HEALTH TALKS By DR. A. R. HEDGES Chiropractic & Naturopathic Physician Phone 3170 128 E. Main St.

WILL CHIROPRACTIC HELP ME? Children frequently think it is fun to stand on the nose while their parents are watering the lawn and watch the diminished water supply at the nozzle. This illustration gives some idea of what happens to a nerve of a group of nerves when an interference is created at the spine and diminishes the flow of nerve energy over the nerve to that organ or part to which it leads. Pressure upon the nerves leading to the stomach naturally weakens this organ. Should this weakness be in a person of moderate habits, it would be less likely to cause the disastrous result possible in a person whose eating habits included intoxication, late hours and hard work which demand plenty of energy. Then there are combinations of weaknesses often in the same spine. Stomach weakness complicated with weak nerves to the kidneys would develop more serious symptoms than a case having only the stomach weakness. Millions of people know that Chiropractic is the correct health science, but there are many thousands who do not know that its scope of practice embraces practically all types and conditions of human ailments.

Horizon" opened to an enthusiastic crowd yesterday. Three of his biggest hits are playing this week only at the Main street showhouse—with James Hilton's "Lost Horizon," starring Ronald Colman, now playing. Next is "It Happened One Night," co-starring Clark Gable and Claudette Colbert, which will play Wednesday and Thursday nights.

"Mr. Deeds Goes to Town," co-starring Gary Cooper and Jean Arthur, is scheduled to play Friday night and Saturday for both matinee and evening performances.

With Bazooka

Bob Burns, the bazooka-playing radio favorite from Van Buren, Ark., comes to the Rialto theatre for a three day run starting tomorrow in the picture that brought him his first screen success—"Rhythm on the Range," which opens tomorrow on the popular theatre's "Rialto Re-Issue Days" program. With Burns are Bing Crosby, Martha Raye and Frances Farmer. In the modern musical-Western, the happy foursome sing "Empty Saddles," "I'm An Old Cowhand" and several other range ballads.

shopping in Medford Monday. Mrs. Hazel Tuxill also was a shopper.

Irene Dunne, Cary Grant at Craterian

Irene Dunne and Cary Grant, two of the screen's most popular stars, are excitingly reunited in "Penny Serenade," which opened yesterday at the Craterian theatre. Based upon the McCall magazine novel of a carefree, irresponsible newspaperman and his wife, the film is an absorbingly human story, as heart-warming as life itself. Concerned with such delightful elements as the romance, the honeymoon and early years together of a man and woman, "Penny Serenade" possesses a ring of reality which makes it everything that "grade A" entertainment should be. The newspaperman's casual attitude towards life, the demands of his job, the near-disaster which ends their honeymoon, the infant they adopt and the small county newspaper they attempt to run—all these and more provide the dramatic and comedy material for a vivid and memorable motion picture.
