Sunday school, 9 a. m.
Worship service 10 a. m.
Bible study hour, 8 p. m.

Today, both Sunday school and church service will meet one hour earlier, which is the new summer Sunday daylight saving time. Sunday school meets at 9 a. m., and church at 10 a. m., throughout June, July and August.

This morning is Pentecost or Whitsunday, the day the church commemorates coming of the Holy Spirit on the day of Pentecost. This is the birthday of the Christian church.

This morning the catechetical class will be received into the church, some by baptism and some by confirmation.

Monday morning our annual D. V. Vacation Bible school will begin, with school from 9 a. m. to 11:30 a. m. five days a week for two weeks. There will be classes for youngsters from four years old through Junior high school.

Anyone is welcome at any of our services.

FIRST CHRISTIAN VACATION SCHOOL TO OPEN MONDAY

Vacation church school of the First Christian church will open Monday at 9 a. m., with classes and activities for boys and girls from three to 15 years.

Older girls will help make bandages and surgical dressings for China relief; the boys will make recreation and play equipment. A playground is being equipped across the alley from the church for school and for church activities during the summer.

There will be four groups in the school. Pre-school children will be directed by Mrs. R. W. Coleman, Mrs. George Stevens and Mrs. Herbert Sims; the primaries will be guided by Mrs. Roy McConnell and Mrs. Claude Cooper; junior group will have Mrs. A. H. Gregory and Mrs. Claude Cooper for leaders, and intermediates will be guided by Mrs. Charles Smith and Mrs. Thale Ford.

Some of the resource leaders include Lois Young for music, Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Drummond for missionary stories and assistance project work. Rev. R. W. Coleman for recreational and devotional guidance. Mrs. Arnold Bohner is general superintendent. Among assistant leaders are Betty Daugherty, Juanita Haddock, Ruth Walden, Norene Bohner and Betty Latham.

A picnic is being planned for the pupils at Lithia park in Ashland, June 13. Closing program of the school will be June 15.

SALVATION ARMY TO HAVE SCHOOL

A daily vacation Bible school for children aged 4 to 16 will be held in the Salvation Army hall beginning Monday at 9:30 a. m. and continuing for one week.

Mrs. Captain Charles K. Cox will be director of the school with the Sunday school teachers assisting. Captain Cox will present illustrated sermons especially for different ages.

The theme of the school will be "Spiritual Defense" and the main purposes will be: 1. To develop Christian personality; 2. To utilize vacation days in a wholesome program.

The course of study will include devotional periods, Bible study, scripture verse memorizing, crafts, and recreation.

Certificates will be awarded to all reaching the required standards. The school will end with a picnic Saturday, June 7. Other young people as well as those attending the Salvation Army Sunday school are invited to attend.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to express our sincere thanks to the friends and neighbors for their acts and expressions of sympathy in our recent bereavement. B. B. Clark and family.
