"Leather Pushers" Show Today

Combining thrills, action, comedy and fast-moving drama, "The Leather Pushers," co-starring Richard Arlen and Andy Devine in their newest adventure feature, opens a rip-roaring three day run today at the Rialto theatre. The film traces the extraordinary career of a boxer, played by Arlen, from his accidental "discovery" to his sensational bout for the

Bob Burns Scores Hit In Craterian Hillbilly Picture

If you like the down-to-earth comedy of Bob Burns and the homespun philosophy of radio's Uncle Ezra, he of the powerful little five-watter down in Rosedale, and if you a little rowdy goings-on, such as you might find at a hillbilly hoe-down, and if your ear is tuned to good old fashioned mountain music, then by all means go over to the Craterian theatre and have yourself a grand time seeing "Comin' Round the Mountain," which plays through Saturday night.

Of course there are others in the picture, and a right smart cast it is too. There's Jerry (Yahoodi) Calanna. He's the dastardly villain who doesn't do right by Nell-Neil, being, in this case, Una Merkel. Then there's Mayor Gildersleeve who is ordinarily heard heckling Fibber McGee on the air, along with Old Timer of the same program. And there's Mirandy and Slaphappy Granpappy and Jack Benny's Don Wilson, all of the airwaves, and a host of other top-notch movie comedians.

"Comin' Round the Mountain" tells the story of the feuding Blowers and Beagles, and of an itinerant salesman who happens to hear a jam session of the Blowers' "one family" orchestra consisting of bazookas, corn liquor jugs and fiddles. He contrives to find them a sponsor for a radio program to save the little five-watter from going off the air. Everything looks good until the winter truce is called off and the spring feudin' gets under way. Then follows a series of hilarious events leading up to the election of Jed (Bob Burns) Blower for mayor, and his marriage to Miss Merkel, an unusual event, by the way, performed without benefit of a shotgun.

Bing Crosby's unique golf short subject, "Swing With Bing," plays on the same program.
