

Detroit Goes Into Tie With Cleveland; Yankees Down Red Sox

RALLY IN NINTH BRINGS VICTORY; WHITE SOX WIN

DiMaggio's Hit Gives Yanks Win Over Red Sox, 4-3—Senators Lose

Detroit, Sept. 7.—(P)—The heroes of the Detroit Tigers reached a season high today as they staged a three-run uprising in the ninth to defeat the St. Louis Browns, 5 to 4, and climb into a virtual tie with the Cleveland Indians for first place in the American league.

Two former Cleveland players—Earl Averill and Bruce Campbell—supplied the finishing punch in Detroit's 17th win in 21 games with St. Louis this year.

Cleveland, Sept. 7.—(P)—The skidding Cleveland Indians lost their sixth straight game today and all but one percentage point of their rapidly-fading American league lead. The Chicago White Sox, who had dropped 15 of 19 previous contests with the Indians, squeezed out a 5 to 4 victory.

As a result, the Indians and the Detroit Tigers are tied in games won and lost, although Cleveland is ahead on percentage, .5725 to .5714, through the difference in total games played. The New York Yankees are only a game behind.

Boston, Sept. 7.—(P)—The New York Yankees got back on the victory trail today, blasting out a 4-3 decision over the fourth place Boston Red Sox, thanks to Marius Russo and Joe DiMaggio.

Russo, in chalking up his 13th victory of the season limited the Sox to eight hits, the same number the Yankees got off Joe Heving and old Mose Grove, who came to his rescue in the eighth.

DiMaggio, getting two blows in three appearances at the plate, made his second appearance a most timely one, hitting his 29th homer of the season over the left field fence with George Selkirk, who had replaced the injured Tommy Henrich, on base.

RACING

State Fairgrounds, Salem, Sept. 7.—(P)—Jockey Howard Conley was the whole show of Saturday's final racing card of the state fair meet, booting home five winners and two second placers. Conley rode Cal Kennedy's Glenpool, bay five-year-old, which won the featured $300 Au Revoir handicap.

Favorites generally came through in races that had full entry lists. We Spider, 8 to 1 shot, paid the day's highest price, winning the mile and 70 yard 11th race to return $17.60 on the nose.

Concordia, ridden and owned by Miss Myrnelia Hauser, won the mile and 70-yard steeplechase. Luvor was killed when he broke his neck on the third jump.

Chicago, Sept. 7.—(P)—Burning Star of Shandon farm's stable won the $3,000 added Hawthorne handicap before 13,000 spectators today, beating Busy Morn by a length and a half. Bobs Boys was third.

Burning Star went the mile and an eighth in 1:50 4-5 and paid $9, $5 and $4. Busy Morn returned $6.60, $3.60 and $4.60, and Bobs Boys paid $6.60.

NATION'S AMATEUR GOLF STARS OPEN PLAY TOMORROW

Ten Former Champions in Mamaroneck Tourney—Ward Qualifies.

Mamaroneck, N. Y., Sept. 7.—(P)—The woods were full of trees and the fairways full of golfers as some 150 of the country's best amateurs warmed up today for the 44th national championship, which begins at 4 a. m. (P.S.T.) Monday over the west course of the Winged Foot Golf club.

There was a brisk breeze today which helped make the practice shotmaking difficult for some of the lads, but among those who bettered par were Wilford Wehrle of Chicago, rated one of the main threats to defending champion Marvin (Bud) Ward; Harold H. Mandly, Jr., Connecticut open and amateur titleholder; Ed Meister of Cleveland, and Skip Alexander of Duke university. All shot one-under-par 71's, the best scores returned so far.

Of the 10 former champions entered, eight have checked in. Besides Ward, they are Chick Evans, who has shot 76 his last two times around; Francis Oulmet, Jess Sweetser, Willie Turnesa, Johnny Goodman, Johnny Fischer and George Dunlap. Max Marston and Jesse Guilford haven't shown up yet.

From the way they have and haven't been scoring, it seems unlikely any qualifying round records will be broken, particularly if the wind keeps up. The fairways are playing long and the greens are rather hard, difficult to stop a ball, so that the record 36-hole 138 posted at North Shore a year ago by Tommy Sheehan of Northville, Mich., will be hard to top.

Sheehan played with Ward, Art Doerning of Chicago and Fred Haas of New Orleans, in one of today's practice four-somes. But the only man who drew any people away from the clubhouse was Bing Crosby.

The crooner found about 75 people waiting to see him put when he reached the ninth green. He took three putts for a bogey 6. Then about 50 of them followed him over the tenth tee, where they seemed fully as interested simply in watching while he sat down to rest as they were in the golf shot he hit.

If he should qualify for match play and last any time at all, he may attract some terrific galleries. At least he shouldn't be crowd-shy.

The low 64 will go into match play, with 19-hole rounds a day Wednesday and Thursday, the 36-hole semi-finals Friday and the 36-hole final next Saturday.

Portland, Sept. 7.—(P)—A thunder and rain storm struck simultaneously with the blasting of Portland's big bats today, as the Beavers pounded out a 7 to 5 win over San Diego.

San Diego leads the Pacific Coast baseball league series, 4 games to 3.

Portland trailed 1 to 2 going into its half of the fifth, but the thunder which rumbled overhead apparently was the signal for the Beaver batters to go ahead. When the inning ended, Portland was on the long end of a 5 to 2 score.

Umpire Bill Engeln called a 12-minute halt midway in the fifth because of a heavy down-pour of rain.

GOODMAN HOMER HIGH GRIDSTERS IN NINTH GIVES BACK FROM WEEK AT LAKE O' WOODS

Cincy 7 to 6 Win

Chicago, Sept. 7.—(P)—A ninth inning tie between the Chicago Cubs and Cincinnati was broken up today when Ival Goodman hit his 11th home run of the season, giving the Reds a 7 to 6 victory.

New York, Sept. 7.—(P)—It took Babe Young's fifth inning homer with the bases full to give the Giants their first victory of the season over the Brooklyn Dodgers in the Polo Grounds today.

The score was 4-1. Previously the Flatbushers had captured seven straight victories this year in Harlem.

KOVAC'S CLOWNING ANNOYS HUNT, BUT HE FINALLY WINS

New York, Sept. 7.—(P)—A crowd of 12,000 tennis zealots was treated today to the inspiring spectacle of two of the nation's prime young players sitting down on the Forest Hills stadium turf and refusing to continue play for some time.

One of them, Joe Hunt, the midshipman from Annapolis, was sore, while Frank Kovacs, the amiable eccentric from Oakland, Calif., was glad to sit between them they managed to put on perhaps the most unusual show ever seen in big league tennis and to enliven an otherwise unexciting program of quarter-final matches in the national championships.

Hunt had won the first two sets, 6-4 and 6-1, while Kovacs clowned all over the place and had himself a bushel of fun. Hunt, gradually got a neck-full of things as the match proceeded, and when the third game of the third set came around he suddenly popped.

The gallery was laughing at Kovacs' silly antics. Hunt, a very annoyed young sailor, demanded of the umpire, Le Van Richards, that the crowd stop giggling at Kovacs. When Richards declined to speak sternly either to Kovacs or the crowd, Hunt sat right down on the base line and refused to accept service.

Eventually they got to playing again, and Hunt ran out the final set, 6-4.

Hunt, now that he's past the Kovacs menace, meets Bobby Riggs, the defending champion, tomorrow and will need only to try to defend himself in the clinches.

Bobby, suffering from a cold and running a temperature, was unusually serious today as he swept aside young Ted Schroeder of Glendale, Calif., 6-1, 2-6, 6-3, 6-4.

Alaska Commander Washington, Sept. 7.—(P)—Captain Ralph Chandler Parker has been named commander of the navy's expanding defense forces in Alaska and related waters.

PILUSO TO AGAIN TRY AND CONQUER TOUGH ARMENIAN

One of the most spectacular wrestling winning streaks of recent months may be broken Monday night when Klamath Falls' Ernie Piluso rams up against Mike Nazarian, the vicious Armenian who has yet to wind up on the short end of a struggle in the local armory.

Nazarian has appeared here five times, and not once has his opponent been able to smear the wrist-twisting bad man into defeat. Even Piluso, noted for his ability to pin back the ears of the tough guys, was unsuccessful in attempting to wallop Nazarian in a bout three weeks ago.

However, instead of being discouraged by the result of his first try at Nazarian, Piluso became determined to whip the stocky and dirty ruffian, and demanded a rematch. Ernie is confident he learned enough about Nazarian's methods in their first collision to turn the tables on him in their second fracas.

Piluso realizes he must develop a defense for Nazarian's brutal and potent wrist-twist, a hold that has been responsible for every one of the latter's victories in the local arena. And he believes he has figured out a way to nullify the maneuver. What it is, Piluso won't say, but he does admit that if he loses, it won't be via the wrist-twister.

Ernie also has made plans for his own offense, but he won't reveal what they are. He believes he has detected an important weakness in Nazarian's defense and he figures to pound at that vulnerable spot in the Armenian's armor until the latter does an A number 1 of fold.

It will be 100 per cent science in the middle event when Whitey Wahlberg of Minnesota, a newcomer to the northwest, makes his local debut against clean Jack Hagen of Silverport, La. Both are legitimate workmen and are expected to provide fans with a choice exhibition of wrestling as it should be done.

Steve Neoff alias Tiger Taskoff, absent from southern Oregon for about two years, will return to face popular George Wagner in the six-round opening event. Neoff is a roughie.

Albermarle, N. C., Sept. 7.—(P)—Albermarle won the national American Legion junior baseball championship today by defeating San Diego (Calif.) 9-8 in the fifth game of the series. San Diego, 1938 champions, won the first two games, but Albermarle came back for the last three in a row.

San Diego, playing the home team position, threatened boldly in the ninth. Williams opened with a single and Barr drove him in with a triple that left the west coasters a run behind. A pitch-out on an attempted squeeze play caught Barr off third and the next two batters were easy.

The Shawnee-on-Delaware golfer, medalist with a five-under par 65 yesterday, ballooned to 73 in today's 18-hole round, taking 19 putts on the out-bound nine.

Oliver fired a two below par 68 to add to yesterday's 70.

Felix Serafin, home pro at the Scranton country club, was immediately back of the leaders with a 66-73-139.

The Turnesa brothers, Mike of New York and Jim of Mamaroneck, N. Y., shared the 140 position with Lawson Little, the national open champion.

NO BIG 10 TEAM PLAYS ROSE BOWL GAME TILL 1942

Chicago, Sept. 7.—(P)—There will be no Rose Bowl game between the football champions of the Pacific coast conference and the title holders of the "Big Ten" at least until January 1, 1942, if then.

Faculty representatives of the Western Conference, meeting today at the request of "Big Ten" athletic directors to vote on the proposal for a fixed post-season series between the two conferences, failed to reach a final decision.

After a two hour discussion they decided to canvass the views of members of their respective faculties and consider the plan further at their next meeting in Chicago in December.

L. W. St. Aohn, director of athletics at Ohio State university, and John L. Griffith, commissioner of athletics, presented the suggestions of the athletic directors. The Pacific coast conference side was presented by Prof. William B. Owens of Stanford university, a former president of the West Coast conference, and Prof. Charles C. May of the University of Washington.

As result of today's action, the Rose Bowl committee will continue its plan of selecting a team from the nation's outstanding grid aggregations to oppose the Pacific coast team in the game Jan. 1, 1941.

ITALIANS CLAIM PALESTINE WINS

Rome, Sept. 7.—(P)—Italian planes set large fires in a bombardment of oil tanks and refineries in Haifa, principal port of Palestine and a main British oil terminus in the near east, the Italian high command announced today.

In attacks on British shipping in the Red sea, an Italian submarine sank an oil tanker and Italian planes bombed a ship convoy, damaging a British cruiser and two steamers, a communique said.

In North Africa, the communique added, Italian air formations bombed the Alexandria-Mersa Matruh railroad and, when they were attacked by British pursuers, shot down two planes. Three other British planes were reported "probably shot down."
