

ELKS TO OBSERVE ANNUAL FLAG DAY NIGHT OF JUNE 12

"Over 1,400 lodges of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks will dedicate one day next week to their annual renewal of allegiance to the nation's flag," Exalted Ruler Ernest L. Scott of the Medford lodge said Saturday, "and there are special reasons why the celebrations should carry unusual zeal and enthusiasm this year."

"Medford lodge will hold its annual Flag day exercises Thursday night, June 12 at 8:30 o'clock in the temple. The services will be open and the public is especially invited to attend," the exalted ruled continued.

"The Elks have a special reason to be proud of the part the order has taken in setting aside a day given over to revering the stars and stripes—a day of patriotic devotion to all we Americans hold dear. The flag, a token, a symbol, is honored for those things in government for which it stands—freedom of speech, religion, press and assembly."

BEAVERS DROP PAIR TO OAKS, 5-0, 7-2; SEATTLE TIES STARS

By the Associated Press

Solaced by the fact they've been a much better road team than a home team, the Seattle Rainiers headed south today for a series with Sacramento's Solons, who finally lost their first series of the season to San Francisco last week.

The Rainiers dropped two series on the home lot—to Oakland and Hollywood—and couldn't knot the series count yesterday as they went 16 innings to a time limit tie with the Stars, the count ending at 2-all, with the Twinks taking the abbreviated series, three games to two.

Good pitching proved too much for Portland in the Rose City yesterday, Oakland's Stan Corbett blanking the Beavers in the first game, 5-0, and Ralph Buxton allowing but four hits to win the seven-inning night-cap for the Oaks, 7-2.

The Solons dropped five out of seven to the Seals. San Francisco took the first, 7-5, behind Eddie Stutz, and Tom Seats, a former Solon, pitched the second game for a 5-4 win.

Los Angeles and San Diego divided a Sunday double header, but if Wally Hebert hadn't become a father between innings, the Padres might have captured a pair.

They won the opener, 9-5, but Los Angeles came back to take the nightcap after two extra innings, 9-8. Hebert, hurling for San Diego in the second game, was sailing along with a 6-0 lead when news of the baby's arrival was broken to him.

He promptly went to pieces, allowing four runs in the sixth before he was replaced.

Scores:

Oakland	5	11	0
Portland	0	5	1

Corbett and Raimondi; Gonzales, Callahan, Reid and Schultz.

Oakland	7	7	0
Portland	2	4	3

Buxton and Raimondi; Liska, Gonzales and Annunzio.

FATHER TO SERVE 20 YEARS IN PEN

John Emerson Cooper, 35, former Central Point resident, was sentenced to serve an indeterminate term not to exceed 20 years, by Circuit Judge H. K. Hanna today. Cooper entered a plea of guilty to an indictment charging rape of a daughter. The minimum sentence was imposed. The maximum is life.

The proceedings lasted only about two minutes, due to details of the case being discussed in chambers. Cooper was asked if he had anything to say, and shook his head negatively. Sentence was then pronounced.

Authorities describe the case as extremely sordid. The daughter, 14, is now a mother and in a Portland welfare home.
