Tie for Top Honors
Corvallis, May 24.—(P)—Jeanne Hartman Popovich, Dallas, and Marian Tatum, Philomath, have tied for top scholastic honors among this year's honor graduates, registrar E. B. Lemon announced today. Each made a 4-year average of 3.95 which means A grades in every course but one.

BACCALAUREATE IN AUDITORIUM 8 THIS EVENING

Medford senior high school will hold its 28th baccalaureate service for 167 graduating seniors tonight at 8 o'clock in the high school auditorium. The Rev. Fred Weatherford will act as presiding minister, and will offer both the invocation and the benediction. The Rev. Joseph Knotts will deliver the sermon.

The processional for baccalaureate will consist of Mendelssohn's "March from Athalia" by the high school orchestra, as the seniors march in. The congregation will sing "Holy, Holy, Holy" for the opening hymn. Immediately following the invocation by the Rev. Weatherford, the senior high choir will sing "Veni Langue Nostros." The Rev. Weatherford will give the opening prayer prior to the sermon by the Rev. Knotts, the major speaker of the evening. Baccalaureate services will be closed by the high school choir singing Tchesneffoff's "Thy Holy Presence," and the benediction from the Rev. Weatherford. Recessional of the seniors will be accomplished to the music of the "Coronation March" from "The Prophet," played by the school orchestra.

NAZARENE PLANS VACATION SCHOOL

The Church of the Nazarene is sponsoring a Daily Vacation Bible School to open at 9 a. m. Monday, June 2, and continue each day except Saturday and Sunday from 9 a. m. until noon, to the concluding date, June 18. Miss Mable Scheel, teacher in the Emmet, Idaho, high school, will serve as superintendent. Other teachers, who have had public school teaching experience, include Mrs. Verl Michael and Mrs. Ethel Rogers. These will be assisted by Mrs. Anna Carr, Mrs. Geneva Varner, and Mrs. Dorothy Starkey.

The curriculum outlining a standard vacation Bible school will be followed, including Bible drill, character and moral study, and recreation. Arrangements have been made with E. H. Hedrick, superintendent of city schools, to release the pupils to participate in courses offered by the leisure arts department in the Junior high school shop, just across the street. These courses include manual training, wood carving, basket weaving, painting, leather and copper work. Children of any church will be welcome, as well as those who have no church relationship.

Portland, May 24.—(P)—Oregon congregationalists nominated Rev. Louis E. White, Hood River, for state moderator Friday.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to thank our loyal friends and neighbors for the many kindnesses and beautiful floral offerings during our recent bereavement in the loss of our son, Preston J. Davis. Ira Davis, Mrs. Ira Davis, Dixie Davis, Mrs. June Hartley, Lillian Davis Davis.
