Mrs. Walker Heads New Organization

Mrs. W. W. Walker was elected president of the recently organized Women's Society of the Methodist church yesterday afternoon at the first regular meeting during which time charter enrollment was made.

Other officers elected were: Treasurer, Mrs. Arthur Short; recording secretary, Mrs. Ray T. Harrison; secretary missionary education, Mrs. Ralph Woodford; secretary Christian social relations, Mrs. Eva Low.

Mrs. Clarence Meeker played piano music while those attending signed for charter membership. The Rev. Joseph Knotts gave a prayer. Mrs. F. F. Burk headed the nominating committee.

It was announced that meetings will be held the fourth Tuesday of each month and one meeting of the executive committee will be held each month. There were 86 charter members signing yesterday. All officers were elected unanimously.

Former Resident Visits Parents

Mrs. William Doyle and small daughter, Bonny June, arrived in Medford this week to spend the remainder of the summer and early fall. The two, who came from Los Angeles by plane, are visiting Mrs. Doyle's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hooker and her sister, Mrs. Lewis Clark.

Mrs. Doyle is the former June Hooker. She was a resident of Medford for several years and is a graduate of Medford high school class of 1935.

Early in November she will be joined here by Mr. Doyle and the three will return via the coast route to southern California. Mrs. Doyle is foreman of the Lockheed government experimental station at Burbank.

Mrs. Carter Home From California

Mrs. George Carter returned to her home here recently from Berkeley, where she spent the summer attending University of California.

While in Berkeley, Mrs. Carter was the guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carter.

Miss Tumy Visits In San Francisco

Miss Deborah Tumy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Tumy, left yesterday for San Francisco, to visit Miss Audrey Brugger, daughter of Captain and Mrs. E. J. Brugger at Fort Mason. The Bruggers left here last Thursday for the fort, the captain having been called to active army duty. They formerly lived here for several years.

Miss Tumy drove south with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clay, Jr., who had been visiting the Charles Clays and the A. H. Millers, their respective parents.

Miss Tumy plans to return home in a week and will be accompanied by Miss Brugger who will visit here until she resumes her college studies at University of Oregon in Eugene. The two girls are sorority sisters. Miss Tumy will also attend the university again this year.

Miss Betty St. Louis and Mrs. Paul Dalton were joint hostesses at a miscellaneous bridal shower for Miss June Wilkinson recently at the home of her mother, Mrs. T. A. Burnfield.

Guests included Mrs. Paul Godward and daughter, Darland, Mrs. Roy Smith, Miss H. Hurst, Mrs. Frank Shaw, Mrs. A. H. Moore and son, Garry, Mrs. Fred Wolff and son, Oni, Mrs. C. O. Dewey, Mrs. Jack Crumby, Mrs. H. H. Hoyt, Mrs. Tom Dunnington, Mrs. Andy Eilers, Mrs. Fred Hackert, Mrs. Otto Heckert, Miss Ida Bowman and Mrs. Frank Hammond.

The honoree received many lovely gifts at the party. She will wed LaMonte Dewey of San Diego, Cal., on September 14.

Dinner Meet for B.P.W. Thursday

Business and Professional Women's club will hold a regular dinner meeting Thursday evening at Hotel Holland at 6:30 o'clock.

Maude Snider is chairman. She will be assisted by Helen Parish and Mary Porter. Each member is urged to attend and to bring a prospective member. Members are asked to call 2168 during the day or 3592 in the evenings for reservations. Any woman interested in the organization is invited to attend the affair.

Local Couple Attend Fair

Mrs. C. C. Furnas had an unexpected thrill yesterday when her niece, Mrs. W. R. Uhrine, talked to her by phone from the Golden Gate International Exposition.

Mrs. Uhrine and her husband are enjoying a vacation in the bay city attending the fair and visiting his relatives. She drew a lucky number at the telephone exhibit and her talk to her aunt followed.

From San Francisco, the Medford couple will travel to San Gabriel to visit other relatives.

Texas Residents Leave for Home

Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Frink of Corrigan, Texas, who were accompanied by Mrs. M. Atkinson, left for their home Tuesday after a four-day visit with Dr. Frank's brother, L. G. Frink, and family, in Talent. The visitors are en route home after an extensive journey through national parks.

Mrs. Florence Frink, mother of the two men, accompanied the visitors here from her home in Tacoma, Wash., to spend a month visiting the Talent Frinks.

Sellers Hosts To Californians

Out-of-town guests at the J. R. Seiler home over the Labor Day holiday were Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Daniel of Anderson, Cal., old time friends of the Seilers.

Another visitor was Harlin Seiler, the couple's son. He is employed in the ship yards at Vallejo, Cal., and is enrolled as a student in the blueprint department.
