ED SIMMONS HAS NARROW SQUEAK; HANEN ADVANCES

Sid Milligan's Loss Only Near-Upset — Quarter-Finals, Semi-Finals Today

Quarter-Finals Today
(Championship Flight)
9 a. m.—Bob Hammond, Medford, vs. Don Leal, Eugene.
9:05 a. m.—Dick Hanen, Marshfield, vs. Jack Creager, Medford.
9:10 a. m.—Eddie Simmons, Medford, vs. Leland Clark, Medford.
9:15 a. m.—Hubert Bentley, Ashland, vs. Ray Babb, Corvallis.

Old Man Upset was conspicuous by his absence yesterday as the battle for the championship of the annual Southern Oregon-Northern California Golf tournament narrowed down to a title flight list of eight shotmakers—the finest of 114 entrants of which 58 hail from outside Medford.

As the original championship flight field of 32 was chopped to the quarter-finals at the Rogue Valley club, the lone result resembling a form-reversal was the 3 and 2 victory scored by Don Leal of Eugene over Sid Milligan, also of Eugene, and former Pacific Coast Intercollegiate champion. All the other favorites came through their first two 18-hole rounds as expected.

While there were no startling upsets, Defending Champion Eddie Simmons of Medford escaped by the skin of his teeth in a sizzling first-round tiff with Marvin Clark of Grants Pass. Clark, white hot, fired a 72, two over par, at the four-time tournament winner, and Simmons was forced to the 20th green before being able to overcome his Climate City opponent.

Clement Beaten
Lucian Clement of Medford, who tied with Simmons for medalist honors with a 69, was eliminated in the first round by William Zimmerly of Corvallis, 1 up on the 19th.

The besten 16 of the original championship flight of 32 dropped down to compose the first flight. First round matches were played in all of the six flights.

Marshfield's brilliant Dick Hanen, 19 years old and one of the favorites, came through unscathed in his first two matches. He sent Jean Eberhart, S. O. C. E. athletic coach, out of title contention in the first round, 6 and 4, and hung up an 8 and 7 victory over Medford's Roy Pruitt in the second round.

Bob Hammond, one of Medford's "big three," ousted Fred Furchner of Grants Pass in the first round, 6 and 5, and completed his day's work with a 4 and 3 victory over William Zimmerly of Cottage Grove.

Don Leal, after brushing past Milligan in the opening round, kept up his winning ways by tipping over Medford's Keith Kittle in the second round, 3 and 2.

Creager Advances
Jack Creager of Medford won his first two matches to reach the quarter-finals, eliminating Jack Cooper of Portland, 2 and 1, and Ivan Harrington of Medford, 4 and 3.

Simmons, who, according to the Calcutta pool bidding, is the man best liked to win the tourney, had an easier time of it in the second round. He eliminated Elmer Hanegan of Klamath Falls, 3 and 2.

other flights, will be played this afternoon. At 1:30, the winners of the Hammond-Leal and Hanen-Creager tiff will begin. At 1:35, the winners of the Simmons-Clark and Bentley-Babb quarter-final match will start out.

Finals Monday
While the championship flights are battling it out for finalist positions for the 36-hole title match Monday starting at 9:35 a. m., all other flights will be narrowed to the finals today by quarter-final and semi-final matches. Finals in all flights will be played Monday.

Although most tournament observers were loathe to hazard a guess as to which pair would face off in the finals, several of the braver long-range prognosticators marked down the names of Dick Hanen and Eddie Simmons. However, they tempered their guesses by the time-honored reservation, "But, you know, anything can happen."

Regardless of the ultimate outcome of the meet, it was already the consensus that it was the finest in years and years, with the strongest field yet to compete.

Bogey Tied
In the blind bogey event staged yesterday, Dr. E. Jasper of Astoria and R. Norris tied for first place with 107's, the bogey number. They each received six golf balls. Ed Simmons and Lucian Clement tied for low net and low gross with 69's, dividing nine balls, and Ted Medford of Klamath Falls won high net prize of three balls.

RAIN BRINGS END TO PGA TOURNEY; RESUME MONDAY

Hershey, Pa., Aug. 31.—(AP)—After fooling around in a light-hearted sort of way all week, the rain finally cut loose in dead earnest today and washed the finals of the Professional Golfers association championship into Monday.

The two semi-final matches just had passed the 18 hole, with Sam Snead three up on Harold (Jug) McSpaden and Byron Nelson leading Ralph Guldahl one up, when the skies opened wide and the water poured out.

When, after an hour, the torrent still was coming down and the course was flooded beyond hope, President Tom Walsh of the P.G.A. sampled a green up to his ankles and called off the other half of the semi-finals. The two matches will continue on the second 18 tomorrow afternoon, with Snead and Nelson retaining the margins they won by brilliant golf today.

Each of them shot a 69, four under par for a 7,000 yard course, which was playing much longer than that because of the soggy fairways and mushy greens that coated their balls with mud.

Ten holes were won in the course of the two match rounds, and every one of them with a birdie. Par golf for a hole never won better than a half as the four sharpshooters tied into each other.

Snead virtually knocked the supports from under McSpaden with a 33 on the first nine of their match. That put him three up and a 36 on the way back enabled him to hold his advantage.

Guldahl and Nelson fought more closely and grimly. Guldahl only barely missed a putt on the 18th that would have hauled Nelson back to all square.

McSpaden, alone of the four, kicked mildly about calling off today's play. He figured that the heavy fairways cut some of the distance off Snead's great drives, so he wanted to get on with it even if they had to wear hip boots. It was the first postponement in 23 years of the P.G.A. event.

New Trotting Mark
Syracuse, N. Y., Aug. 31.—(AP)—A world's record went tumbling on the muddy track during the Getaway Day program of the Grand Circuit harness horse meeting today at Eton, owned by W. J. Rosemire of Lexington, Ky., trotted the second and final heat of the $1,500 Wright stake in 2:03.34.

Blythe, Medford, 3 and 2; Elmo Johnson, Corvallis, beat J. Baun, Redding, Cal., 6 and 4.
Fourth Flight
R. Norris, San Francisco, beat Bill Allen, Ashland, 3 and 2; W. E. Caldwell, Corvallis, beat Ed Havard, Grants Pass, 4 and 3; Max Pearce, Medford, beat Don Bagley, Medford, Medford, 4 and 3; Ted Denson, Cottage Grove, beat T. Ordeman, Corvallis, 5 and 3; N. D. Lucker, Yreka, Cal., beat W. Pruitt, Medford, 2 and 1; Ed Nichols, Medford, beat Bud Provost, Ashland, 4 and 3; J. F. Brady, San Francisco, beat D. Irwin, Ashland, 1 up on 19th; Bob Havard, Grants Pass, beat John Cupp, Medford, 6 and 5.

Fifth Flight
I. Irwin, Ashland, beat Dr. E. J. Jasper, Astoria, 5 and 4; Jack Wood, Medford, beat Russ Royer, Medford, 7 and 6; Jerry Jerome, Medford, beat Hance Cleland, Medford, 4 and 3; Dick Milestone, Jr., Medford, beat Byron Lewis, Yreka, Cal., 1 up; Frank Reinhart, Medford, beat Justin Smith, Medford, 2 and 1; Joe Hansen, Marshfield, beat D. Gardiner, Medford, 3 and 2; Fred Lennard, Medford, beat Bill Littrell, Medford, 3 and 1; H. A. Woods, Ashland, beat Orin Schenck, Medford, 3 and 4.

Sixth Flight
Emil Mohr, Medford, beat G. Raasmussen, Eugene, default; Don Provost, Jr., Ashland, beat G. A. Gibbons, Medford, 3 and 2; E. Jasper, Astoria, beat E. Hemmila, Medford, 5 and 4; Jerry Gastmeau, Ashland, beat H. Littrell, Medford, 2 up; Gene Thornstide, Medford, beat Doc Johnston, Medford, 3 and 2; Fred Scheffel, Medford, beat Don Field, Medford, 3 and 1; Bill Davidson, Medford, beat Ted Medford, Klamath Falls, 4 and 3; Earl Leever, Ashland, beat Jack Bierma, Medford, 6 and 5.

CLEVELAND RALLY BRINGS 5 TO 4 WIN OVER WHITE SOX

Chicago, Aug. 31.—(AP)—The Cleveland Indians, battling desperately to retain their league leading margin, defeated the Chicago White Sox, 5 to 4, today in 12 innings after being shut out for the first eight.

Chunky Ed Smith held the Indians to three hits and no runs until the ninth. Ken Keltner opened the rally with a grounder to Luke Appling, who booted the ball. Smith then walked Ray Mack and Rolfe Hemsley and Clint Brown took over the mound duties.

Mack singled in the 12th with one man out and stole second. Frankie Pytlak, who relieved Hemsley in the last of the ninth, drove home the winning run with a single to center.

Cleveland 5 7 2
Chicago 4 15 2
A. Smith, Eisenstat, Allen, and Hemsley, Pytlak; E. Smith, Brown and Tresh.

St. Louis, Aug. 31.—(AP)—The Detroit Tigers rightfully can call the Browns their "cousins"—they beat them so often.

With Tommy Bridges striking out 11 and yielding only six hits, the Tigers won today 6 to 1, for their 16th victory in 19 games with the Browns so far this season.

Detroit 6 13 0
St. Louis 1 6 1
Bridges and Tebbetts; Harris, Trotter and Swift.

New York, Aug. 31.—(AP)—The onrushing New York Yankees crowded the American league leaders a little closer today by trampling on the Washington Senators 7 to 1 for their fifth straight victory and 11th in 12 games.

Atley Donald, wild as a rabid bit, giving seven walks, nevertheless permitted the Senators only three hits and had no trouble acquiring his fifth triumph of the year.

He received grand help from his mates, who made ten hits off three Washington hurlers. They included Joe Gordon's 24th homer and Tom Henrich's ninth.

Washington 1 3 0
New York 7 10 0
Krakauskas, Haynes, Carrasquel and Ferrell; Donald and Rossar.

Philadelphia, Aug. 31.—(AP)—The Boston Red Sox landed on George Caster for four runs in the first inning and went on to a 10-6 victory today over Philadelphia despite a pair of homers by the Athletics' Bob Johnson.

PORTLAND LOSES 35 GAMES IN 40

Portland, Ore., Aug. 31.—(AP)—The cellar-place Portland Beavers dropped their 35th game in 40 starts today, losing to the Sacramento Senators, 10 to 2.

The win gave Sacramento a 4 to 1 lead in the Pacific Coast Baseball league series.

Sacramento batters found their range late in the game, and pushed over eight runs in the last four innings. Portland scored their only runs in the fourth.

Eddie Lake, Jim Griik and Chet Wiecek connected for home runs for Sacramento, all over the left field fence.

It was the 19th victory for pitcher Tony Freitas.

Score: R. H. E.
Sacramento 10 13 3
Portland 2 4 2
Freitas and Griik; Speece, Fallon and Adams.

Oakland, Cal., Aug. 31.—(AP)—A wild streak by pitcher Fay Thomas in the sixth inning gave Oakland a 5-3 victory over Los Angeles in a Coast league baseball game here today.

Cecil Dunn, Oakland first baseman, hit his 25th home run of the season in the fourth inning, to score a runner ahead.

Score: R. H. E.
Los Angeles 3 12 1
Oakland 5 10 2
Thomas, Fallon, and Holm; Cantwell, and W. Raimondi.

Score: R. H. E.
San Francisco 7 12 1
Hollywood 5 9 3
Dasso, Guay, Ballou and Sprinz; Gay, Osborne, Bittner and Brenzel.

Boston, Aug. 31.—(AP)—The Boston Bees outslugged the Philadelphia Phillies today to grab a 9-4 decision in the first of a three-game series.

Score: R. H. E.
Philadelphia 4 9 1
Boston 9 12 0
Beck, Frye, Manham, and Warren; Strincevich, Sullivan, and Berres.

LOMBARDI'S CLOUT GIVES REDS WIN; DODGERS TRIUMPH

Cincinnati, Aug. 31.—(AP)—Manager Gabby Hartnett of the Chicago Cubs had some well-planned strategy blow up in his face today as the Cincinnati Reds snatched a 5 to 4 victory out of the fire.

With the score tied at 4-all from a Cub uprising in the top of the ninth, he ordered Relief Pitcher Vance Page to walk Frank McCormick, fully expecting Ernie Lombardi, one of the leading producers of double play balls, to cooperate.

The big catcher instead took a Sunday cut. The ball went out on a line and Bill Werber, who had walked and been sacrificed to second, trotted in with the run the Reds needed.

The victory protected the Reds' 7½ game lead over the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Score: R. H. E.
Chicago 4 12 2
Cincinnati 5 11 3
Passeau, Page and Collins, Hartnett; Walters, Beggs and Lombardi.

Brooklyn, Aug. 31.—(AP)—Dodgers and New York Giants performed some weird rites in the guise of baseball today and Brooklyn emerged with a 7 to 6 victory that strengthened its grip on second place in the National league.

Score: R. H. E.
New York 6 13 0
Brooklyn 7 10 0
Hubbell, Lohrman, Brown, Joiner, Lynn, and Danning; Tamulis, Casey, Adeen, and Franks, Phelps.

San Francisco, Aug. 31.—(AP)—University of Washington will capture the Pacific Coast conference football race if it gets by Minnesota in the opening game of the season, G. A. "Tex" Oliver, University of Oregon coach, predicted today.

"The Trojans will be tough to beat," he added, "and it will be a dog fight between them and the Huskies. Oregon State, California, Stanford and U. C. L. A. are about on a par and should have a merry battle for third."

The Webfoots? Oliver didn't say. However, true to form, Oliver expressed apprehension over his first conference encounter with Stanford.

"I was so worried about that one I scheduled a game with the San Diego Marines on September 27 to give my new men more experience," he declared. He leaves for Eugene, Ore., tonight.

St. Louis at Pittsburgh, rain.

WHEAT MART LAGS ON NEW OFFERING

Chicago, Aug. 31.—(AP)—The wheat market continued under moderate pressure throughout the session today in view of reports that a fairly liberal amount of both wheat and rye would be tendered on the first delivery day. Around the close prices firmed slightly from the day's low levels.

Final wheat quotations was showed again of about ¼ cent for September over Friday's close.

The liquidation of the September contract, deliverable after the close today, and lessening of tension over the Balkan situation, were factors in the easiness of the market. There was also a further switching from September to the deferred positions at about a 2½ cent difference.

The commodity credit corporation reported that as of Aug. 27 there were 91,000,000 bushels of wheat under loan as compared with around 82,500,000 as of Aug. 23.

San Francisco, Aug. 31.—(AP)—University of Washington will capture the Pacific Coast conference football race if it gets by Minnesota in the opening game of the season, G. A. "Tex" Oliver, University of Oregon coach, predicted today.

"The Trojans will be tough to beat," he added, "and it will be a dog fight between them and the Huskies. Oregon State, California, Stanford and U. C. L. A. are about on a par and should have a merry battle for third."

WILLKIE VIEWED AS CURE FOR ALL NEW DEAL ERRORS

Twin Falls, Idaho, Aug. 31.—(AP)—Representative Halleck (R-Id.) said today that America can effectively cope with the danger of dictatorial incursions, of both foreign and domestic origin, only by replacing President Roosevelt with Wendell L. Willkie.

"Economic creeping paralysis" inflicted by the new deal, he said in a keynote address at the Idaho Republican platform convention here, has threatened to rob the nation of its courage and stamina and make it prey for actual invasion from abroad.

The Roosevelt administration, he continued, has done all within its power in recent years to foster the idea of "one-man government" and election of the president to a third term would surely serve to place the seal of finality on a totalitarian regime.

Halleck, who nominated Willkie for the presidency at the Republican national convention at Philadelphia in June, devoted a major portion of his address to a biting critique of the Roosevelt era, seeking to demonstrate that it had led directly along the route of centralized power.

A "rubber stamp" congress, he said, was the first manifestation of this trend. There followed efforts to increase the size of the United States supreme court, to remove democratic congressmen inimical to the new deal program, to reorganize the administrative functions of government and finally to achieve a third term, he added.

"We are told the present emergency demands a third term," Halleck remarked. "Does America propose to establish a royal dynasty of Roosevelts?"
