Miss Haskins Wed To Mr. Risse In Impressive Service

At the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leon B. Haskins, Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock, Miss Gertrude Haskins became the bride of Charles F. Risse, son of Mrs. Anna G. Risse, with the Rev. T. H. Temple, retired Methodist minister of Talent, officiating.

The bride wore an afternoon dress of pale grey crepe with shirred bodice and full skirt, and a corsage of gardenias and pink rosebuds. Her father gave her in marriage.

Miss Dorothea Haskins was her sister's bridesmaid. She wore a winterberry colored crepe afternoon frock trimmed in cut velvet and a corsage of pink rosebuds. Fred Underwood acted as best man for Mr. Risse.

Vows were exchanged in front of the fireplace, which was banked with baskets of white and peach-colored gladioli. Ivy draped the mantel.

Mrs. George S. Johnson of Berkeley, Cal., the bride's aunt, played "I Love You Truly" prior to the ceremony. She also played Lohengrin and Mendelssohn wedding marches.

Mrs. Haskins chose a silk dress of dusty rose hue with white trim and a corsage of Talisman rosebuds for her daughter's wedding. The bridegroom's mother wore a prairie rose crepe dress trimmed in braid and a corsage of Talisman rosebuds.

A reception followed the impressive ceremony, after which the couple left for southern California for a two weeks wedding trip. For a going away ensemble, the bride wore a dark blue sheer fashioned princess with a tight fitting military style jacket and black accessories.

Guests attending the wedding were Mrs. Frances Cochran, aunt of the bride, Miss Opal Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Chastain, Mr. and Mrs. David Irving, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Queckenbush, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barr, Mrs. Belva Aiken, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Boyd, John Niedermeyer, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Semon, Robert Semon, Mrs. Harriet French and Mr. and Mrs. George S. Johnson of Berkeley, Cal. Mrs. Risse was feted at a number of delightful parties prior to her marriage.

Girl Scouts to Organize Chorus

A new project in Girl Scouting this year will be a Girl Scout chorus. Each troop may elect two representatives to attend weekly rehearsals, which will be held Saturday mornings at 10 o'clock in Scout headquarters. Scouts attending should have true voices and be willing to participate in civic programs.

Girl Scouts from each unit at camp are planning on giving "Camp Talks", and singing scout songs for civic organizations which gave Camp Ship to local Girl Scouts this year. The following organizations and individuals were responsible for assisting many girls in attending the established camp at Lake of the Woods in August. Kiwanian Dames, Medford National Bank, Junior High P. T. A., Lady Lions, Chapter B.E. of P.E.O., Washington School P.T.A., Colony club, Women of Rotary, American Legion Auxiliary, Roosevelt Home and School association, Business and Professional Women's club, Mrs. Myron Root, Mrs. Porter Neff and Miss Betty Drummond.

Miss Young to Attend U. of W.

Miss Floy Young plans to leave this week for Seattle where she will enter University of Washington to work on her master's degree. She plans to attend the university for six months. On Friday evening she entertained a group of friends at the Hotel Medford for dinner. Those present were Mrs. Esther Church Leake, and the Misses Olive Curry, Helen Parish and Gertrude Wataling. Miss Young has been a popular member of the Medford high school faculty.

Pythian Sisters To Meet Tuesday

Pythian Sisters will meet Tuesday at 8 p. m. in the K.P. hall. Visitors as well as local members are invited to attend.

Memorial Rites Given by Nevita At Recent Meet

A large group of O. E. S. members gathered at the Masonic temple at Central Point Tuesday evening for the first fall meeting of Nevita chapter No. 93. Men's Night was the theme of the evening with the men of the chapter having complete charge of all arrangements including program and refreshments.

Hensley and Haskill Holt entertained with a short skit entitled "Too Busy." Merritt Swing gave a negro character reading in costume. Later in the evening Mr. Swing sang several songs accompanied by Mrs. Sam Koehler.

Committee in charge included: Hensley Holt, chairman; assisted by Merritt Swing and L. C. Scott.

Part of the chapter meeting was devoted to a memorial service for Alice E. Hanley. The worthy matron opened the service with Rudyard Kipling's poem "When Earth's Last Picture Bursler gave a brief history of Sister Hanley's life and a beautiful tribute to her memory. This memorial service was marked for its stately beauty and originality. A double cross, built especially for the occasion, covered with fern, was placed on the white altar cloth. While the organist played hymns and with appropriate scripture, each officer, dressed in long white dresses, placed three white asters in the double edge of the cross, so that when completed the cross was beautifully outlined in white. As each officer placed her flowers she took a position in the Star Labyrinth to form a cross and, with heads bowed, this lovely picture was held while Ed Vincent sang "The Old Rugged Cross."

Chapter rooms were beautifully decorated with fall blossoms by Clara Vincent. Associate matron, Margaret Swing, announced the reception Nevita chapter will hold September 24 at 9 o'clock for Beulah Faber, member of the traveling flag committee of the grand chapter of Oregon. The reception will be held following regular chapter meeting. Invitations have been issued to all valley chapters.

Distinguished guests at Tuesday's meeting were: Mrs. Nellie McGowan, past grand matron, of Medford and Miss Mollie Britton, grand representative of district of Columbia, of Jacksonville.
