Fires at Ouzel falls and Spirea creek also developed runs yesterday when rangers hoped they were under control. The Mountain Ash blaze defied the efforts of more than 100 begrimed smoke eaters.

WILLKIE AWAIT'S REPLY OF FDR. TO CALL FOR DEBATE

Coffeyville, Kan., for First Major Campaign Talk, Plans Coast Visit.

Rushville, Ind., Aug. 19.—(AP)—Wendell L. Willkie was completing arrangements today to open a nation-wide speaking campaign at Coffeyville, Kansas, in mid-September—unless, he said, "President Roosevelt would like to meet me beforehand" in joint debates.

From Coffeyville, he likely will go to the west coast, touring from Los Angeles up to Seattle, and then back into the mid-west and the east for the latter portion of the campaign. He still is considering speeches in the south, he said, adding that he would go into Texas "if developments continue the way they are going now."

The Republican presidential nominee challenged the chief executive Saturday to argue foreign and domestic issues "face to face", but he told reporters yesterday he had "not heard a word from Washington" in reply.

"I am waiting patiently," Willkie said as he sat in the cream-colored home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Cora Wilk. "I will be glad to accommodate myself to any dates the president wants to fix."

The candidate determined finally on the Coffeyville engagement at a Sunday luncheon conference with Republican Chairman Joseph W. Martin of Massachusetts.

The latter came here after Willkie accepted the presidential nomination at Elwood Saturday in a speech calling for "some form of selective service" and charging that Mr. Roosevelt "courted a war for which the country is hopelessly unprepared."

Coffeyville was chosen for the first major address because Willkie taught high school history there in 1913-14. He is asking Walter Johnson, one time Coffeyville resident who gained renown as the "big train" of baseball, to introduce him.

Willkie, his wife and son, Philip, will stay here through Wednesday, and then may go to Maine or Minnesota, after making a brief stop in New York. The Maine election is September 9, but Willkie said he would make only short, informal talks if he visited the state this month.

New York, Aug. 19.—(AP)—A one-time locomotive wiper who became one of America's great automotive industrialists, died yesterday at his suburban Long Island home in Great Neck of cerebral hemorrhage. He had been unconscious 24 hours.

A funeral service will be held Wednesday at 10 a.m. (EST) in St. Bartholomew's Episcopal church here. Burial will be in Sleepy Hollow cemetery, Tarrytown, N. Y.

State Solon Hurt—Myrtle Point, Aug. 19.—(AP)—An automobile struck State Representative J. H. McCloskey of Norway yesterday, fracturing his left leg. He was crossing the highway three miles north of here.
