen Bldg.—Bud Lawrentz

$19.95 to $25.00 Values for $14.95

MANN'S STORE FOR MEN!

WRESTLING! MEDFORD ARMY

MONDAY NIGHT, 8:30 P. M.

ERNE PILUSO vs. PETE BELCASTRO

BOB KENASTON vs. MIKE NAZARIAN

JACK HAGEN vs. JIMMY GOODRICH

Seats on sale at Brown's Telephone 2735

Action! Spills! Thrills!

Medford Round-Up Days

AUG. 17 and 18

FAIRGROUNDS PARK

Outstanding Stock and Riders

SATURDAY NIGHT SHOW 8:30 P. M.
SUNDAY SHOW 2 P. M.

Parade—7 p. m. Saturday

Admission—Adults: Box Seats $1.65. Reserved $1.10
Bleachers 75c. Tax included. Children 25c
Sponsored by Medford Athletic Assn.