PUC OFFICE STAFF ENLARGED TO GIVE SPEEDIER SERVICE

Through Marion L. Horton, field auditor in charge of the Medford office of the public utilities commission, Ormond R. Bean, P. U. C. commissioner of Oregon today announced the employment of Howard S. Wiley of Medford as assistant to Mr. Horton in the city hall of the commission.

The services of Mr. Wiley, it was stated, will make it possible to keep the local office open each day from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. except Saturdays, when the hours will be from 8 a. m. to 12 noon. The employment of Mr. Wiley, son of Mayor F. S. Wiley of Ashland, is in line with Commissioner Bean's policy of giving maximum service to the public, Mr. Horton said.

It was pointed out that previously Mr. Horton was obliged to be away from the office a great deal, thereby causing much inconvenience to those wishing the services of an agent of the P. U. C.

Mr. Horton explained that the Medford office could grant temporary permits to private and special carriers upon completion of application requirements, thus allowing these carriers to place vehicles in operation while the delay incurred by waiting for P. U. C. plates from Salem. Common and contract carriers with active permits may also obtain temporary permits for any additional or substituted equipment, Mr. Horton said.

All carriers were invited to make use of the office in filing reports, making remittances, obtaining needed forms or assistance with application matters, reports or problems of any nature arising from operation under the motor transportation act.

WILLKIE RECEIVES FORD'S BLESSING

Detroit, Sept. 11.—(AP)—Henry Ford formally endorsed Wendell L. Willkie today, declaring "I am completely satisfied that he means to do exactly what he says and is competent to do it without evasion or excuse."

In a written press statement, Ford spoke of the Republican Presidential nominee as a "business man" who "understands what this country needs first and needs most."

The automobile manufacturer visited Willkie at Rushville, Ind., Monday, but waited until he returned to Detroit to make public his statement. Ford endorsed Herbert Hoover in 1932 and Alf M. Landon in 1936.
