

9 SPECIAL BILLS UP TO VOTERS IN COMING ELECTION

Repeal of Liquor Control and Legalizing Gaming Devices Proposed.

Salem, Aug. 29.—(P)—Nine special measures will be on the Oregon ballot for the November general election.

Only four proposed constitutional amendments were referred to voters by the 1939 legislature. Other issues include two referendums and three initiatives.

One of the initiatives would repeal the Knox liquor control law and authorize private sale of liquor under license. It is sponsored Common Sense, Inc. The sponsors claim the change would increase liquor revenues.

Money derived from the state liquor monopoly goes for old-age assistance and other types of relief. Governor Sprague already has announced his opposition to the change.

Another initiative would legalize certain novelty gaming devices and machines, not including nickel-in-the-slot machines. They would be licensed by the secretary of state. Revenues would go to public fairs, exhibitions, and to counties and cities for public assistance. The Oregon Merchants' Legislative league sponsored the bill.

A third initiative would abolish the milk control law. An attempt to repeal the act was defeated by one vote at the 1939 legislative session.

A constitutional amendment referred by the 1939 legislature would lengthen the regular legislative session from 40 to 50 days an increase pay of legislators from $3 to $8 per day. Another would repeal the double-liability provision of state bank stock. The restriction against a secretary of state or state treasurer serving more than eight years in any 12 would be removed by another amendment.

A referendum measure is aimed at the 1939 bill changing the date of the primary election from the third Friday in May to the first Wednesday after the first Monday in September.

M'NARY BECOMES FARMER FOR DAY AND TAKES REST

Salem, Aug. 29.—(P)—Senator Charles L. McNary became a farmer again today and forgot all about being a vice presidential candidate.

"All I'm doing today is some farm work," he said. "I have no appointments today, and this is the one day I've saved for myself."

He didn't even open the hundreds of letters and telegrams that arrived today, saving that job until he finishes his farm tasks today.

He said it seemed like old times to get back to work on his farm and in his garden at his farm five miles north of Salem.

"I think I'll leave for Washington early next week, but I have to be here to attend the state fair. I've attended it every year for about 50 years. I guess, and that is too long a string to break."

The fair opens Monday. Tomorrow and Saturday will come more conferences with party leaders on campaign plans and proposed legislation. He had planned to visit the Oregon coast for two or three days, but he had to give up the idea because of so many appointments.

The senator said last night he had received about 500 telegrams complimenting him on his speech accepting the Republican vice presidential nomination. Included sending the telegrams included ex-President Herbert Hoover, Alf M. Landon, Republican presidential candidate in 1936, and his Democratic and Republican colleagues in congress.

Wendell Willkie telephoned him, but McNary did not disclose the subject of conversation. McNary will not return to Salem before election, he said.

SARAZEN OUSTS PICARD IN PGA

Hershey, Pa., Aug. 29.—(P)—Gene Sarazen knocked down a six-foot putt on the 36th green today to defeat Henry Picard, the defending champion, 1 up, in their third round match of the P.G.A. championship. Sarazen shot a 68 on his final round, five under par.

Harold (Jug) McSpaden eliminated the grand old warrior, 36th hole, when the Haig's putt for a birdie from about 15 feet rimmed the hole.

McSpaden's opponent tomorrow will be Paul Runyan, who swamped Ed Dudley, 4 and 3. Sarazen will meet Sam Snead, who beat Jimmy Hines, 7 and 6. Byron Nelson eliminated the tournament medalist, Dick Metz, 2 and 1.

Eddie Kirk of Framington, Mich., ousted Art Clark of Uniontown, Pa., 5 and 4 and qualified to play Nelson in another quarter final.

Ben Hogan, the year's biggest money winner, stayed in the running with a 5 and 4 victory over Al. Brosch of Farmingdale, N. Y.

Ralph Guldahl completed the quarter final bracket with a 5 and 3 triumph over Jim Foulis of Hinsdale, Ill., and will engage Hogan in a 36-hole battle tomorrow.

Find Suicide's Body. Moro, Aug. 29.—(P)—Sheriff C. C. Wilson said today Al Kirkley, about 62, whose body was found by boys yesterday in an unused Wasco warehouse, shot and killed himself. Kirkley, employed for several years by Sid Johnson of Wasco, returned this week from California.

WILLKIE GREET FOLKS AND PRESS ON FRONT PORCH

Residence at Rushville Mecca Draft Bill Views Given.

Rushville, Ind., Aug. 29.—(P)—While townspeople are bustling to entertain an ever-growing stream of visitors, Wendell L. Willkie is greeting political callers on the front porch and lawn of the sprawling red brick home he has rented for his presidential campaign.

The street in front of the 80-year-old residence is blocked off with saw-horses but the sidewalk is filled throughout the day with men and women who cheer each appearance of the Republican nominee.

A banner downtown proclaims "Rush county presents Wendell L. Willkie." The Hotel Lollis is crowded with newspapermen and members of Willkie's personal staff. Restaurants have hired extra waitresses. Several stores have reopened their fronts, and the chief of the six-man police force is keeping a personal eye on the traffic situation.

Although Willkie told reporters yesterday "I am taking it as easy as I can," his appointment book generally is full and he is working in spare hours on speeches for his western campaign tour.

Most of his time is spent at his home rather than in the office suite over the corner drug store where his staff is handling a heavy correspondence. He held a press conference yesterday in the shaded back yard of his residence.

Spawling on the grass while the reporters sat in a semi-circle around him, Willkie suggested a section be written in the constitution bill to give exemption boards in each community power to determine which men should be freed from selective draft.

"Under that system," he said,

"the administration of the act would be both local and free of politics."

Willkie sent a telegram to Senator Hiram Johnson of California, congratulating him on winning the Democratic Republican and Progressive nominations.

"It is fortunate," the message said, "that the people of California are able to recognize a true officer even though some others may not."

Eagle Point

Eagle Point, Aug. 29.—(Sp)—Mr. and Mrs. Muri McGraw returned to their home in Eagle Point last Monday, from Reno, Nevada at which place they were married last week Mrs. McGraw (nee Jessie Holiek) is a niece of Mrs. Jessie Hammel of Reese Creek, and a graduate of the local high school. Mr. McGraw is a son of Mr. and Mrs. McGraw who own and operate the planning mill here. Both have a host of friends here who join in wishing them many years of happiness together. They also attended the San Francisco exposition on their way home.

Another marriage of which the public did not learn until recently was of Claud (Shorty) Miles and Miss Swinney, which took place also in Reno, last April. Mrs. Miles is a sister of Mrs. Fred Farlow of this community and Mr. Miles a son of Mrs. Julia Doubleday of this place. Their many friends also wish them many years of wedded happiness.

They are at present making their home with Mrs. Doubleday. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Perry and son Merlyn and Mrs. Gladys Ray left Monday evening on a few days vacation trip to Astoria.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hay and two small daughters returned last Saturday from Corvallis where Mr. Hay attended summer college. They have moved into Mrs. Campbell's small house and Mr. Hay will teach in the local school again this winter.

Quinten Lewis, Eddie Grandall and John Woodrich returned last Saturday from Camp Lewis where they attended national guard encampment.

Eagle Point Extension unit rally meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Anne Clave Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Chas. Sturgill and new baby arrived at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Chamberlain to remain for a while.

Work was started this week on paving three miles of the Butte Creek road starting at the Geo. Brown place above Brownboro, where the work ended last fall of paving three miles starting at the Wm. Butter place. Next Sunday evening, September 1, a preschool musical program will be held in the Highway Tabernacle, commencing at 8:00, conducted by Rev. and Mrs. Martin Brunswick. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wisdom received a letter a few days ago from their youngest son, Roland, who is with the 9th field artillery at Fort Lewis. In the year since joining the army he has been advanced to the station of corporal. Recently they received a letter from their son Wesley, who is with the 9th bombers at Hamilton field and is radio man in his division. He recently was transferred to Salt Lake City, Utah. They have reason to be proud of the advancements these boys have made in the short time since their enlistments.

The next meeting of Eagle Point Townsend club will be held Monday evening, September 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Wes Childreth recently sold their property her to Mr. and Mrs. August Berg of Dunsmuir, Calif. and will give possession September 1st. They are moving to the town of Rogue River to make their home.

Richard Braunachweig of San Francisco is here for a three-week visit with his son, Martin Brunswick and family.

Mrs. Argie Green and sister, Mrs. Lettie Jones of Los Angeles, old-time residents of this community, spent last week here with their sister, Mrs. Gladys Pearce, and husband, while on their way home from a trip to Seattle, Wash., where they visited some of Mrs. Jones' friends and relatives.

FALSE TEETH THAT LOOSEN NEED NOT EMBARRASS

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plates dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little PASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) denture powder on your plate. It's a real aid to thousands in holding such plates more firmly in place so that they feel more comfortable. PASTEETH checks bad "plate odor" (denture breath), because it's alkaline. Get PASTEETH at any drug store.
