

WILLKIE TO WOO THIRD TERM FOES IN SOLID SOUTH

GOP. Has Chance to Carry Six States — Will Visit Pacific Coast.

New York, Aug. 23.—(AP)—A state by state campaign for Wendell L. Willkie in the Democratic "solid south" was being blocked out today after the Republican presidential nominee approved a two weeks' speaking tour of the western half of the country.

Behind the southern drive are leaders of an independent Democratic organization who conferred with Willkie last night. They reached no decision as to whether a new ticket should be put up in states where Democrats might not want to vote the Republican slate, but agreed that legal and practical political questions would settle the situation in each case.

"This is a very aggressive movement," Willkie told reporters following a dinner meeting with John W. Hanes, former Roosevelt undersecretary of the treasury; Lewis Douglas, first budget director under the New Deal, and Dr. Alan Valentine, president of the University of Rochester.

The Republican nominee said he might make a major speech under the auspices of independent Democrats, whose leaders voiced belief they had a good chance of carrying Texas, Florida, Virginia, North Carolina and Tennessee.

He made this disclosure three hours after he told a press conference about general plans for his first long stumping trip—beginning at Coffeyville, Kans., September 16 and ending in Detroit September 30.

Willkie pointed to a red-pencilled map over which he and Martin had been poring, and explained that the tour would include seven principal speeches and about 25 informal talks.

Los Angeles, San Francisco, Portland, Seattle, Detroit and an Iowa community will be the sites for the formal addresses. The Detroit speech will be to the National Federation of Republican Women's clubs.

Justice for Dinner

Memphis, Tenn.—(AP) Federal Judge J. D. Martin complimented his host for the "best chicken dinner I ever ate." The negro cook came forward. "Haven't I seen you before?" the judge asked. "Yes, suh," he replied, "I just finished a 90-day sentence."

No Work—No Chicken

Memphis, Tenn.—(AP)—On the theory a full stomach is a good incentive to character building, the Character Builder Bible Class gave star member-getters a fried chicken dinner. Those whose enrollment lists were slim got beans.

AERIAL TORPEDO USED BY GERMAN PLANES NOT NEW

Washington, Aug. 23.—(AP)—Reports that Nazi fliers had used "aerial torpedoes" against Great Britain developed today that the patent offices has at least five such devices on file.

Officials would not say how practical any of the American designs were, or what their reception had been at the army or navy.

In Berlin, observers said the reported "aerial torpedoes" were probably large bombs with fins on the tail and a barrel-shaped fan behind the fins to steady descent.

The first patent was filed in 1911 by Paul E. Chamberlain. Chamberlain conceived a miniature airplane that could be loaded with explosives and released from a man-sized aircraft.

Later research in aerial torpedoes was undertaken by some of the best known inventors in the country. The last patent, in 1927, was granted to Dr. Charles F. Kettering, research head of General Motors, and chairman of the newly created national inventors council of the commerce department, whose job is to clear potential military devices to the army or navy.

Arrange Tank Schools

Washington, Aug. 23.—(AP)—General George C. Marshall, army chief of staff, said today that the war department had arranged for half a dozen civilian schools to train specialists for the army's armored corps.

K. F. SHOOTERS EXPECTED SUNDAY

A squad of Klamath Falls trapshooters is expected at the practice shoot at the Medford Gun club Sunday morning. Shooting will commence at the usual time of 10:30 and continue until 2 p. m.

Until the opening of the upland bird season October 15, the club will shoot every Sunday. A large crowd blasted away at the clay targets last Sunday indicating a demand for regular weekly shoots, the club having been shooting only twice a month during the warm summer weather.

A larger number of registered shoots are planned for the coming season than were held last year. Medford, Klamath Falls and Bend alternating on dates for registered shoots in order to promote the sport in this section of the state.

LEGISLATURE DUE TO TACKLE STATE EMPLOYE STATUS

Reducing Hours, Equalizing Wages, Planning Retirement Will Be Pondered

By Victor Delleire
Staff Correspondent

Salem.—(AP)—The problems of reducing hours, equalizing wages and providing a retirement plan for state employees will be tossed into the lap of the 1941 legislature.

Relief of the long-suffering employees of 11 state institutions, who work a 12-hour day, six-day week while private employees may not be worked more than eight hours daily, has been recommended for legislative consideration by the board of control, although the last legislature refused to do anything about the situation.

Everybody agrees the state should not deny to its own employees the privileges it forces private industry to grant its workers but the rub comes in raising the $200,000 annually the hour reduction would cost the state.

Another headache for the 1941 legislators, a $70,000 one, lies in the problem of paying institution employees who live away from their work $20 a month in lieu of the maintenance they would receive if they lived in the institutions.

Under the present setup, the employees can have board and lodging if they want it, but if they choose to live at home, as many of them do who have families, they are not given compensation for the board and room they do not use.

A third state employe problem the legislators will tackle is that of setting up a retirement plan. A committee appointed by Gov. Charles A. Sprague is studying pension plans of other states and is expected to make recommendations for a program to the governor in time for presentation to the legislature.

The lack of a retirement plan has long been felt. Many departmental heads, to avoid discharging old and faithful employees, have kept them on the payroll long after their working days should have ended.

Los Angeles, Aug. 23.—(AP)—The city formally welcomed Sergeant Alvin C. York, the World War's best known hero, when he arrived here from his home in Tennessee to attend the 41st national encampment of the Veterans of Foreign Wars next week.

On the same train was Otis N. Brown of Greensboro, N. C., national commander-in-chief of the foreign veterans.

York told reporters he believed "as many warships, airplanes and munitions as America can spare should be sent to aid England in her fight against totalitarianism," and added:

"Conscription is fine, but I favor it only as a means of training men here at home for service should American shores be invaded."

During his stay here, York will act as technical adviser on preparation of a motion picture "The Life of Sergeant York."
