On Business—Loren Austin, resident of Ashland, was a Medford caller today.

Holmes Here—George Holmes, postmaster at Eagle Point, transacted business here today.

Medford Caller—Edward Strong of Grants Pass transacted business in Medford this morning.

Densons Here—Mr. and Mrs. Pete Denson arrived in Medford this noon to spend several days visiting at the Hotel Medford.

Staff Member—Bernard A. Johnson, commander of Camp Orleans, Cal., has been transferred to staff duty at Medford CCC district headquarters.

Minor Accident—Clifford Klein of Murphy and Joseph A. Skeeters of Ashland drove cars involved in an accident on the Pacific highway three miles north of Ashland Thursday morning, according to a report on file here today.

Building Permit—J. L. Cook of 1205 East Main street, applied at the city building inspector's office yesterday for a permit to demolish a barn and build a garage at a stated cost of $50.

Flue Fire—No damage was done by a flue fire at 12:57 this afternoon in the residence of Clarence Hunt, 1297 Sunset avenue. The fire department's chemical crew stood by while the chimney soot burned itself out.

Posts Bail—Ward B. White, 36, posted $5 bail yesterday and will appear in city court Saturday morning on a charge of drunkenness. White, city police stated, was arrested in a local rooming house after setting his bed on fire with a cigarette.

From Seattle—Mr. and Mrs. Lew Gray of Seattle are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gay, 523 North Riverside avenue. The visitors arrived by motorcar last evening and planned to remain over the week-end. Lew and Charles Gay are brothers.

Grass Fire—The fire department's chemical crew was called at 10:52 a. m. today to put out a grass fire behind the residence of Frank Wainwright, 613 East Eighth street. The grass was ignited by hot ashes dumped in the yard, firemen reported. No damage was done.

To Live Here—Mrs. Chris Schemp and daughter arrived in Medford this morning from Modesto, Cal., to join Mr. Schemp and the Schemp's other daughter in making their home here in the near future. Mr. Schemp recently purchased the Huber Packing company here. The family is staying at the Hotel Holland.

To Fly Planes—Word has been received here that Denton Clark and Silas King, former Medford residents now connected with the Webb-Kline air service at Boise, Idaho, have left for Lock Haven, Pa., to fly two planes back to the Art Whitaker flying service in Portland. They expected to be gone about 10 days.

Meeting Tonight—Townsend club No. 2 will meet at 8:00 tonight in Townsend hall, 123 1/2 West Main street. An address designed to be of interest to all members will be given by the president. A special program of electrical transcriptions will highlight the entertainment. A collation will be served in the dining room after the meeting.

Arrives Here—Miss Starla Parvin arrived in Medford yesterday from Klamath Falls to assume the position of English teacher at the Medford high school Monday. Miss Parvin has been teaching in the Redmond high school. She will replace Mrs. Glenna Mae Early, resigned English teacher who has moved from the city. Miss Parvin is residing in the Hotel Holland.

Complete Visit—Harold and Joe Wagstaff of San Francisco plan to return home by motorcar tomorrow after visiting here with their friend, Melton H. Cotton, 1260 Sunset avenue. The brothers spent some time fishing on the Klamath river and caught a 15-pound salmon which they sent home packed in ice. Both said they liked southern Oregon immensely. Mr. Cotton also resides in San Francisco but he has been here for some time on mining operations.

MRS. CULBERTSON FIRST TO RECEIVE FLYING LICENSE

Mrs. Thomas A. Culbertson, Jr., (nee Florence Scherrer) today held the distinction of being the first Medford girl to procure a private pilot's certificate through a course of study carried out entirely at the local airport. After months of studious work, Mrs. Culbertson took and passed her written and flight examinations yesterday and was certified by Rupert Herr, civil aeronautics authority inspector. Mrs. Culbertson's husband is superintendent of the airport and flight instructor in the government's civilian pilot training program which is being carried on here through the Southern Oregon College of Education. Mrs. Culbertson was a private student and not enrolled in the college class.

Additional members of the college class passed their flight examinations yesterday, making a total of 13 out of the class of 29 to pass thus far. Those passing the flight tests are to take their written examinations in the near future and the remaining 16 are to take their flight examinations soon.

The government students who have passed their flight tests are Robert E. Young, Rupert James Henry and Ray K. Wolfe, Medford; Martin Luther, 3rd, Talent; Kathryn J. Bergstrom, Marlyn O. Christlieb, Bruce E. DeMers, James Hal McNair, William B. Westfall, Joseph F. King and Elmer V. Ayres, Ashland; Lester Toler, Grants Pass, and Stewart W. Groesbeck, Klamath Falls.

Max Guiley, ground instructor at the college, passed an examination for a 2-S rating which permits him to pilot planes of the Fairchild class.

BERTHA ALLEN, 73, EX-RESIDENT, DIES

Bertha Allen, 73, a resident of Medford all her life until moving to Bakersfield, Calif., 20 years ago, passed away there Tuesday afternoon.

Besides her husband, she leaves one brother, Ernest Langley of Jacksonville. The remains are being accompanied to Medford by her husband and a brief service will be conducted at the grave in the Medford I.O.O.F. cemetery by Dr. Sherman L. Divine at 11:30 a. m. Saturday. Conger Funeral Parlors in charge.

CHECK PETITIONS FOR NEW PARTY

The county clerks' office is checking the names on petitions circulated in Jackson county, proposing formation of a new political party in Oregon to be known as the "socialist-labor party." The question will be voted on at the November election if a sufficient number of names are procured. The petitions have been circulated here for about a month.

"Argentine Nights" Premier Here

The world premiere showing of one of the brightest musical comedies to come out of Hollywood's loveliest lovelies. With nine snappy new tunes, one laugh situation and gag line following another, "Argentine Nights" is one of those pictures called "sleepers" in the film business—a picture chock-full of entertainment but not getting much attention until its final showing, and then everybody wants to see it.

Rialto Stars

A modern version of Horace Greeley's "Go West, young man, go West" brings John Wayne and Sigrid Gurie to the Rialto theatre Sunday in "Three Faces West," a story of refugees from the dust bowl on their trek to the Pacific coast—and Oregon. It might be termed a 1940 adaptation of the Old Oregon Trail—this adventure-spiced drama of a young American and two immigrants, refugees from the bitter strife of war-torn Europe, who join forces on their trek to Oregon in search of happiness. Charles Coburn is the third member of the trio. "The Mummy's Hand," a "spook-thriller" featuring Dick Foran, Peggy Moran and Eduardo Cianelli, will be the companion feature.

Roxy Comedy

The two biggest mouths in captivity—those of Martha Raye and Joe E. Brown—bring some of the most hilarious brand of football nonsense ever attempted to the screen of the Roxy theatre for tonight and tomorrow, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, "The Man From Montreal," a Northwest Mounted Police story with Richard Arlen and Andy Devine, is the companion feature.

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN to all concerned, that Bessie C. Anderson, Administratrix of the Estate of Martha J. Rosmer, Deceased, has filed in the County Court of Jackson County, State of Oregon, her Final Account in the administration of said Estate, and said Court has set Wednesday, the 9th day of October, 1940, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon of said day, in the County Court Room of the Courthouse in Medford, Jackson County, Oregon, as the time and place for the hearing on said Final Account and on objections thereto.
