

LOCAL BUSINESS INTERESTS SOLD TO K. F. BROTHERS

New residents in Medford today were Mr. and Mrs. E. B. "Bud" Serruys, formerly of Klamath Falls, who have purchased the residence at 48 North Orange street from John and Elizabeth A. Jones of 709 Alder street. The property comprises lot 4 and the 16 2/3 feet of lot 5, block 1 of the Bungalow addition.

Mr. Serruys is associated with his brothers Lou and Bill, both of Klamath Falls, in the cafe and related business in Klamath Falls and cities in Washington. They also operate Cal-Ore, the roadside near the California-Oregon border south of Klamath Falls.

Bud Serruys is associated with A. C. Leighton in the purchase of five Central Point lots on which it is understood the two men propose to erect an apartment house. It is also understood that they have shown an interest in acquiring other property in Jackson county.

Lou Serruys is associated with the interests that recently purchased the Halley building on South Central avenue at Eighth street for a price reported to be in the neighborhood of $40,000.

Mr. Leighton is vice president of the Roxy Ann Investment company which is negotiating for Brown's cafe at 101 East Main street.

ESTON HUMPHREY ELECTED LEADER MEDFORD LIONS

Eston Humphrey was elected president of the Lions club at its weekly dinner-meeting in the Hotel Medford last night.

Others elected were Frank J. Runtz, first vice-president, Dr. William F. Roney, second vice-president, Leland Knox, secretary-treasurer, George Buchanan, lion tamer and Cliff Proctor, tail twister. William Green and George Newberry were elected to the board of directors.

Hugh A. Matier, Union Oil company publicity man, spoke on the Alaska-to-Arizona highway. Pointing out that the super-highway in the west coast states would follow 99, Mr. Matier spoke of the construction difficulties to be encountered in Latin America and Alaska.

Russell Mitchell of Jacksonville gave a short talk on minerals of southern Oregon. Eve Prentice and three of her pupils, Neva Childers, Shirley Schoettler and Helen Prentice, entertained with accordion selections.

Ravazza's Band At Chateau for One Night Soon

Carl Ravazza, youthful maestro who made "Viennese" famous, brings his orchestra to the Chateau, Tuesday, June 10, for a gala one-night stand. Ravazza recently completed a seven-month run in the Persian room of San Francisco's Hotel St. Francis Drake where he broadcast nightly over NBC.

Ravazza's tour will take him to St. Louis, Mo., where he will play an engagement in the Chase Hotel. This is his third transcontinental tour.

He began his musical career at 15, playing a guitar. He had his first orchestra at 16, debuting as a band leader at Alameda, Calif., high school. He entered the ranks of name band leaders at the age of 22 and has continued to gain popular favor with his broadcasts, recordings and dance engagements.

GIRLS DAY CAMP ATTENDED BY 41

Attendance for the opening session of Day Camp on Bear creek for girls in the community between the ages of seven and 10 was almost double that of last year officials stated today. Forty-one registered yesterday while attendance for 1940 on the first day was only 25.

The day was devoted to handicrafts and dramatization of two songs under the following camp personnel: Mrs. Paul Janney and Miss Helen Bullis, council members; Miss Bertha Arnsperger, Mrs. Sylvia Smith, Mrs. F. K. Morse, Mrs. Victor Eakin, Mrs. William Peek, Mrs. O. J. Halboth, senior counselors; Miss Jane Moffitt, Miss Patricia Farrell, Miss Carol Tengwald and Miss Geraldine Yokum, junior counselors.

SPECIAL VENIRE DRAWN IN COURT

A special venire of seven names was drawn yesterday in circuit court to provide more jurors, due to many on the previous venires being excused from service.

Those drawn were: L. P. Older, Frank H. Ray and Robert Gilman, of Medford, and F. F. Dickey, Carl A. Brower, J. Samuel Jordan, and Clyde N. Caton, of Ashland.

It was the second special venire drawn since the start of the May term of court.

Weather
Northern California: Fair tonight and Friday but considerable cloudiness off the coast; cooler in the delta region Friday; moderate northwest wind off the coast.
