Mrs. Devaney Is Medford Visitor

Being welcomed today in Medford is Mrs. Frances Devaney of Portland who plans to return north by train this evening after spending a brief visit here at the Lydia apartment of Mrs. Mayno Coleman.

Mrs. Devaney formerly lived in Medford, prior to moving north, and has a large acquaintance of friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wilson left last evening to return to their home in Alameda, Cal., after spending a week visiting Mrs. Coleman and Mrs. Wilson's mother, Mrs. Grace Thorburn. They were accompanied south by James Hayes, who had spent three days visiting his parents, Dr. and Mrs. James C. Hayes and Farwell Kenly, who had spent several days at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Corning Kenly.

Mr. Hayes and Mr. Kenly reside in San Francisco.

Methodist Ladies Aid Changes Name

The meeting of the Ladies Aid of the Methodist church in the Sunshine parlors last week marked the "finale" of the society in name. The society has been in existence since the early days of the church's history when the old edifice on North Bartlett street was the church home.

With the uniting of the church, north and south, under the new "regime", the ladies aid will function hereafter under a new name to be known as "The Woman's Division of Christian Service".

The regular business session was conducted by Mrs. I. N. McColum who occupied the chair in the absence of Mrs. Grace Tucker. Devotional period was led by Mrs. W. J. Wiley. The Priscilla circle as hostesses presented a playlet of amusing character.

The accordion quartette under the leadership of Mrs. Harry Prentice, contributed several enjoyable numbers, the participants being, Dorothy Schuler, Mary Moulton, Margaret Moulton and Marilee Thorsen.

The meeting closed with the reading of an appropriate poem written by Miss Gladys Bond. Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Butlers Leave For Albany

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Butler and two children, Thomas and Dennis, returned to their home in Albany yesterday.

Mrs. Butler and the children had been visiting here a week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Parrett, on North Orange street and Mr. Butler joined his family here for the week-end.

Miss Brewer to Attend College

Cummons Home Is Scene Of Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Cummons in Eagle Point was the scene of a recent surprise farewell party for Miss Miriam Cummons who plans to leave in the near future for Los Angeles, Cal., to attend college.

Guests enjoying the pleasant affair were Alice Moore, Ethel Mae Johnson, Grace Moore, Mildred Westcott, Juanita Moore, Ellen Sullivan, Gene Dunnigan, Melvin Johnson, John Sullivan, Jimmy Johnson, David Robertson, Delton Johnson, Homer Sullivan, Lloyd Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Cummons, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Robertson, Mrs. Jim Trudell, Mrs. Agnes Moffitt, Mrs. Vale Johnson, Mrs. Marjorie Moore and Mrs. Mary Brouse.

Lovely gifts were presented the honoree during the evening, after which games and refreshments were enjoyed.

Whites Depart For Portland

Mrs. Mina White and two daughters, the Misses Gwen and Marian, left last week by train for Portland to make their home. The Whites have been long time residents of the Phoenix district and their many friends regret their departure to the northern city. Mrs. White has been a capable member of the Phoenix Presbyterian church for many years. A group of her church friends gathered at the train depot and presented her with a gift of friendship.

Both of her daughters will attend high school in Portland. Miss Gwen spent last year attending school there and taking voice instruction. She is regarded by musical critics as having an excellent tenor voice and it is anticipated by teachers that a successful singing career is inevitable.

Mrs. White had lived in Phoenix for about thirty years.

Getchells Have House Guests

Mrs. Frank Swift Bourns of Seattle and Mrs. William John Lewis of Berkeley, Cal., have been the house guests of Mrs. Delroy Getchell the past week. Other house guests who recently enjoyed the Getchells' hospitality were Miss Marcia MacFarland of Hillsborough Park, Cal., and Mrs. James Madill and Miss Marjorie Madill of Yakima, Wash.

Mrs. Swan Visits Relatives Here

Mrs. James Swan of Topeka, Kas., arrived in Medford last week to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Leclerc and her sister, Miss Ruth Leclerc, at their home on West Second street.

This marks the eleventh consecutive year that Mrs. Swan has come to Medford from Topeka to visit. She plans to remain here for three weeks.

Two Visit Friends In Coast Town

Miss Dorothy Rogers and Mrs. Roger Headlee spent the week-end in Crescent City, Cal., visiting friends.

Trio Visits At Hayes Residence

Miss Mary Hayes, accompanied by the Misses Jane Kindall and Eve Davis, arrived here Sunday morning by motorcar from Aberdeen, Wash., to visit the former's parents, Dr. and Mrs. James C. Hayes, at their home on East Main street.

Miss Kindall left today for her home in Tacoma by plane. Miss Hayes and Miss Davis will visit here until September 13 at which time they leave by train for St. Louis, Mo., to enter University of Washington.

At the university Miss Hayes will specialize in medical social work and Miss Davis will enroll in the graduate school of social work. Both have been Washington state welfare workers for the past several years.

Reynolds-Conley Marriage Told

Miss Wanda Reynolds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Reynolds and Melvin Conley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Conley of Ashland, were united in marriage in Dunsmuir, Cal., August 21, it was announced in this city today.

The bride wore a powder blue afternoon dress with black accessories. The ceremony took place at the home of Hugh Clark. Doris McGee and Iris Ford attended the couple.

The couple, both graduates of the Ashland high school, will make their home in Dunsmuir, where Mr. Conley is employed with the Southern Pacific railroad company.

Davidson Home Scene Of Party

Mr. and Mrs. William P. Davidson were hosts for an informal gathering at their home on Ashland avenue late Sunday afternoon.

Among the twelve guests dropping in were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Medford and Mr. and Mrs. S. Slater of Klamath Falls, who had been here for the week-end attending the southern Oregon golf tournament at Rogue Valley golf club.

What the Girl Scouts Are Doing

With camping season successfully over and school schedules near, each Girl Scout troop is urged to have a meeting the week before school opens.

This first meeting will be a rallying of members, committees and leaders, and will probably be held at the home of the leader or at Scout headquarters. Either the Scouts or the leaders should arrange for this first meeting.

The regular meeting for all Girl Scout leaders of all age girls is scheduled for Monday, September 9 at 1:30—Scout office. Plans will be made for training sessions for all leaders. New ideas, plans and material will be given to leaders to assist in this year's program for all troops under this council.

In a few instances where leaders are moving, working or assuming other civic activities, the former leaders or committee members are urged to gather members of their troop to make plans for meeting time and place and get the troop organized as early as possible.

Brownie troop 26, from the Jackson school district had their first fall meeting at the children's playground Thursday.

Group Leaves For Convention

Leaving this morning by motorcar for Seaside were Captain and Mrs. O. L. Overmyer to attend the state convention of the American Legion.

The Overmyers were accompanied north by Mesdames Thomas Freed, Charles Kuntz and Thomas K. Flynn. The group planned to visit in Portland today.

Miss Newbury Has Birthday

Mrs. Don R. Newbury entertained for her daughter, Miss Nancy Jean, Saturday afternoon at her home on Eastwood drive.

The affair observed the eleventh birthday of Miss Newbury and eleven guests were bidden to the outdoor picnic luncheon, games and treasure hunt which followed.

SCHOOLS TO OPEN AT CENTRAL POINT ON SEPTEMBER 9

Sixteen Teachers On Staff for Year — New Gymnasium Ready by Nov. 1

Central Point, Sept. 3.—(Sp)—Central Point schools will open September 9. Heading the staff of 16 teachers will be Supt. H. P. Jewett. High school instructors are Ethel Fleischer, Charlotte Eyre, Iren Beamer, Martha Boshears, K. A. Hulbert and James Harrison. In the elementary schools will be R. H. Gande, principal, Robt. Webb, Leah Eta Evans, Ruth Foster, Helen Wilson, Ruth Ottoman, Mabel Dodson, and Mae Richardson. Music will be directed by Harry Meyers.

Plans for the year as announced by Superintendent Jewett, include an enlarged physical education program, increased emphasis on Americanism, and special attention to individual differences.

Completion of the new gymnasium has been promised for the first of November. With the completion of this building and further development of the athletic field as planned, Central Point will have an excellent school plant consisting of four buildings and about 10 acres of playground space. While a slight increase in enrollment is expected, none of the grade school or high school classes will be overcrowded. This will permit a high degree of efficiency in instruction and attention to individuals needs.

All elementary texts are furnished by the district. All high school texts are owned by the school and furnished to high students at a small rental fee. Central Point high school was the first in the county to organize a rental system and has had it in operation for six years with considerable success.

NORTON TO HOLD COURT IN G. PASS

Circuit Judge H. D. Norton will hold court in Grants Pass next week and expects to set several cases here for trial the following week. All are civil cases as the criminal docket is practically clear.

No decision in the case of the state fish commission against the Beaver Portland Cement company, in which an injunction is sought against the recently constructed wing dam in Rogue River, is expected until September 15. Both sides have briefs to file.

The cement company, as a result of the litigation, has suspended work on the proposed power house until the case is settled.

MARY GONDERMAN OF C. P. SUCCUMBS

Mary Alice Gonderman, 68, a resident of Central Point for the last 4 years and the state for 16 years, passed away early Monday morning at a Central Point private nursing home following a prolonged illness.

Mary Alice Swanger was united in marriage to Thamer S. Gonderman at Warsaw, Ind., in 1893. To this union three children were born, two daughters and one son, all of whom survive. Mrs. Mable Smith of Butte Falls, Ore., Mrs. Margaret Pollock, of Shelby, Mont., and Thamer Ray Gonderman of Klamath Falls. Also seven grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Mrs. Gonderman was a member of the Central Point Relief Corps and The Church of Christ. The funeral service will take place from the chapel of the Perl Funeral Home, Thursday at 1 p.m.

TOMATO HARVEST APPROACHES PEAK

Harvesting of the Rogue river valley tomato crop is approaching the peak and the first of this season's pack of the Bagley Canning company of Ashland, is now on local grocery store shelves. W. A. Gates, one of the cannery directors reports.

The shower of last night, accompanied in some sections by a lively wind, will not hamper picking of either tomatoes or D'Anjou pears. County Agent Robert G. Fowler said. He added the wind blew off some pears, but not enough to cause any loss.

Packers reported D'Anjou picking would be over by the end of the week, and that harvesting of Boses would be underway next week.

HUMPHREY SHOWS NEW PLYMOUTH IN LARGE QUARTERS

The 1941 Plymouth, with 19 important advancements, is on display today at Humphrey Motors, local Plymouth and DeSoto dealer.

Powermatic shifting, which reduces shifting effort, is one of the features of the 1941 models available in eleven smart new colors, new two-tone color combinations and new two-tone upholstery.

Plymouths for 1941 are also equipped with new safety rims on wheels which prevent throwing of tires in case of blowouts or punctures and the lock for the new one-piece hood is controlled from the driver's seat.

The 1941 Plymouths will be available in fifteen models. Humphrey Motors have completed an extensive enlarging program, which will give them plenty of space for the proper showing of new Plymouths and DeSotos, according to announcement today by Frank Humphrey. Florescent tubing has been installed in the new paint shop, giving daylight lighting for difficult color matching requirements. There is also a new car storage building and a new wash rack. The driveway to the shop has been widened for easy entrance.

The used car lot has been moved from the south side to the north side of the Humphrey building where a much larger space makes it possible to display all used cars.

Humphrey Motors is now equipped to offer complete automotive service, according to Bill Stirling, assistant manager.
