

GIRL HIT BY AUTO ON NO. RIVERSIDE HAS HEAD INJURY

A basal fracture of the skull and severe shock were suffered by six-year-old Betty Stevens at 7:35 p. m., Thursday when she was struck by an automobile operated by Chester Philip Toler, 21, route 3, box 485, Grants Pass, on North Riverside avenue near the Phipps auto camp.

The little Stevens girl is the daughter of Barney Stevens, employe of the West Coast Amusement company, whose carnival is currently appearing north of the city. With her father she is living at the Phipps auto camp.

Betty's attending physician said today that she was conscious and her condition apparently was satisfactory. She was confined in Community hospital.

City police, talking to witnesses of the accident, said they learned that Betty was struck as she was crossing North Riverside avenue from east to west, and just before she reached the west side of the street. The car driven south by Toler, police stated, had just passed another southbound auto and was stragglng out, when it hit the girl.

Toler stopped immediately and the girl was lying on the pavement four feet behind the rear of the automobile, which had apparently passed directly over her without the tires touching her, police said they were told.

Dick Baize, driver of a taxicab, rushed the injured girl to the hospital. Police said no complaint had been filed against Toler, who was visibly upset by the mishap.

Wall St. Reports

New York, Sept. 6.—(AP)—

Leading stocks suffered a jolt from profit selling in today's market but the majority held up fairly well.

After 10 successive sessions in which the Associated Press average of 60 issues has been unchanged or higher, some traders got the idea that cashing in might be advisable as a precaution against week-end eventualities abroad.

A few utility, merchandising and other scattered favorites contested the move and clung to minor gains.

Dealings slowed appreciably, approximating 700,000 shares.

OREGON PHYSICIANS GET REPORT ON A.M.A. PREPAREDNESS PLAN

Eugene, Sept. 6.—(AP)—Approval of the American Medical Association program of medical preparedness was voiced today by Dr. J. E. Fitzgibbon, Oregon delegate to the AMA, in a report on the recent national convention given before members of the state society here.

Dr. Fitzgibbon, a Portland physician, told how the AMA had offered the services of 117,000 licensed M. D.'s in the interest of national defense. The offer was made, he said, "before the government requested it."

A Eugene woman, Mrs. Charles E. Hunt, today became president-elect of the auxiliary to the Oregon Medical Society. Mrs. Hunt, wife of the retiring president of the association, automatically becomes president next year.

Other officers elected include: Mrs. Charles Sears, Portland, president; Mrs. Roy Payne, Portland, first vice president; Mrs. Donald Long, Marshfield, second vice president.

ITALIAN AIRMEN BOMB 'LIFELINE'

Rome, Sept. 6.—(AP)—Italian airmen struck back at Britain, the high command announced today, with a raking fire of air raids on her "lifeline" from the central Mediterranean to the Indian ocean.

In apparent retaliation for British bombardments in the Dodecanese islands, the high command reported a dive bombing attack which "virtually destroyed" the fortress of Deli Mara at Malta, four steamers damaged in attacks on convoys in the Mediterranean and Red sea, gasoline deposits fired in the first attack of the war on Suez, and a bombing of ships in the harbor at Aden.

Besides these attempts to disrupt British shipping, attacks were carried out in the Sudan and Egypt.

FEEDER PLANE LINE APPLICATION SLATED FOR HEARING BY CAA

Portland, Sept. 6.—(AP)—S. R. Newman, United Air Lines district traffic manager, said today the civil aeronautics board would hear its application September 30 for service to Salem, Eugene and Klamath Falls.

United petitioned to give the three cities air mail, passenger and express plane service, Newman said. The hearing will be held at Washington, D. C.

In its application, United said it was prepared to inaugurate service with modern twin-engine transports with two pilots and a stewardess aboard. The cities would be added to the Vancouver, Seattle, Portland,

Kindness to Hiker Repaid By Theft Of Clothing, Coin

Albany, Ore., Sept. 6.—(AP)—Don Roberts, Seattle, gave a hitch-hiker a lift on the Salem-Albany highway last night. He also invited the hiker to share his hotel room over-night.

The hiker was not to be outdone—he did a little lifting too, by leaving in the night with $39 in cash, a wrist watch and some shirts, socks and neckties, all belonging to Roberts.

PENDLETON

The Round-up City

Each year in September at Pendleton, the center of a vast wheat, livestock and farm area, the cream of America's hard-riding cow-punchers gather to put on the world-famous Pendleton "Round-Up." So important as it is, the Pendleton "Round-Up" is only an incident in the life of this region, as livestock accounts for only 14% of Umatilla's agricultural income. The other 86% of its $12,000,000 annual yield comes from wheat, hay, fruits, vegetables, poultry, turkeys, corn, peas, and other farm products.

Ten Umatilla county farm "Co-ops" are doing much to promote a fast growing poultry industry. Wool, leather, flour, canning, and lumbering are also important. "White Satin" Sugar salutes you, Pendleton! We are proud to be numbered among Oregon's resources. Experienced in cooperation, you must realize that Oregon's growing sugar industry means much to our state, and to you!

Attend Pendleton Round-up September 11-14

FACTS OF UMATILLA COUNTY: Produces 6 1/2 million bushels of wheat annually. Four modern pea canneries conserve a 20,000 acre pea crop. Home of the famous Pendleton wool blankets. Seventy-one per cent of its 2,049,920 acres is privately owned. Property valuation, $55,386,700. Over 35,000 head cattle; 10,000 horses and mules; 140,000 sheep; 130,000 pigs; 100,000 turkeys.
