Geraldine Clemens To Wed Mr. Jewitt This Afternoon

To be wed this afternoon in the parsonage of the First Methodist church in Reno, Nev., are Miss Geraldine Clemens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Clemens of this city, and Allen Jewitt, son of Howard P. Jewitt of Central Point.

The double ring ceremony will be read by the pastor of the church. The bride has chosen a tailored navy blue suit with navy blue and white accessories and a shoulder corsage of orchids.

After the wedding trip to Lake Tahoe, Carson City, Nev., and other points of interest in Nevada and California, the couple will return by the coast route to Medford and be at home at 811 West Tenth street.

Mrs. Jewitt is a graduate of Medford high school and for the last year has been employed as bookkeeper by the Southern Oregon Credit Bureau. Mr. Jewitt, a graduate of Central Point high school, is employed at Don Cruikshank Typewriters.

Prior to the wedding Mrs. Jewitt has been feasted at numerous showers by her friends in this city.

Mrs. Hogan Heads Musical Society For Coming Year

Mrs. M. Hogan was elected to serve as president of the Medford Musical society for the coming year, at a picnic dinner and business meeting held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Porter J. Neff on Berkeley Way Monday evening. The affair marked the close of the 1940-41 season for the society until the fall months.

During her term of office Mrs. Hogan will be assisted by Mrs. J. C. Boyle as vice-president; Mrs. Royal Clare as secretary, and Mrs. Frank Reum, treasurer.

Dr. R. P. Mortensen showed motion pictures taken on a recent trip through Mexico and South America and the woman's chorus, directed by Mrs. C. H. Paske and accompanied by Mrs. Rawley Moore, sang four three-part selections.

Members of the chorus are Miss Marguerite Luman, Mesdames John Day, M. Hogan, F. H. Reum, C. O. Larson, Clare Russell, J. F. Wallace, Richard Payne, Cora Gustin, E. Gore, M. E. Sands and Douglas Welch, with Harvey Moore as pianist and Mrs. C. H. Paske as director.

The group also listened to the radio address of the President. The Medford Musical society, organized for the purpose of bringing outside concert artists to Medford and for the promotion of interest in music in the community, is open to all interested in the aims of the society. During the past year, under the leadership of the retiring president, Mrs. A. O. Bauman, the group presented two concerts, one by Bernard Abramowitz, pianist from San Francisco, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Lemery, and a duo recital by Elizabeth and Harlow Mills, violinist and pianist from Pasadena, Cal.

Dean Theo. Kratz of the University of Oregon was also guest of the club and gave an informal lecture, illustrated at the piano, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Hayes. The spring concert at the high school during National Music week was under the direction of J. Cyril Sander. The group also enjoyed a Christmas party at the Charles Lemery home and an informal program of violin and piano music at the home of Dr. and Mrs. L. L. Sanders when Mr. and Mrs. Frank Whitsel, recently of Los Angeles, were guests of the society.

The woman's chorus, organized late in the spring, will resume practice early in the fall under direction of Mrs. Paske and Mr. Moore as accompanist. All members interested in choral work are urged to join the group.

It was announced that Bob Brewer, high school trombone player, received the award as the outstanding music student at the high school.
