QUEEN'S CROWNING TO BE FEATURE OF K. C. PICNIC SUNDAY

1,000 Expected to Attend District Get-Together at Union Creek Campground

A complete program of fun and frolic was announced today for the annual Knights of Columbus district picnic at the Union Creek campground of the Rogue River national forest Sunday.

A special feature this year will be the coronation of the Queen of the Cascades who will be chosen by a novel method at the picnic. The coronation is scheduled for 1 p. m.

Throughout the afternoon there will be sports for children, the awarding of prizes to the oldest Knight, the girl with the reddest hair, youngest baby, etc., a softball game and miscellaneous entertainment.

Start at 10:15 A. M.

The festivities will open at 10:15 a. m., with a patriotic flag-raising ceremony. At 10:30 an open air mass will be celebrated by the Rev. Father William Coughlin of Bend. The Rev. Father J. M. Sheridan of Marshfield, state chaplain, was to have celebrated the mass, but he is ill.

The picnic lunch will be served at 12, noon. Coffee, cream, sugar and ice cream will be provided by the participating councils. The picnic will be attended by Knights of Columbus, their families and friends of Medford, Bend, Klamath Falls and Lakeview. An attendance of 1,000 is expected. The picnic area is situated on Crater Lake highway opposite the Union Creek ranger station.

DRUNKEN DRIVER IS FINED, JAILED

Albert B. Cooper of Grants Pass entered a plea of guilty to driving while intoxicated and was sentenced yesterday to 30 days in the county jail, fined $100 and costs, and his driver's license revoked for one year by Justice of the Peace Coleman.

Cooper, Wednesday morning, hit the auto driven by Charity Hart of Central Point head-on, resulting in facial injuries to Mary Lou Mann, a passenger in the Hart car. Miss Hart escaped with minor hurts.

Robert A. Colburn, charged with operating a car without an operator's license was assessed $2.50 and costs.

HOWARD DIETRICH PASSES BAR QUIZ

Howard M. Dietrich, Central Point high school graduate and son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Dietrich of Route 4, was among the law students who passed their bar examinations in Salem July 9 and 10, his parents were notified today. Of the 120 who took the examinations, 74 passed.

Mr. Dietrich, who now is associated with an accounting firm in Portland, was graduated from Central Point high school in 1928 and from the University of Oregon in 1935. He studied law at the Northwest Law school in Portland.

Child Mother To Visit U. S.

Lina Medina, the Peruvian girl who is claimed to have given birth to a son at the age of five, will be brought to Chicago next month for examination by a medical commission, according to Attorney Richard S. Kaplan. Kaplan released this picture, which he said shows the young mother and her 15 months old child.

JAMES W. SLINGER TAKEN BY DEATH

James W. (Dick) Slinger, 71, well known resident of Jackson county where he has resided for the past 52 years, passed away at his home, 25 Washington St., Wednesday.

He was born at Bethany, Mo., Nov. 24, 1868. Coming here from Ventura, Calif., in 1888 at the age of 20, he settled in the Lake Creek district where he engaged in stock raising. Six years later he was united in marriage to Anna Farlow who survives.

The family moved to Medford 29 years ago where they have since resided, and for the last 6 years, Mr. Slinger has been employed at the Craterian Theatre.

Besides his wife, he leaves three children, Faye Danielson and Millie Webster of Chico, Calif. and Bob Slinger of Medford. Also one sister and one brother, Mollie Hefner and Frank Slinger of Bethany, Mo.

Although Mr. Slinger had been in failing health for several months, his death was not expected at this time.

Funeral services will be held at the Conger chapel at 2:30 p.m., Friday with the Rev. D. E. Millard officiating. Interment will be in the Medford I.O.O.F. cemetery.

Seattle, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Deputy Coroner John Brill Jr., said Rex Tyson, about 35, former San Francisco newspaperman and son of a San Francisco attorney, leaped or fell to his death at 3:45 a.m. today from the west end of the Garfield street bridge.
