KLAMATH TO SEND 15 COMPETITORS, MANY FROM BEND

Jim Pedroni, Crack California Shooter, Wires Entry; Public Invited Free

The twelfth annual Mail Tribune trapshoot at the Medford Gun club Sunday gives promise of an unusually large entry list of out-of-town shooters, with entries being received daily from trapshooting clubs in all parts of southern Oregon.

entry from Salinas yesterday, as did Jim Morris and Roy Oppie, professional shooters from Portland. Oppie will cashier the shoot. Local shooters returning from the ATA state shoot at Portland last Sunday brought news of other out-of-town gunners who will be here for the event.

At the practice shoot Sunday Croissant was the outstanding shooter with a 25 straight in both the 16-yard and the handicap event, and the veteran shooter John Ross of Central Point had a 24 at 16 yards.

LOCAL NET TEAM TRIMS K. FALLS Splitting even in eight singles matches but winning two out of three doubles engagements, the Medford tennis team defeated the Klamath Falls netaters, 6 to 5, in an inter-city match at Klamath Falls Sunday. Scores follow:

ANGELS BEAT PADRES, 4-2; SACS NIP SEALS; BEAVERS RAINED OUT

By the Associated Press. Considering that the game produced 22 hits, two home-runs, six doubles, four errors and three bases on balls, it is almost as startling that Los Angeles beat

San Diego only 4-2 as it is that Los Angeles won at all.

This demonstration of scant return on investment opened the Pacific Coast league series yesterday in the Angels' park and represented the home team's second victory in more than a week.

Sacramento, meanwhile, took up where it left off against San Francisco two weeks ago, battering the Seals, 8-2, in the latter's stadium.

Rain brought postponement of the circuit's other two scheduled games, Oakland at Portland and Hollywood at Seattle. The first two will make up their lost time with a doubleheader at Portland the week of August 12.
