Kurtz Studio Is Scene of Meeting

The studio of Effie Kurtz, 204 North Ivy street, was the scene of the September meeting of the Women's Missionary society of the First Christian church Wednesday. During the business session, conducted by the president, Mrs. A. H. Gregory, the group voted to participate in the State Women's Missionary project of China relief.

Plans for the annual Rummage Sale, to be held October 10, 11 and 12 were discussed. Mrs. C. M. Hon and her group presented an interesting program dealing with shifting populations in the United States. Papers were given by Mrs. Richard Klemm, Mrs. P. C. Latham, and Mrs. T. D. Hinkle. Devotionals were brought by Mrs. R. W. Coleman. Effie Kurtz sang and a reading by Mrs. A. H. Walker completed the program. A social hour followed during which refreshments were served by Mrs. Latham and Mrs. Hugh Scovell assisted by members of their group.

Gibbons Host to House Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Colbourn of Oakland, Cal., arrived in Medford yesterday to spend a week as the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn A. Gibbons at their home on Medford Heights. They will also visit Mr. and Mrs. Robert Colbourn at their home on Maple street during their stay in the valley. Mr. Frank Colbourn is the father of Mrs. Gibbons and Mr. Colbourn. Today the visitors enjoyed a trip to Oregon Caves National monument and will travel to Crater Lake National park and other scenic places during the week.

Mr. Colbourn is city clerk in Oakland.

Miss Osgood to Depart Sunday

Miss Jane Osgood of Minneapolis plans to leave here Sunday by plane for her home. She has spent the past several weeks visiting her grandparents, the Rev. and Mrs. William B. Hamilton in Yreka, Cal. In this city she has been the house guest of her aunt, Mrs. William B. Hamilton, Jr., and her cousin, Miss Jeanne Hamilton.

Miss Osgood lived in this city with her parents some time ago, prior to moving to Minneapolis.

Miss Luy Home From Bay City

Miss Ruth Luy returned to her home here this week from San Francisco where she spent three months studying with the San Francisco opera ballet school, under direction of Deane Crockett. She was accompanied home by Miss Frankie Rinabarger who spent the past month studying at the school. Also a student of the ballet this summer was Nona Heyland, former Medford resident.

Long Beach Guest Here

Mrs. Otis Broadbent and daughter, Virginia, of Long Beach, Cal., were recent guests here of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hanby. Mrs. Broadbent's parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Broadbent, formerly lived in Medford.

Newly Wed Couple To Make Home Here

At the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Orr in Ashland Monday, Miss Kathryn Jane Orr was united in marriage to Robert Burdette Centers, son of Marion Centers. Dr. G. W. Bruce read the service and vows were spoken in a setting of gladioli and asters.

The bride wore a lovely sheer navy blue ensemble. Her corsage was of gardenias. There were no attendants. A wedding supper followed the ceremony. The young couple will make their home in Medford at the GeBauer apartments. Mrs. Centers attended the Ashland schools and the Southern Oregon College of Education. Later she graduated from the Medford Business College and at present is secretary in the office of the Elks Temple here.

NAVY RECRUITER TO REPORT FOR SERVICE AT SEA

George E. Patterson, a chief quartermaster of the U. S. navy, who has been in charge of the recruiting office here for more than 2 1/2 years, received instructions today to report at the Portland recruiting office September 16 pending receipt of orders to sea duty.

Patterson will be relieved by Ernest A. Roedel, a chief machinist's mate, who has been assistant in the recruiting station in the Medford federal building for the past year.

Roedel will be assisted by Jack M. Carpenter, chief electrician's mate, who will arrive here Sunday. Carpenter has been in the Portland recruiting office for the past two weeks after completing a course in the Recruiters' Training school, San Diego, Cal.

Patterson enlisted in the navy in June, 1918, and served on the battleship New Hampshire which conveyed troop ships to France during the World war. After the armistice was signed, he was transferred to the Rijndam, a transport that brought troops home from France.

Patterson was released from active service in August, 1919, and re-enlisted in January, 1921, and has been in active service since, serving on a variety of ships.
