JUSTICE PAROLES BOYS WHO ADMIT THEY SET FIRES

Wallace E. Regan and Thomas O. Mulhollen, Medford boys both 15 years old, were paroled to their parents after a hearing on charges of incendiarism before Judge J. B. Coleman in juvenile court this morning.

According to admissions the police said the boys made, Wallace and Thomas set three grass-brush fires on Roxy Ann mountain by throwing matches and a cigarette out of a car as they drove along the Prescott park road. Several other boys in the car remonstrated with Wallace and Thomas, police said, and no court action was taken against them, though they failed to notify authorities of the fires.

The fires, set August 22, burned 81 acres. One was just above the Prescott CCC camp and the other two were on the opposite side of the road. They were put out by state forest crews.

Judge Coleman emphasized the danger of their acts, pointing out that the fires might have destroyed houses, the Prescott CCC camp buildings and even lives.

Paroling the boys was recommended by Dolph Phipps, state district fire warden, and Police Chief Clatous McCredie. The state was represented at the hearing by George W. Neilson, deputy district attorney.

Judge Coleman late yesterday afternoon continued the case of James H. Brinson, 14, for a week. The boy was accused of molesting six women during the past two weeks.

TRESPASS SNOOZE IN AUTO COSTLY
Hillsboro, Aug. 30.—(P)—The back seat of Mrs. Jack Moore's automobile attracted Koiger Kverndal, 39, Astoria, Wednesday night on a downtown Portland street so he crawled in and napped.

He woke up yesterday in the Moore garage at Beaverton and made such a racket trying to get out he was arrested for disturbing the peace and fined $5 by Justice A. W. Havens. Mrs. Moore said she drove home unaware of her snoozing passenger.

Flying Marine

You can't keep a two-fisted actor like Richard Dix out of a dare-devil role—and as a flying leatherneck who can always be found where the fighting is the thickest and the action the hottest, Dix fights with fists, guns and from the air in "The Marines Fly High", which stars Dix with Chester Morris and Lucille Ball at the Roxy theatre for today and Saturday only. "Outpost of the Mounties", starring Charles Starrett, plays as the companion thrill hit.

her late husband, Martin Johnson. The scene above with Osa Johnson filming ferocious lions with giraffes in the background is but one of the many thrills in the new and exciting film. The story is based upon the recent Book-of-the-Month Club selection by Osa Johnson, "Pier 13," heralded as the funniest laugh riot of the year and featuring Lloyd Nolan, Lynn Bari and Chick Chandler, will play as the companion feature with "I Married Adventure."

REGISTRATION OF ALIENS STARTED

Registration of aliens began here in the armory this morning but the pace was slow. Up to 2 p. m. only 10 had been registered.

Postmaster Frank DeSouza asked that aliens cooperate with the government and register in accordance with the geographical schedule published in the Mail Tribune yesterday. Registration office in the armory will be open daily, including Saturday, from 9 to 12 and 1 to 5. It will not be open Monday, Labor Day.

Under a federal law, all aliens must register. This is part of the nation's defense plan.

PGA TOURNEY IN ROUND OF FOUR

Hershey, Pa., Aug. 30.—(P)—Gene Sarazen's game went to pieces right at the finish today and Sam Snead defeated him, 1 up, in their 36-hole quarter-final match of the professional golfers association championship. Byron Nelson closed out Eddie Kirk of Farmington, Mich., 6 and 5, in their match, never having had any trouble, subduing the tournament dark horse. Ralph Guldahl reached the semi-finals by defeating Ben Hogan, 3 and 2, with a brilliant stretch of golf. Guldahl meets Nelson in one 36-hole semi-final tomorrow, while Snead plays Harold (Jug) McSpaden. McSpaden today administered an 8 to 6 shellacking to Paul Runyan, twice former P. G. A. champ.

HELP NEEDED TO BLOCKADE NAZIS

Portland, Aug. 30.—(P)—It will take more of a blockade than England can manage to defeat Germany, Christian Sparre, retired admiral of the Norwegian navy, said today.

"Italy perhaps cannot stand a tight blockade, but I think Great Britain will need aid to make a complete blockade of the axis powers."

Sparre, writer and historian, was vacationing in South America during the Norwegian invasion.
