

STRIKE OF BAKERS MAY SPREAD INTO ADJACENT CITIES

Portland Union Head for Involving Seattle, Tacoma, Spokane to Add Pressure

Portland, Ore., May 28.—(AP)—Portland's bakery strike threatened to spread to Seattle, Tacoma and Spokane today, the fourth day of a walkout which cut off 80 per cent of the bread supply here.

William McGuern, bakery workers' union representative, said he had suggested strike action to Washington union officials as a means of adding pressure on Portland chain affiliates.

He declared the action would be in retaliation for a lock-out here. The union struck at only eight Portland bakeries, but 30 shops closed down, he said, adding that "the small number of bakeries we are picketing would not materially reduce Portland's bread supply."

Employers said that negotiations were handled through a bakery association, and that a strike at one plant was a strike at all.

At Seattle the threatened strike was discounted because of a recently-completed contract calling for wage increases. The strike here is in demand for a 10 cent an hour increase to $1.10 with 20 cents an hour additional for night work.

Another possible strike in the food industry was averted last night with acceptance by 1000 AFL grocery clerks of a compromise wage proposal. Pay was increased from $25 to $29 weekly and the work week reduced from 51 to 50 hours.

HOSTAK IN TITLE FIGHT THIS EVE

Chicago, May 28.—(AP)—Al Hostak, the Seattle battler with the glass hands, will try tonight to disprove again the old saying that "they never come back."

He will meet Tony Zale, Gary Ind., fighter recognized as the middleweight champion by the National Boxing association, in a 15-round bout in Chicago stadium.

Hostak, one of the hardest punchers in the business, has been plagued by "hand trouble" ever since he reached the top.

Three years ago Hostak proved champions sometimes do come back. He lost the title in 1938 to Solly Krieger of Brooklyn when he broke both hands. Later he regained the crown only to lose it to Zale.

REJECT BAER'S CLAIM TO TITLE

Washington, May 28.—(AP)—Buddy Baer's claim to the world heavyweight title, on the contention he was fouled by Champion Joe Louis in their bout here last Friday, was rejected today by the District of Columbia Boxing commission.

The commission upheld Referee Arthur Donovan's action in declaring Baer the loser by disqualification. Donovan was scheduled to come here for a hearing today, but sent word that fog prevented the takeoff of his plane in New York.

Chairman Claude Owen announced that Promoter Mike Jacobs had agreed to match Baer and Louis in a return title bout here the first week in October.

1/2 chopped olives
1/4 cup asparagus
2 radishes, sliced
1 teaspoon lemon juice
4 tablespoons mayonnaise
Cover tuna with boiling water.
Drain after five minutes and chill.
This takes off an excess fishy flavor.
Flake the tuna with a fork and add egg, celery, olives and two tablespoons mayonnaise. Chill until time to serve. Arrange on crisp lettuce, surround with asparagus and radishes and sprinkle with juice. Top with remaining mayonnaise.

Browned Fish Steak (Baked)

(Allowing for Leftovers)
1 pound fish steak or fillets
2 tablespoons flour
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon celery salt
1/4 teaspoon paprika
4 tablespoons fat
1 tablespoon lemon juice
2 tablespoons boiling water
Wash fish carefully in cold water and pat dry with soft cloth or paper.
Flour and seasonings in paper sack, add fish, cut into three serving pieces and shake the sack. The fish then becomes coated. Heat fat in frying pan, add fish and quickly brown on both sides. Transfer to shallow baking dish (or bake right in the frying pan). Add rest of ingredients and lid. Bake 30 minutes in a moderate oven.

"GROCETERIA GOODNESS" - ONE SHOPPING STOP FOR EVERYTHING -

MEMORIAL DAY

"Fourscore and seven years ago our fathers brought forth on this continent a new nation, conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal.

"Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation or any nation so conceived and so dedicated can long endure. We are met on a great battlefield of that war. We have come to dedicate a portion of that field, as a final resting place of those who here gave their lives that this nation might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this.

"But, in a larger sense, we cannot dedicate—we cannot consecrate—we cannot hallow—this ground. The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here, have consecrated it, far above our poor power to add or detract. The world will little note, nor long remember, what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here. It is for us the living, rather, to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us—that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion—that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain—that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom—and that government of the people, by the people, for the people shall not perish from the earth."

Spoken 78 years ago—We reprint this eternal warning to all free people that liberty by itself will not stand alone.—Always it must be protected.
