CAROL IN CLOVER DESPITE FREEZING OF HOME WEALTH

Lugano, Switzerland, Sept. 9.—(AP)—Carol of Rumania began his second exile today in luxury despite a Rumanian order freezing his millions of dollars in stocks and holdings at home.

Accompanying him to temporary haven in this tranquil Swiss lakeside resort was the red-haired Mme. Magda Lupescu the same who shared his previous exile in 1925.

Before, when Carol renounced his right to succession rather than give up Mme. Lupescu, they spent five years in France. Now, the abdicated king's associates said, he is undecided where to go.

May Go To France France, shaken by the European turmoil which jarred Carol from his throne, might attract him again—at least temporarily. Some of his followers said Carol might go on to the Riviera after a short stay in Switzerland, and make his home at one of his chateaux there until he made definite plans.

The wealth he had in Rumania was sequestered yesterday in a decree by the military dictator Gen. Ion Antonescu who forced Carol out and made the king's 18-year-old son, the former crown prince Mihai, nominal ruler. Whether the holdings would be released eventually to the banished monarch or would be kept by the state was not disclosed.

It is anticipated that the fund will total more than $500 by the time the unit leaves for service. Persons unable to attend the dance, may leave voluntary contributions at either the Daily Tidings newspaper or office or direct at the Armory.

The Elks lodge and the Ashland post of the American Legion are sponsoring the dance. All ex-service men are to appear with service caps; the enlisted men and officers of the company itself will be uniformed.

Lively Tunes And Fast Comedy Give Zest To New Film

Sparkling with new songs, fast comedy and an array of colorful dances, "Argentine Nights," opened its world premiere yesterday at the Craterian theatre with the Ritz Brothers and the Andrews Sisters as its co-stars.

Never have the three comedians cavorted to more hilarious effect. Their antics brought more spontaneous laughter from the audience than anything they have offered since their earliest film successes.

For the Andrews Sisters, famous swing trio who are presented for the first time on the screen, the picture marks an auspicious debut. In the same spectacular style of singing which has lifted them to favor on phonograph records, the radio and stage, the girls introduce four new songs, "Hit the Road," "The New Lick," "Oh, He Loves Me" and "Rhum-boogie," and register a definite hit. The Ritz Brothers present "The Spirit of 77 B," a musical satire, and "Brooklynonga" as important highlights of the film.

Constance Moore and George Reeves, a screen newcomer, are delightful as the romantic interest in the screenplay. Miss Moore sings "Once Upon a Dream" and "Hall of the Mountain Queen," and Reeves contributes "Amigo We Go Riding Tonight."

Considerate of Him Winchester, Va.—(AP)—Trial Justice A. J. Havenner couldn't resist a smile as he received a note from a defendant convicted in his court. "I am going to take an appeal on my case," the defendant wrote. "I will set the date later."
