Quick Retribution For Gun Wielder

Sudbury, Ont., Aug. 14.—(U.P.) John Basok, 30-year-old section hand, fired five bullets into the chest and back of Annie Harynchuk, 17, waitress who refused to dance with him. In trying to escape, Basok stumbled over the girl's body and fell, breaking his neck. Miss Harynchuk's condition was serious. Basok died today.

9,120 ALIENS SHIPPED TO COLONY INTERMENT

London, Aug. 14.—(U.P.)—Clement R. Attlee, lord privy councillor, informed the house of commons today that 9,120 interned enemy aliens have been sent to concentration camps in Canada and Australia in the "interests of national security" because of threatening German invasion.

War Scene Shifts to Africa

A concentration of Italian troops (1-black arrow) on the Libyan-Egyptian frontier was reported, and British circles foresaw a drive on Egypt. One possibility is that the Italians might try an overland push toward the Suez canal (white arrow). Further south, jabbing blows by Italy at Kenya and British Somaliland (2-black arrows), indicated Italy might be trying to gain control of the southern entrance to the Red Sea, thus getting into position to attack Egypt from Libya on one side and the Red Sea on the other.

RED CROSS SHIP HAS TAME TRIP

Baltimore, Aug. 14.—(U.P.)—The S. S. McKeesport, Red Cross relief ship which carried a cargo of food and surgical supplies to unoccupied France, returned here Tuesday after an "uneventful" voyage.

Capt. Vernon Jubb said the crossings were uneventful and that the ship had passed through the British blockade without being halted.

"The war has had a telling effect upon people in southern France," Jubb said. "Foodstuffs are at a premium, especially dairy products. The mayor of Marseilles came aboard the boat when we were having pork chops and begged for one. He ate it ravenously. People sent letters to the ship pleading for food."

THE GRANGE

Central Point Grange. Central Point Grangers will be hosts to members of Bellview Grange, Friday, August 16. Bellview Grangers will present the lecture program and, although this is an especially busy season, Lecturer Mrs. Alice Govland has prepared a very interesting program.

Central Point members are reminded that names of prospective members must be turned in not later than the first meeting in September in preparation for initiation before October.

Those attending the Grange picnic on Big Butte creek, August 11, report a most enjoyable time. The baseball dia-

HIGH JINX TABOO AT CORONER CONVENTION

Philadelphia, Aug. 13.—(U.P.)—Coroner Charles H. Hersch today vetoed a plan to "put some life" into the National Association of Coroners' convention here next week.

Hersch went into action when he saw a cocktail party at the morgue listed on the entertainment program.

"I don't care how they explain it to the national membership, but that cocktail party in the morgue is definitely off the list right now," he said.

Steer Snatches Farmer's Roll

Butler, Pa., Aug. 14.—(P) "I was feeding my cattle," lamented Farmer Max Luther, "when a steer grabbed a handkerchief out of my hip pocket and went munching away.

"It wouldn't have been so bad, but there was $150 in bills rolled up in that handkerchief."

He reached into the steer's mouth and retrieved two twenties and a ten, but the remainder escaped his clutches.

30-YEAR WORK SEEN MINIMUM TASK FOR CCC

Director McEntee Believes Corps Should Be Made Permanent Organization

By H. O. Knight (U.P. Staff Correspondent.) Washington. (U.P.)—Director James J. McEntee of the civilian conservation corps believes the CCC should be made permanent because the needs of reforestation, wildlife restoration and park improvements are at least a 30-years' job.

McEntee declared the CCC faces a challenge in meeting those needs outside of demands which will be made by the defense program.

Although defense needs may modify the work program, McEntee said CCC work in the future should concentrate on reforestation, forest improvement, forest protection, soil erosion prevention, flood control, wildlife restoration, public range development and outdoor recreation (parks).
