

Society and Clubs

By Clara Mary Davis

Medford Matron To Leave Soon for Capital City

After seventeen years residence in Medford, Mrs. R. R. Shreeve plans to leave next week with her two daughters and grandson for Salem to make her home.

Mrs. Shreeve, well known matron here, her daughter Miss Mary Elizabeth Shreeve, popular Medford high school graduate and queen of the Shakespearean festival the season just passed and her other daughter, Mrs. Robert Morris and her infant son Tommy, will all make the trip to the capital city Tuesday. Mrs. Morris plans to stay in Salem until September at which time she will go to Juneau, Alaska to join her husband. The couple have lived in Juneau for the past year. Mrs. Morris has been visiting her mother here for several months.

On Monday afternoon Mrs. D. L. Flynn was hostess at her home on West Tenth street for a delightful luncheon and bridge party honoring Mrs. Shreeve. Guests included Mesdames Robert Morris, Maude Snider, D. O. Frederick, Jim Bates, C. Hamlin, M. Liebman, John Butler, Charles Smith Van Gilbert and Minnie Bellinger. Mrs. Shreeve and Mrs. Hamlin were recipients of the bridge prizes.

Durno Children Return to Home

Anne and Jane Durno, daughters of Dr. and Mrs. Edwin R. Durno, returned to Medford this morning by train with their grandmother, Mrs. Clara Durno, from Eugene.

The youngsters had spent a month visiting their grandmother, Dr. and Mrs. Durno with their three daughters and the doctor's mother, plan to travel to San Francisco next week to attend the Golden Gate International exposition on Treasure Island.

Ponds Hosts to House Guests

The Rev. and Mrs. Roy Murray and two small sons of LaCrosse, Wash., left yesterday for their home after visiting for the past week with Chaplain and Mrs. Clifton R. Pond at their home on the Pacific highway near Phoenix.

Mrs. Murray is Mrs. Pond's sister.

Eberharts to Leave for Fair in San Francisco

Dr. John C. Eberhart of Chicago, Ill., arrived in the valley last evening to visit her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jean Eberhart at their Ashland home.

Dr. Eberhart, assistant professor of psychology at Northwestern university, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Eberhart of Portland, the house guests here of Mrs. Eberhart's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest R. Gilstrap and the Jean Eberharts plan to leave this evening for San Francisco, Cal., to attend the Golden Gate International exposition on Treasure Island.

The group will visit the three Eberhart brothers' other brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Eberhart in Berkeley, Cal. They plan to remain there until Monday, after which Dr. Eberhart will return east and the other brothers and their wives will return to their respective homes.

Mrs. Currans Home From Colorado

Mrs. E. T. Currans returned to her home on Ashland avenue yesterday from Denver, Colo., where she attended a family reunion of the Viquain clan. The affair was held in the mountains 30 miles from Denver at beautiful Evergreen park. Thirty-five members of the family were present, including Mrs. Currans' five brothers and three sisters and their families.

This marked the first reunion of its kind for the relatives and they have planned another to take place in five years in Seattle. Mrs. Currans was a Viquain prior to her marriage.

Miss Williams Is Klamath Visitor

June Marie Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Williams of Medford, is spending several weeks in Klamath Falls visiting her aunt, Mrs. Ellsworth Allen.

Miss Williams plans to return here for school the first of the month. She has been at the Medford Girl Scout camp at Lake of the Woods for two weeks.

The Williams formerly lived in Klamath Falls.

Gay Nineties to Be Feature of Tonight's Meet

Tonight is the night—at 8 o'clock the "curtain" will rise on the Rogue valley's first acquadance at the home of the Alfred S. V. Carpenters on the Old Stage road.

In addition to the Moonlight Acquadance a feature of the evening will be a gay nineties style show with the following members of the younger set participating: Carol Tengwald, Ann and Phoebe Dean, Patricia Thompson and Mary Lou Lyman.

This is a benefit affair sponsored by the Jackson County League of Women Voters for members and friends. Tickets may be purchased at the Carpenters this evening.

In addition to the acquadance and style show there will be a variety of individual swimming and diving feats and team specialties by Miss Marjorie Kelly and Dick Sleeter, both expert swimmers.

Birthday Party For Mrs. Ayres Is Recent Event

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smith in Eagle Point was the scene of a recent enjoyable birthday party honoring Mrs. Lottie Ayres on her eighty-second natal day. Mrs. Ayres is the mother of Mrs. Smith and Mrs. William Perry.

The occasion has been celebrated for many years at the home of the beloved woman's daughters.

Luncheon was served at noon after which guests enjoyed visiting, singing of old songs and touring the beautiful yard with its large shade trees and flowers. Mrs. Ayres was presented with numerous birthday gifts.

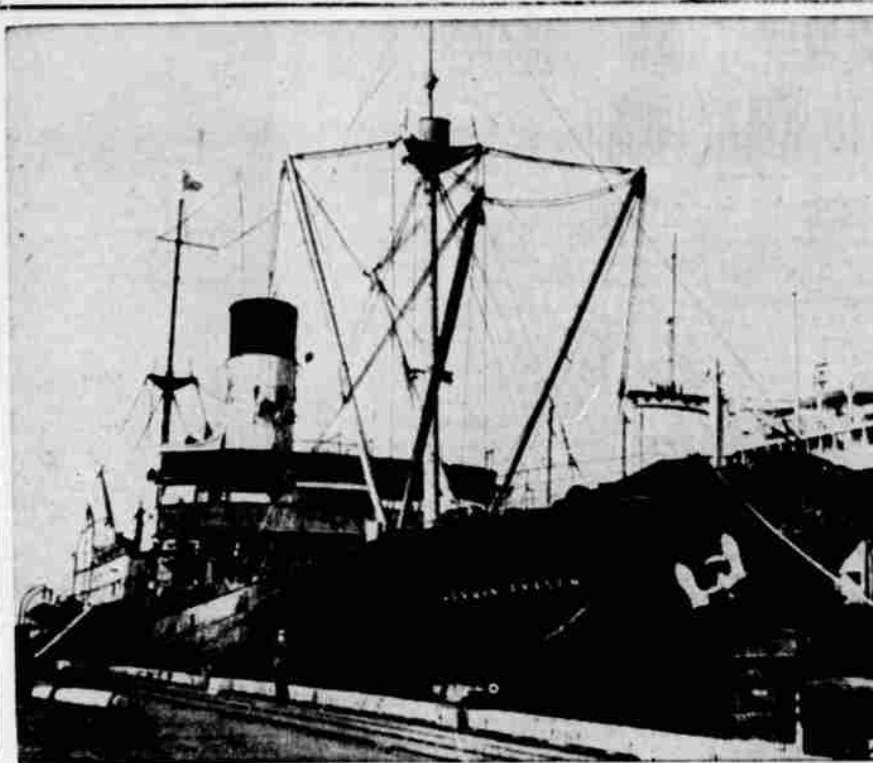

Guests included Mrs. Alice Huston, Mrs. Alice Phillips, Mrs. Anna Watkins, Mrs. Alice Bailey, Mrs. Mary Taylor, Mrs. Lizzie Perry, Mrs. Rosa Smith, Miss Barbara Smith, William Perry's two sisters, Mrs. Nettie Grover and Mrs. Nellie Bowles, and Mrs. Grover's daughter, Miss Ruth Grover who is visiting here from San Francisco.

Pythian Club Will Convene

Pythian club enjoyed a recent pot luck dinner party in the attractive yard at the home of the William Swartz on Genesee street.

Thirty guests were present at the affair. After dinner pinocle was played with prizes being won by Mrs. E. G. Wortman, Mrs. C. M. Potter and Alfred Wolf and George Fisk.

American Ship Stopped By Mex Gunboat

The American freighter Herman Frasch, shown above during a recent visit to Seattle, Wash., radioed it had been stopped and boarded by officers of a Mexican gunboat off Acapulco, Mexico. The radio message was addressed to all stations and all naval stations. The Herman Frasch was en route from Pacific coast ports to the east coast via the Panama canal. Acapulco is on the Pacific side of the lower coast of Mexico.

Schade Home Is Scene of Party For Miss Shreeve

Miss Mary Elizabeth Shreeve was honored at a formal party at the South Oakdale home of the Larry Schades Sunday evening when the Misses Patricia Wilkinson and Jackie Flynn, Messrs. Larry Schade, Jr., and Chris Barker entertained.

The pleasant affair, to which members of the younger set were bidden, took place in the attractive yard of the Schade home. After refreshments were served, the party went to the Chateau for the remainder of the evening.

Guests included the Misses Toni Stephenson, Anita Davis, Mary Gritsch, Gretchen McAllister, Dorothy Flynn, Mary Russell, Barbara Ann Brayton, Mary Wilcox, Barbara Hampton, Joyce Freed, Dorothy Root, Messrs. Louie Thurman, Kenneth Scripser, George Gates, Jr., Arthur Carpenter, Don Boss, Norbert Miksche, Harry Wilcox, Frank Dixon, Merilla Dow, Bud Dodge, Harry Thurman, Harold McAbee and Eusebe Dallaire.

The honoree will leave next week with her mother, Mrs. R. R. Shreeve for Salem to reside.

Visitors Leaving For Their Home

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Perry plan to leave tomorrow for their home in Redlands, Cal., after visiting here several days with their son, Clesson Perry of route two. They will be accompanied home by another son, Wayne Perry, who has spent part of the summer here with his brother and who will soon resume his studies at the University of Redlands where he is a sophomore.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry arrived for their visit here last Saturday, traveling by motorcar. During their stay they have been entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hart of Central Point, Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Swing of route two and Mr. and Mrs. Albert R. Stocks of the Old Pacific highway.

Mrs. Kurtz Returns From Seattle Stay

Mrs. Effie Kurtz returned to her home on North Ivy street last evening from Seattle, Wash., where she took voice work at the University of Washington. She also did accompaniment work for C. Lawrence, head of the university music department. She had been away since the latter part of July.

Mrs. Kurtz returned by train via Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Herbert, mother of Mrs. Kurtz, also returned to the home of her daughter recently from a six months visit in Oklahoma, Missouri and other states.

Miss Rians Is Visitor Here

Miss Virginia Rians, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Rians, is spending a month here visiting her parents. She lives in Oakland, Cal.

New Yorkers Are Medford Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sidle of New York City are visitors here for several days. They formerly made their home in Medford two years ago. Mr. Sidle is a United Air Lines radio operator at LaGuardia airport in New York.

INDIGESTION

Get trapped in the stomach or heart may be like a ball-trap on the heart. At the first sign of indigestion, heart and stomach, get the relief that only PERL can give. The latest full size of the PERL TABLETS, 25¢ per box. PERL TABLETS, 25¢ per box. PERL TABLETS, 25¢ per box.

Many Attend Annual Family D.A.V. Picnic

The D. A. V. annual family picnic at Riverside park in Grants Pass Sunday provided an enjoyable afternoon for about 100 people. Delegations were present from Medford and Klamath Falls.

Races and contests throughout the afternoon, under the direction of Mrs. James O'Leary, afforded considerable amusement, the most comical being a "hat trimming contest" for the men.

C. J. Parker, Medford, won a men's sack race, and Mrs. Agnes Wait won a women's sack race. Winners of a three-legged kid race were Gene Martin and Francis Dittie with Art Guertler and Jack Martin second. A shoe contest was won by Francis Dittie, with Rusty Bormuth and Manfred Meals, second and third. A sack-blowing test was won by Agnes Wait as first, Violo O'Leary second and Mrs. Herman Guertler third. Ethel Yarbrough and Bob Guertler won a "trip to New York" race.

Among visiting dignitaries were: Herman Guertler, Los Angeles, past V. F. W. commander; C. J. Parker, Medford, D. A. V. commander; Mrs. Ed Neff, D. A. V. auxiliary commander; Harry Naugle, Medford, past D. A. V. commander, and Mrs. Laura Bacon, Klamath Falls, V. F. W. president.

Haskins Return From Long Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Haskins of the Upper Applegate road returned today from Central Illinois where they spent two months visiting with Mrs. Haskin's parents and friends.

They visited numerous places of interest and historic value enroute, including Lincoln's home and tomb in Springfield and village at New Salem, Ill.

On the return trip, the couple stopped at Hotchkiss, Cal., to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Richey, formerly of this valley. In Sonora, Cal., they were the guests of Mr. Haskin's sister, Mrs. E. H. Morey and family.

OLD MAMMY SHOWS SOME FORESIGHT

Beaufort, S. C., Aug. 21.—(AP)—When a rescue party in the recent hurricane found an old Negro woman in the loft of her undated cabin with a 150-pound pig in her lap, she explained: "Ah bin t'rough de storm of 1893 and me and mah family most starve to death so dis time ah ain't mean to starve."

Closing time for Too Late to Classify Ads is 1:30 p. m.

CONSULTATION carries no obligation. For we are here to serve faithfully and counsel untiringly all the needs of those who commission us. PERL FUNERAL HOME John A. & Frank Perl Ambulance service PHONE 2675 sors' reports on reduction of the number of farms.

MOCK WAR PROVES WELL-KNOWN FACT

Ogdensburg, N. Y., Aug. 21.—(AP)—The nation's mightiest make-believe war ceased an end 24 hours before schedule today with the "blue" troops of America's first army pounding to pieces an out-numbered mock invader in northern New York's experimental battleground.

The combat, originally scheduled to be fought until the calling of an armistice tomorrow noon, proved exactly what military authorities professed to know all along, namely that:

The "blues," which outnumbered the "black" invaders five to three, exemplified the truth of the old adage that a "good big man can beat a good little man."

Quantico, Va., Aug. 21.—(AP) Douglas Politka, former Portland and Boise newspaperman, arrived this week to take up duties as a lieutenant in the marines.

Nervous Restless Girls! Cranky? Restless? Can't sleep? Tired easily? Anxious? Female functional disorders? Monthly distress? Then try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Pinkham's Compound is famous for helping such rundown, nervous conditions. Made especially for women. WORTH TRYING!

Jrs. JOIN THE CHEERING SECTION FOR Carole King ORIGINALS FOR JUNIORS $6.50 $7.98 $10.98

Portland, Aug. 21.—(AP)—Republican leaders hastened final preparations today for Senator Charles L. McNary's notification of the vice presidential nomination at the Salem fairgrounds next Tuesday.

The Salem program, August 27, includes:

Noon—Luncheon at Marion Hotel for precinct committee men. Chairman, Dr. B. F. Pound of Salem, speakers, Governor Stassen of Minnesota and National Chairman Joseph W. Martin.

1 p. m. Picnic luncheon at Fircone for press and members of notification committee.

3:45 p. m.—Musical program at fairground by band and Eugene Gleemen.

4:30 p. m.—Notification ceremony: national anthem; invocation; Rep. Martin's introduction of Governor Stassen; Governor Stassen's notification address; Senator McNary's acceptance.

The senator will remain at the fairgrounds after the ceremony to receive the public.

Chicago, Aug. 21.—(AP)—An estimate that 70,000 farming units had "disappeared" in the last five years in five corn-belt states—Iowa, Missouri, Illinois, Indiana and Ohio—was given by an expert today to the congressional committee on interstate migration.

P. G. Beck of Indianapolis, director of the farm security administration's region 3, comprising those states, said the estimate which he termed "conservative" was based on preliminary census data and county assess-

Top—"CRISP-N-GUTE" Permanent done dot on black rayon jersey. White detachable yoke rolling at collar and cuffs plus pearl buttons working down the front make this real smart. Size 11 to 17... $7.98

Center—"BEAU BRUM-MELL" Tailored of Carole King Tux to Prairie Rose and Clara West, Champagne and Seal Top, Quality Grey and Navy or Olive. Size 11 to 17... $9.98

Below—"SHARP AS LIGHTNING" Smartly styled band across price and jersey, exclusively a Carole King fabric. In Navy Gold, Kitch Red, French Blue. Size 11-17 $10.98

42.99 ROUND TRIP TICKET

Canadian Pacific 626 S. W. Broadway, Portland BR. 8637 Canada welcomes U. S. Citizens. No Passports

BURELSON'S LADIES' READY-TO-WEAR Medford Building. Telephone 3383

"It's Coca-Cola when you want to feel refreshed"

5¢

Drink Coca-Cola Delicious and Refreshing

Ice-cold Coca-Cola is a quality drink,—the familiar drink that represents four generations of experience in refreshing millions. Its clean, tingling taste brings a delightful after-sense of real refreshment.

THE PAUSE THAT REFRESHES

BOTTLED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE COCA-COLA CO. BY COCA-COLA BOTTLING CO., of Medford, 601 No. Grape St.—Phone 3339