

SOCIETY AND CLUB NEWS OF THE WEEK

By CLARA MARY DAVIS

Medford Girl Is Wed in Outdoor Service Wednesday

At a beautiful outdoor ceremony solemnized at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Todd on East Ninth street last Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, Miss Edith Todd became the bride of Robert L. Brantley, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Brantley of Ashland. Dr. Sherman L. Divine officiated.

The bride, youngest daughter of the Todds, wore her mother's wedding dress of cream colored silk of Grecian style with train and a long veil of tulle which was also part of her mother's bridal attire. She carried a bouquet of Talisman roses and delphinium.

Miss Olivia Todd was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a dress of turquoise net and carried a Colonial bouquet.

Jack Walker of Ashland, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man.

The couple spoke their vows beneath an arch effect. Miss Betty Willey played the wedding music and the maid of honor, Miss Olivia, sang "Oh Promise Me."

A reception for the fifty wedding guests followed the impressive ceremony. Later the couple left on a wedding trip. For a going-away ensemble, the bride wore a grape colored sport dress and blue and white accessories.

Mrs. Todd and the bridegroom's mother, both wore navy blue ensembles and corsages of lilies.

Mrs. Brantley attended Medford high school and the Southern Oregon College of Education in Ashland. Mr. Brantley, who is the assistant manager of the produce department of Carl Schallinger company of San Francisco, Cal., attended University of Oregon and business college in San Francisco.

Mrs. David Moore who was Miss Beverly Young prior to her wedding last Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock in the Presbyterian church in Ashland. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Bowman of Ashland and

Mrs. David Moore

(Photo by Shangle)

Mrs. David Moore who was Miss Beverly Young prior to her wedding last Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock in the Presbyterian church in Ashland. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Bowman of Ashland and

Large Gathering Honors Pastor of Lutheran Church

Rev. H. H. Young, pastor of St. Peter's Lutheran church and Mrs. Young were honored at a cleverly arranged surprise party recently in observance of their sixteenth wedding anniversary. Giving the enjoyable social affair were members of the congregations of the Medford and Grants Pass churches.

The Rev. Mr. Young and his wife were informed of the party after church services and were escorted by the elders of the congregation to the scene of the affair in the church recreation rooms. They were seated with the elders at the guest of honor table which was beautifully decorated with white appointments and bouquets of rose buds at either end. The centerpiece was a spray of flowers given the Youngs by the Grants Pass church. Other tables seating the congregation were decorated in the same motif.

Fredrick Guetzlaff accompanied his mother at the organ dedicated "O Perfect Love" to the honor couple and the entire group sang "Happy Anniversary." Mrs. E. C. Toms presented Mrs. Young with a beautifully decorated cake after which refreshments were served by Mrs. E. C. Toms, Mrs. Otto Krueger, Mrs. LaVerne Miller and Mrs. Roland Holmes.

Later Mr. Krueger presented the Youngs with a world bank in which a free will offering from the congregation was placed and given as a token of appreciation for the couple's willing services and wholehearted friendship to all.

Mr. Guetzlaff acted as toastmaster for the occasion and later the Youngs expressed their appreciation for the lovely party. The Rev. Mr. Young told of his career during the past sixteen years as follows:

In 1924, shortly after he and Mrs. Young were married, he received a call from Roseburg to serve as missionary at large for southern Oregon and northern California. In 1926 he and Mrs. Young moved to Ashland to be nearer his mission fields which were growing more rapidly. At that time, he was serving Ashland, Grants Pass, Medford, Mt. Shasta, Weed and Dunsmuir. In 1928 he organized Bonita Weatherly of Sparta, Bonita Weatherly of Sherman, N. Y., left early Thursday morning to visit the San Francisco world's fair. They had visited relatives in Salem and spent several days in Medford visiting at the home of Mrs. Nellie Wall, who is a cousin of the Scouting. While here they enjoyed a trip to Crater Lake, also visited Medford Corporation and Holmes Bear Creek packing plant and the House of Mystery.

The young people will go east via Los Angeles and visit Miss Weatherly's aunt at Southgate. They plan to leave Monday for Pennsylvania. All reported a very enjoyable time. This was their first trip west.

Bullis Family Gather Here for Reunion Party

For the first time in a number of years, members of the Bullis family gathered last evening at the home of Seth Bullis on Florence avenue for a dinner party and reunion.

Members of the family present were Seth Bullis and his three brothers and two sisters: Gilbert Bullis of Ferriday, La., Gardner Bullis of Los Angeles, Raymond Bullis of Whittier, Cal., Miss Helen Bullis and Mrs. Ralph U. Boutelle, Medford.

Others present were Mr. Boutelle, Mrs. Gardner Bullis and Seth Bullis' daughter, Miss Josephine Bullis.

The Gardner Bullis' arrived in Medford yesterday to spend a month or two at the Boutelle home on Florence avenue during the Boutelle's absence from the city. They left today with Gilbert Bullis for the east during which time they will visit Mr. Boutelle's old home in Fitchburg, Mass. They expect to be away two or three months. Raymond Bullis is spending several months in Medford from his home in Whittier.

Miss Josephine Bullis returned yesterday from Portland where she attended a University of Oregon picnic at Jantzen beach. She is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority at the Eugene college. She also visited in Salem before returning home from the week's vacation.

Bride-Elect Is Feted at Recent Shower Party

Miss Forest Dale, bride-elect of Durward Gass, was feted at a miscellaneous shower party Thursday evening by Mrs. Eugene Peterson who entertained at her home on Palm street.

Guests included Mesdames Lester Price, Larry Hull, Lester Bradshaw, Birdie Coggins, W. L. Dale, C. Gass, Alta Bartley and the Misses Dorothy Edwards, Della Dale, Helen Latham and Dale Hartley.

Cards were played during the evening and prizes were won by Mrs. Bradshaw and Miss Latham.

The honoree, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Dale of this city, will wed Mr. Gass, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Gass on October 20.

Scott-Panger Ceremony Event Of August 15

The Catholic manse was the scene of the wedding August 15 of Miss Geraldine Lorena Scott and Raymond Panger. The ceremony was read at 10:30 o'clock Thursday morning by the Rev. Father F. W. Black in the presence of immediate members of both families.

The bride wore a sheer black redingote with white accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

Miss Bertha Panger, sister of the bridegroom, and Robert M. Scott of Klamath Falls were the attendants.

A small reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Scott in Trail, after the ceremony.

The couple left later for Salem where they will make their home.

Rebekah Lodge Enjoys Meeting

The August social meeting of the Rebekah lodge was enjoyed last week. After officers were formally seated, Gertrude Mofat, noble grand called the meeting to order.

Ina Huson presented the lodge with fans which were enjoyed. The peer committee reported sending 28 boxes of pears to the I.O.O.F. home in Portland.

A large attendance was reported at the Rebekah I.O.O.F. picnic in Grants Pass park, Aug. 18. All lodges in southern Oregon were represented.

Ashland Rebekahs invited Medford lodge to their 60th anniversary September 6, all members being requested to dress in a style as near 60 years ago as possible.

Olive Rebekah degree staff will initiate for Ashland, August 27. After the meeting Mary Cave and Ella Gould conducted the singing of a group of pep songs.

The social committee was Maude Stickle, Talitha Pickel, Mary Wiley, N. J. Wiley, Alta Nailer and Ina Huson.

Daniels Home Is Scene of Party

The attractive East Main street residence of the T. E. Daniels was the scene of a party Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. Rupert Henry and Mrs. Daniels entertained in honor of Mrs. Elizabeth Brown of Kalamazoo, Mich.

Fourteen guests were bidden to luncheon after which three tables of mahjong were in play.

Mrs. Brown, former Medford resident who has been visiting friends in the valley for the past several weeks, is the house guest this week of the George M. Roberts at their home on Crown Hill.

Luncheon Party Enjoyable Event

Mrs. E. L. Henninger was hostess last week at her home on West Main street for a pleasant afternoon luncheon.

Guests included Mrs. J. H. Young and her daughter, Mrs. N. Nugent who is visiting here from Japan, Mrs. M. Mashong, Mrs. Arthur Short, Mrs. Belle Littrell, Mrs. E. Wheliden, Dr. Susie Standard, Mrs. Tom Wray, Mrs. Myra Coffinberry, Mrs. Charles Adair and Mrs. B. H. Williams.

The afternoon was spent in quilting and visiting.

Medford Couple Married Friday

Miss Jetta Avanelle Frazier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Frazier and Benjamin Alfred Blakeley were united in marriage Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the study of the First Presbyterian church.

Dr. Sherman L. Divine, pastor of the church, officiated. Guests included relatives of the couple, R. B. Early and Ruth Davis attended the couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Blakeley will make their home here at 215 West Eighth street.

Heaths Vacation At Crescent City

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Heath and daughters Madeline and Nancy and Jack Bowman left yesterday for Crescent City, Cal. The Heath family will spend a fortnight at the coast vacationing. Mr. Bowman plans to return here after the week-end.

Sojourners' Guest Day Bridge Party Attracts Many

Entertaining with the quarterly guest day, Medford Sojourners and a number of friends enjoyed an afternoon of bridge Thursday at the Hotel Medford. Seventy women attended the pleasant affair, which had been planned by a committee headed by Mrs. O. J. Halboth. Her assistants were Mrs. R. Alfrey, Mrs. O. R. Fritz, Mrs. T. T. Bennett, Mrs. Jack Nail and Mrs. Murray Marley.

Following serving of dessert, guests were welcomed by Mrs. Douglass C. Welch, Sojourners' president. Guests included Mrs. V. J. Robinson, Mrs. Q. D. Hazen, Sacramento, Calif., Mrs. A. J. Hanby, Mrs. Clara A. Young, Mrs. J. F. Wallace, Mrs. Karl Janouch, Mrs. John Larwood, Mrs. V. E. Rolfe, Mrs. J. A. McDougall, Mrs. P. H. Weiland, Mrs. Lloyd Taylor, Mrs. R. M. Schino, Mrs. Charles Lemery, Mrs. Robert Waggener, Mrs. Ivan Harrington, Mrs. Jack Walker, Mrs. Sam Colton, Mrs. R. F. Raber and Miss Ruth Raber of Tacoma, Wash. Prospective members present were Mrs. Bernard Nord and Mrs. Stanton Earle.

Members present were Mesdames R. Alfrey, G. V. Allen, Don K. Bagley, T. T. Bennett, Roy Byrd, Eugene Card, Royal Clare, Jack Davis, Jack Evans, George Fields, Calvin Francis, O. R. Fritz, Herald G. Gardner, Burli Gilpin, Ralph Greene, O. J. Halboth, Ed. Hoppe, Walt E. Hoppe, Irving Housechild, Francis Hughes, Frank Humphrey, Hal Johnson, Leonard Lewis, S. C. Lapham, A. V. Lowflier, Clyde Mofatt, James L. Murphy, Lester Nielsen, Frances Paige, George Perkins, C. H. Post, Clifford Proctor, E. G. Randolph, Glenn Rose, I. E. Staples, Bren H. Starcher, C. M. Starnes, C. E. Walbert, Douglas C. Welch, Robert Wright and Henry Zacharisen.

A guest prize was awarded Mrs. Thurman, and Mrs. Proctor received the door prize. Bridge prizes went to Mrs. Harrington, Mrs. Ed. Hoppe and Mrs. Hughes.

Emmens Home Is Scene of Party

The Siskiyou Heights home of Mrs. J. J. Emmens was the scene of a delightful dinner party Friday evening when Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Emmens entertained a group of friends.

Guests included Dr. and Mrs. Robert W. Sleeter, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Ringrose, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Parrett, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. John Day, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Westergren and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Davis.

Cards were played after dinner.

Visits Parents In Condon

John Reischer, Medford music teacher, is spending a week visiting his parents at their home in Condon.

"Now I get one pair FREE!"

"I joined the Berkshire Stocking Club. After I bought twelve pairs I got my thirteenth pair absolutely free." Why don't you join, too? You're sure to like the sheer and dainty look of Berkshire Stockings, their lovely colors, the way they fit and wear. Come in for your Membership Card, choose your Berkshire Stockings as you need them—and get your thirteenth pair absolutely free.

Medford Couple Married Friday

Miss Jetta Avanelle Frazier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Frazier and Benjamin Alfred Blakeley were united in marriage Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the study of the First Presbyterian church.

Dr. Sherman L. Divine, pastor of the church, officiated. Guests included relatives of the couple, R. B. Early and Ruth Davis attended the couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Blakeley will make their home here at 215 West Eighth street.

Heaths Vacation At Crescent City

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Heath and daughters Madeline and Nancy and Jack Bowman left yesterday for Crescent City, Cal. The Heath family will spend a fortnight at the coast vacationing. Mr. Bowman plans to return here after the week-end.

Visits Parents In Condon

John Reischer, Medford music teacher, is spending a week visiting his parents at their home in Condon.

"Now I get one pair FREE!"

"I joined the Berkshire Stocking Club. After I bought twelve pairs I got my thirteenth pair absolutely free." Why don't you join, too? You're sure to like the sheer and dainty look of Berkshire Stockings, their lovely colors, the way they fit and wear. Come in for your Membership Card, choose your Berkshire Stockings as you need them—and get your thirteenth pair absolutely free.

Puruckers Home From Vacation

Home from a vacation spent on the coast are Mrs. C. B. Purucker and daughter, Miss Ann Purucker, who returned to the city Tuesday evening. The Puruckers motored to Mapleton last Friday, accompanied by Mrs. H. L. Weather, who had been visiting in Medford. They traveled via Diamond lake to Eugene, and to Mapleton where they were the guests of the Walthers at their home on the Suislaw river. They motored down the coast to Gold Beach for a short stay before coming on to Medford.

Bill Reinecke Visits in City

An interesting guest in the city from Hollywood is Bill Reinecke, who arrived Tuesday evening to visit his grandmother, Mrs. C. B. Purucker, at her home on South Orange.

Mr. Reinecke is associated with the Walt Disney studios and is now on a three weeks' vacation. He is making plans for a hike over the Sky Line trail while in Oregon.

Former Resident Weds in Idaho

Interesting to many valley friends of the C. F. Bowmans is the announcement of the marriage of their son, Bob Bowman, and Miss Bethel Birchmier of Weiser, Idaho. The wedding was solemnized in Napa, Idaho, on July 5 and the couple are now residing in Baker.

Mr. Bowman attended the high school in Medford, where his parents and brother, Jack Bowman, now make their home.

Witts Fly to Visit Friends

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Witt left last evening by plane for Eugene to visit until this evening with Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hopp and son.

The Hoppa formerly lived in Medford, having been transferred to the northern city from here a short time ago.

Mr. Witt piloted the cub coupe north.

CONSULTATION carries no obligation, but we are here to serve faithfully and conscientiously all the needs of those who commission us.

PERL FUNERAL HOME
John A. & Frank Perl
Ambulance Service
PHONE 2875

Valentines Hosts To Movie Actor At Rogue Home

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Valentine were hosts at their attractive home on the Rogue River Friday evening for a small dinner party following a day of fishing.

Mr. Valentine, accompanied by William Staples and Raymond Walburn, Hollywood movie actor, enjoyed a boat trip from Bybee bridge to Gold Ray dam where all of them caught the limit of fish. They used spinners and flies and plan to try their luck in the same vicinity again today.

Others enjoying the evening at the Valentines were Mrs. Staples and the couple's daughter, Sally Anne. Mr. Walburn is a house guest of the Staples at their summer home on the Rogue. They maintain nearby homes in Beverly Hills.

Lodge Enjoys Recent Session

Pocahontas Lodge met recently for a regular business session.

Under the direction of Orval Hayes, several of the men presented a short humorous skit. Cards were also enjoyed during the evening with prizes being won by Velma Rogers and Gladys Lawrentz.

Refreshments were served by Esther Doooms, Norma Martin, Esther Powell and Mary Cook.

Ashlanders Call Here Yesterday

Callers in Medford yesterday from Ashland were Shakespeare Festival director William David Cottrell, Catherine Huffman and Marjorie Lee.

Mr. Cottrell and LeRoy Lindner, Shakespearean actor, plan to leave today for Lake o' the Woods to spend a week.

Get-Together Club To Meet

Get-Together club will hold a card party at the home of Helen Wettler, 619 South Central, Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Members and friends are invited to attend.

Two Return From Vacation

Charles Champlin and his sister, Miss Pauline Champlin returned yesterday by plane from a vacation spent in California where they visited in Los Angeles and Long Beach and attended the Golden Gate International Exposition on Treasure Island.

Easterners Leave For Exposition After Visit Here

Neil, Guy and Ruth Scouting, Bonita Weatherly of Sparta, Bonita Weatherly of Sherman, N. Y., left early Thursday morning to visit the San Francisco world's fair. They had visited relatives in Salem and spent several days in Medford visiting at the home of Mrs. Nellie Wall, who is a cousin of the Scouting. While here they enjoyed a trip to Crater Lake, also visited Medford Corporation and Holmes Bear Creek packing plant and the House of Mystery.

The young people will go east via Los Angeles and visit Miss Weatherly's aunt at Southgate. They plan to leave Monday for Pennsylvania. All reported a very enjoyable time. This was their first trip west.

Maasdam Home Scene Birthday Party Recently

Mrs. Pauline Wahl was honored at a surprise party Tuesday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. G. H. Maasdam on South Central avenue in observance of her eighty-second birthday.

Guests at the pleasant event included Mrs. Ethel Haertle, Mrs. Carrie Milnes, Mrs. Sarah Davis, Mrs. A. J. Hanby, Mrs. Stewart Porter, Mrs. F. E. Wahl, Mrs. Lula Rowe, Mrs. Hattie Alden and Mrs. Fred Strang. It is interesting to note that three of the guests are octogenarians. Mrs. Davis being 82 years of age, Mrs. Rowe 88 and the honoree 82.

Mrs. Wahl received many lovely gifts at the luncheon affair and visiting was enjoyed throughout the afternoon.

Beta Sigma Phi Enjoys Picnic

Beta Sigma Phi members entertained their husbands and escorts with a picnic last week in Lithia park in Ashland. Following supper games were enjoyed.

Those attending were Miss Mildred Drury, Bob Hinman, Patricia Thompson, Douglas Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barr, Mr. and Mrs. David Irving, Mr. and Mrs. George Harrington, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Underwood, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Liggett, Miss Gertrude Haskins, Charles F. Risse, Miss Jeanne Hamilton, David Lowry, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Hughes, Jack Boyl, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Beasley and Miss La Verne Robertson.

Zonta Club To Meet Monday

Zonta club will convene Monday evening at the Girls' Community clubhouse at 8 o'clock. Miss Louise Basford will present a report on the national Zonta convention recently held in Estes, park.

LUXURIA
by HARRIET HUBBARD AYER

The cleansing and conditioning cream of superior quality and purity. Keeps skin soft and smooth.

Dial 3551
HEATH'S DRUG STORE $1.00

helen's
ANNOUNCING THE NEW SHA-DENE WAVE WITHOUT EXTRA CHARGE

This sensational new wave set leaves no flakes or dried powder on the hair or scalp and reduces drying time to a minimum on the heatest head of hair.

SHA-DENE IS PURE
As in ingredients, water thin in consistency, it gives the hair body, yet it leaves it soft and lustrous, it is even an aid to wavy and hair.

Call 4266 for Appointment

BERKSHIRE STOCKINGS

89c - $1.00 - $1.25

M. M. DEPT. STORE

20 So. Central. Phone 2698
530 E. Main. Phone 4305

Two Convenient Locations

HOLIDAY AHEAD

You'll want your clothes to look their best—and they will when we return them to you! Colors sparkle like new when correctly cleaned. To enjoy perfect dry cleaning service call—

MEDFORD CLEANERS and DYERS

Two Convenient Locations