Billy Hulén Says:

Lack of Veteran Linemen Worries Caveman Mentor

If Medford Grid Coach Bill Bowerman wants company in the crying room he can have it in the person of Mentor Loren Tuttle of Grants Pass. For it appears that both these Southern Oregon conference football tutors are plagued by the same problem—the rebuilding of a forward wall almost totally demolished by graduation.

Tuttle's task, on paper, looks slightly easier than Bowerman's, who is faced with the sad fact that all seven of his 1939 starters are no longer among those present. Nevertheless, the Caveman coach's job is tough enough to make him eligible for any tear chamber.

Of the 16 squadmen who were graduated at Grants Pass last spring, 10 of them were members of the first line of defense. Among them were Royal Mooers, all-conference end, and Leland Clark, first string wingman; Bob Smith and Dick Espey, tackles; Les Anderson, Roy Davison and Roy Stout, guards, and Ed Young and Dan Stinebaugh, centers.

Although it is a pretty black situation, Tuttle can see a slight ray of hope in the following linemen who will be available: Don Moyer, who was a first string end for Medford's Black Tornado last year and later transferred to Grants Pass; 200-pound Chub Clark and Russell Bigelow, guards; Aggie Martin, flankman, and Duke Badley, tackle.

While the Caveman backfield loss also is considerable, with Halbacks Jim Pierce, Don Newman, Don Hill and Al Nelson, and Fullbacks Bud Pruess and Jim Mitchell the recipients of diplomas last spring, Coach Tuttle expects to send a fairly capable quartet of offensive gems onto the field.

Bill Davis, a two-year regular, will be the number one fullback, and many expect him to develop into the loop's best line smasher. Bernard Clayton will return for more halfbacking and Curly Bormuth is slated for the quarterback berth. This trio has versatility and may prove bad news for the opposition.

Whether the Cavemen will develop enough strength to compete on an equal basis with Klamath Falls and Medford, the conference's two large schools, remains to be seen. But it is a cinch Tuttle will have an aggregation capable of requiring no quarter from Ashland, fourth loop member, and from the non-league elevens scheduled.

Last season Grants Pass won five of eight contests, losing to Medford, 38 to 0; Klamath Falls, 12 to 7, and Dunsmuir, Cal., 20 to 12. The Cavemen have eight tilts slated for this year, with the opener coming on September 14 against Dunsmuir, away from home.

Following that game, the Climate City lads will face this string: North Bend at Grants Pass, September 20; Ashland at Grants Pass, September 27; Medford at Medford, October 4; Marshfield at Marshfield, October 12; Klamath Falls at Klamath Falls, October 25; Roseburg at Grants Pass, November 8, and Ashland at Ashland, November 28. Open dates are October 18 and November 1, 15 and 22, and two of them may be filled by opponents named later.

Shortly we will take up the Klamath Falls and Ashland grid situations, where it is rumored that Arthur (Snowy) Gustafson and Leighton Blake, respectively, are also about ready to apply for admittance to the crying room. Might as well get all these coaches together and let them weep on each other's shoulders.

MONTANA STATE LOSES TO GRIDMEN TO GUARDS

Bozeman, Mont., Sept. 5.—(AP)—Ten Montana State college football players will be called out with local units of the Montana national guard next Monday.

The guardsmen, representing about a fourth of the players Coach Schubert Dyché expected to have on his squad this autumn, includes Joe Wilfox of Stevensville, Mont., triple-threat back of last year's freshman team.

"We'll still have a fair team, but not the outstanding outfit we had anticipated," Dyché conceded.

'Star-Less' All-Stars Trim New York Pro Giants, 16-7

CARNEGIE PASSER PACES COLLEGIANS IN UPSET VICTORY

Condit Scores 9 Points, 6 On 92-Yard Run—Giants Tally in Fourth Period

By Sid Feder

New York, Sept. 5.—(AP)—From the surprise package the eastern allstars unloaded on the New York professional Giants' proud, unbeaten exhibition record, the chief "hangover" left today was that press clippings mean as much in football performance as the style of a player's haircut.

For the eastern All-Stars presented a "star-less" squad of gridmen before a crowd of 39,405 at the Polo Grounds last night and they wound up with an impressive 16 to 7 victory over the Giants, who never had been whipped before in eight tussles with all-star squads from coast to coast.

First Loss

Champions of the eastern division of the National league, the Giants were 1 to 3 favorites to take their fifth straight in this series with the Eastern All-Stars for the New York Herald Tribune's fresh air fund.

Sparked by Merlyn Condit, a southpaw passer from Carnegie Tech who never came closer to an All-America team than seeing it in the movies, the Stars scored one touchdown in the second period, a field goal in the third and another six-pointer in the fourth to roll up their total. Condit produced nine points, six on a 92-yard run.

The Giants punched their touchdown over on a one-yard slice by Walt Neilson, one-time Arizona back, early in the fourth period after a 65-yard drive that was featured by the passing of little Eddie Miller, 165-pounder who came up from New Mexico State a year ago.

ATHERTON PLACES BLAME ON ALUMNI

Portland, Ore., Sept. 5.—(AP)—Edwin G. Atherton, the former FBI agent employed as athletic commissioner of the Pacific Coast Intercollegiate conference, said yesterday if anti-recruiting rules were violated in the northwest the names of the affected players would be made known.

He recently forbade several Californians to play at certain California universities, deciding that they had been recruited in a manner forbidden by the rules.

The schools, he said, attempted to live up to the rules but "a few overzealous alumni" overstepped the bounds.

Atherton is in the northwest to confer with gridiron officials preliminary to early games.

Death Takes Over in Automobile Race

This remarkable action photo shows how Lou Webb, Los Angeles auto racer, met death on the New York state fairgrounds track at Syracuse. Webb's car is seen hurtling over the machine driven by Kelly Pettilo, as a third racer, Paul Russo, speeds onward, intent on the race. Webb's car turned end-over-end three times after this photo was taken, and then broke to pieces in front of horrified spectators in the grandstand.

GOLD STAR FROM CONNIE—"How to Catch in the Big League" might be the title of this action shot of Frank Hayes, catcher with the Philadelphia Athletics. He's regarded by Connie Mack and other baseball experts as almost the best catcher in either major league, and was busy in a White Sox-A's game at the time. His home is in Freehold, N. J.

TIGERS TEE OFF ON BOBBY FELLER TO CONFUSE RACE

By Associated Press

The Detroit Tigers, creaking with old age at nearly every joint, have turned the American league pennant scramble inside out again.

They crushed the Cleveland Indians, 7-2, yesterday with almost unbelievable ferocity while the Washington Senators pounced upon the New York Yankees, 6-3. Between the two upheavals the whole championship outlook was covered with confusion.

Detroit made 11 hits, including three home runs, off Bob Feller in seven innings and had the youngster so befuddled he literally didn't know which way to turn. Bartell stole second once while the Iowa speedster was going through his complicated windup, and Bob couldn't get settled down enough to throw to first when Campbell hit a bounder at him.

Gehring batted in four of Detroit's runs with a homer and a double, and Hank Greenberg and Campbell also hit circuit drives.

The victory lifted the Tigers back into second place, three games back of the tribe.

The Yankees were victims of Lefty Joe Krackauskas, who hadn't won a game all season until yesterday.

The Boston Red Sox hovered close to pennant contenders by sweeping two extra-inning games from the Philadelphia Athletics, 6-5 and 5-4.

The St. Louis Browns continued to make trouble by whipping the Chicago White Sox, 4-1. In the National league, the champion Cincinnati Reds copied their 33rd one-run victory with a 3-2, 12-inning verdict over the Pittsburgh Pirates in a night game.

The Brooklyn Dodgers and the St. Louis Cardinals maintained their margins behind the leaders by winning night encounters. Luke Hamlin pitched the Dodgers to a 3-0 shutout over the last-place Phillies. Max Lanier performed the mound chore for the Cardinals, holding the Chicago Cubs scoreless for seven innings, but getting help from Clyde Shoun in the ninth before winning, 4-2.

Russell Stultz was appointed official hat finder. He not only found the hat described, but sent along another unclaimed headpiece as a spare.

Lot of Birds.
Goldsboro, N. C.—(AP)—When residents tired of disturbances created by thousands of martins they appealed to the fire department. The firemen made two successive raids on the birds with high pressure hose. The martins not only held their own, but counter-attacked. Two squads of martins camped on the hook and ladder truck in the fire station. When a third squad appeared the firemen appealed for "heavier guns."

ERNIE PILUSO TO BATTLE NAZARIAN AT OWN REQUEST

It was at Piluso's own request that the popular Klamath Falls grappler was reclaimed with Mean Mike Nazarian, the big, tough Armenian, for next Monday night's main event in the armory. Promoter Mack Lillard said today.

"Piluso demanded a no other shot at Nazarian, and as Mike was willing to take him on again the match was arranged," Lillard explained. "Piluso feels that Nazarian's victory a couple of weeks ago was something of a fluke and is certain that he can whip the Armenian if they meet again. So they are going to do it and we'll see what we'll see."

Nazarian has won five straight matches in the local armory and has yet to taste defeat. Lillard said he had several newcomers slated for early appearances here, the first of which is Whitey Wahlberg, a Minneapolis Swede and highly popular everywhere he shows. Wahlberg will meet Jack Hagen in the middle event on next Monday's program.

Steve Nenoff, who collides with George Wagner in the opening event, will be remembered here as Tiger Taskoff, a vicious Bulgarian weighing about 200. Taskoff is Nenoff's middle name.

Young Californian Tabbed Contender for Riggs Crown

By Bill White.

New York, Sept. 5.—(AP)—In casting around for someone who could dethrone Bobby Riggs from his national singles tennis throne, the experts recently voted Don McNeill of Oklahoma City and Frank Kovacs of Oakland the most likely to succeed.

Now the select twosome is a trio. Standing directly in the way of everyone with championship ambitions is a 19-year-old youngster with a "crew" haircut and a will to win—Jack Kramer of Belvedere Gardens, Cal.

Kramer's fine all-court game is not exactly new, but the confidence he gained last week in winning the national doubles with Ted Schroeder is brand new. He already has swept aside Gil Hunt of Washington, D. C., who can, on a given day, be the best tennis player in the country; Eddie Alloo, another tough foeman, and Sidney B. Wood, former Wimbledon champion.

The manner in which he played yesterday in stopping Wood had the experts digging up new adjectives.

He faces a tough test today in big Hank Prusoff, the Seattle giant.

While Kramer was busy impressing students of the game, Kovacs was entertaining the gallery. Refusing to take anything seriously, the Oakland ace caused an exodus from the stadium to a sideline court to watch his erratic play.

Frank finally won, after bewildering E. Victor Seixas of Philadelphia and providing the day's brightest spot in a sched-
