Miss Mulholland Weds Mr. Taubele At St. Marks Church

In a setting of white early summer blossoms in St. Mark's Episcopal church the marriage ceremony of Miss Marjorie Ann Mulholland, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Richard Mulholland, to Henry C. Taubele, son of Mrs. Louise Taubele of Portland was read at high noon yesterday.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an afternoon redingote ensemble of powder blue alpaca, with halo hat of blue straw and a shoulder length veil of white tulle. She wore a corsage of gardenias.

Miss Ruth Ottoman, the bride's only attendant, was attired in a jacket costume of beige alpaca, sheer, with brown accessories and matching hat and a corsage of orchids. Charles Nelson was best man. Ushers were Cyril Sander and Raymond Doherty.

The wedding party entered the church to the traditional wedding march with Eva Hazelrigg Marsh presiding at the organ. A group of organ numbers also preceded the ceremony.

The service was read by the Rev. Herald G. Gardner, rector of St. Mark's, in the presence of relatives and close friends of the couple. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Taubele received informally in the vestibule of the church.

Dr. and Mrs. Mulholland entertained relatives and members of the bridal party immediately following the wedding with a breakfast at the Hotel Medford. Miss Louise Taubele, of Portland, sister of the groom, was an out-of-town guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Taubele departed during the afternoon for a tour of California and Oregon beaches and upon their return will make their home in Portland where Mr. Taubele is in government service.

Mrs. Taubele is a graduate of Medford high school, Southern Oregon College of Education and attended University of Oregon. Mr. Taubele attended the University of Washington.
