SAVANTS IDENTIFY ANCIENT PINES OF EASTERN OREGON

Imprints Left On Lava Provide Clues—Mirrors Used On Tunnel-Like Casts

Bend, Ore., Sept. 19.—(AP)—Scientists are attempting to identify pine trees that may have sheltered inhabitants of this area a million years ago.

And they're doing it with mirrors.

The forest, possibly of yellow pine trees, once covered a mountainside. The mountain developed into a volcano, blew its top, and waves of lava engulfed the trees.

The trees disappeared ages ago. Not a splinter or a piece of bark remain, but lava casts of the trees, some of them still standing upright, provide the scientists with a basis for study.

The lava chilled against the green trunks, cracked as it cooled, and the giant trunks burned away. Imprints made by the bark and charred bits remain in the casts, some of which are 100 feet long. The investigators, lacking elaborate electrical lighting equipment in the isolated area, hit upon the use of mirrors. They focus reflection of the sun on the interiors of the tunnel-like casts.

Along with identifying the trees definitely, the scientists hope to be able to determine whether the forest was destroyed before or after a vast pleistocene lake dried up.

More than 510 forms of old trees have been discovered within a radius of 40 miles of Newberry crater.

DEER HUNTER IS KILLED BY FRIEND

Alturas, Cal., Sept. 19.—(AP)—K. P. (Bill) Hall, 48, of Kerman, Calif., was shot and killed by another deer hunter yesterday who mistook him for a deer.

His friend, Felice Radavero of Kerman, was held in jail today while police investigated. Radavero said they had hunted together for four years at the same place on North Davis creek in the Pandango area.

In another similar accident yesterday E. Drace, 70, Iolden, was seriously wounded by a shot through the chest from the gun of a companion near Dorrington, in Calaveras county.

Worry of FALSE TEETH Slipping or Irritating

The slipping and embarrassment caused by a loose or wobbly dental plate are a constant source of worry. Loose plates often irritate tender gum tissues. Thousands sprinkle their plates with FASTEETH. It gives them a wonderful sense of security and added comfort. FASTEETH holds false teeth firmer, and being alkaline (non-acid), checks gum odorless and irritation due to the chafing of a loose plate or to excessive acid mouth. No gummy, gooey, pasty taste or feeling. Get FASTEETH today at any drug store.

FEEDER LINES TO CENTER HERE IF PERMIT GRANTED

Oregon Airways, Inc., Officials Reveal Plans in Visit to City; Wait Hearing

If a certificate is granted by the civil aeronautics authority to Oregon Airways, Inc., to operate on two routes in this state, Medford eventually will be made the center of the feeder line system, H. E. Stearns, company president, told the Mail Tribune. Accompanied by T. T. Hinman, operations manager, Mr. Stearns came here yesterday to transact business.

A hearing on the petition will be held by the civil aeronautics board in Washington, D. C., September 30. The company, Mr. Stearns said, seeks permission to operate passenger, mail and express service from Portland to Salem, Albany, Eugene and the Coos Bay area, and from Portland to The Dalles, Prineville, Redmond, Bend and Klamath Falls. If the certificate is granted, permission will be sought later to join the two legs of the service with Medford as the base, Mr. Stearns stated.

Oregon Airways, Inc., began operations on June 1, 1938, and although it has since suspended flights, it qualified for a certificate so far as operations are concerned by operating 128 round-trip flights from Portland to Coos Bay and 47 round-trip flights from Portland to Klamath Falls, Mr. Stearns asserted.

If permission is granted to operate, new equipment would have to be purchased, Mr. Stearns said. He added that the company was capitalized at $50,000 and that a fiscal statement showing financial responsibility up to $300,000 was on file with numerous other exhibits with the aeronautics authority.

Scheduled for a hearing at the same time is United Air Lines' application for permission to extend its service to Salem, Eugene and Klamath Falls.

MRS. HARRIMAN WILL CAMPAIGN FOR F.D.R.

New York, Sept. 19.—(AP)—Mrs. J. Borden Harriman, U. S. minister to Norway, announced today she would campaign for President Roosevelt, adding:

"He stands head and shoulders above all others as the logical leader. The concensus in Europe is that it is inconceivable that the U. S. should change its national leader at this critical time in history."

SPOKANE WILL BE LARGE AIR BASE

Spokane, Wash., Sept. 19.—(AP)—Spokane looked forward today to becoming one of the nation's great army air bases after the announcement last night that it had been selected as one of the four district air base headquarters for the army air corps in the United States.

The announcement was made by Maj. Gen. Frank Lackland, first wing general headquarters commandant from March Field, Calif., after he had inspected Spokane airport facilities and the accommodations at Fort George Wright, shortly to be left vacant by the fourth infantry.

A wing headquarters force, comprising 3,000 officers force, comprising 3,00 officers and men with two air force generals in command will be permanently assigned to the station, he said.

ASHLAND TREASURER SEEKS REELECTION

Meanwhile, friends of Councilman Ralph Koozer carried his petition for reelection to the post for which his term expires this year.

Others seeking council posts are Guy Applewhite, incumbent, Marshall E. Woodell, and Maj. Harold Jordan.

ASHLAND DOCTOR CALLED TO ARMY

Ashland, Sept. 19.—(Spl.)—If the calling of reserve army officers doesn't slack off pretty soon, this city will lose a number of doctors, denists and business men.

Dr. E. G. Everett, local physician and surgeon who is a first lieutenant in the medical reserves, is the latest to receive orders to stand by for physical examinations prior to induction in the military forces. Others called are Dr. R. L. Burdic, Dr. Marcus B. Woods and Dr. Raymond E. Walker, all dentists.

Charles Delsman, a city councilman who was erroneously designated as a doctor, is also awaiting final orders. He resigned to the city council pending additional word.
