Popular Stars In Sunday Hit

His first modern role in three years brings Errol Flynn, with Brenda Marshall opposite, to the Craterian theater Sunday for the three-day showing of "Footsteps in the Dark." The story is a fast-paced tale of a sedate young business man of the upper brackets, who writes detective stories as an avocation, and solves murders as a hobby.

Also in the cast are Ralph Bellamy, Alan Hale, Lee Patrick, Allen Jenkins, Roscoe Karns and several other noted comedy players.

Song, "I'm Always Chasing Rainbows" and the famous "Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Shean," with Charles Winninger portraying Gallagher and Al Shean of the original team in his original role. More than a hundred of America's most beautiful girls, including famous models and beauty contest winners are featured in the several lavish spectacle scenes.

The story of "Ziegfeld Girl" centers around three girls who win fame as Ziegfeld beauties, and the result of their fame.
