On Rialto Bill

One of the outstanding musical pictures of all time—"Rhythm on the Range"—is booked into the Rialto Theatre for a three-day run starting today with Bing Crosby in one of the four starring roles. Voted by public and critics everywhere as the top film of 1937, "Rhythm on the Range" comes to the popular Main Street theatre as the "Rialto Re-Issue Days" film. Others in the large cast include Bob Burns, Martha Raye and Frances Farmer. This is the picture that gave Bob Burns and his bazooka and Miss Raye to theatre audiences—both of them having been on the radio.

Two of 1937's most popular song hits are introduced in "Rhythm on the Range"—including "Empty Saddles" and "I'm An Old Cowhand from the Rio Grande." Five other hits are featured, as well as a Western rodeo with bucking broncs and bull-dogging.
