

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Arrives—Cecil Hunt, Jr., returned by train today from San Francisco where he has been spending several days. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hunt, 315 North Bartlett street.

Janouch Back—Karl L. Janouch this morning resumed his duties as supervisor of Rogue River national forest after attending a range management training school at Seneca. Forest supervisors and staff officers attended the school.

Visit Ends—Mr. and Mrs. Lelan Davis of Los Angeles, who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. J. H. Butler, 916 East Main street, left today for Diamond lake and Buckhorn lodge. Mr. Davis, a former member of the Medford fire department, is Mrs. Butler's nephew.

On Trip East—Mrs. Bel F. Richardson, 33 North Peach street, left yesterday for a month's visit with relatives in Kansas and Iowa. She is traveling by car with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Richardson, who are returning to their home in Larned, Kas.

To Tour—Mrs. Clara Tilley and daughter Marian, 1115 West 10th street, are planning to leave Sunday morning by bus on a two months' tour to New York where they will visit relatives. They plan to travel east by way of Portland. They plan stops at Sioux City, Iowa, Detroit, Mich., St. Louis, Mo., and other points of interest.

Conditions Poor—Conditions in forest areas for recreational pursuits over the week-end were unfavorable today. Rogue River national forest headquarters said in again omitting the usual weekly recreation bulletin. Roads to forest lakes and streams and camping areas are in bad condition because of late spring rains. Headquarters stated. Campgrounds, it was added, were damp.

On Survey—A crew of four state game commission employees today began a study at Lake of the Woods to determine the number and kind of fish the lake can best support. A similar study will be made at Fish and Fourmile lakes, both in the same general area. The crew will make soundings of the lake, prepare a contour map and conduct other studies to be used as a basis in a re-stocking program. Work at the three lakes is expected to take a month.

At Picnic—Among Ashland Elks attending the Medford Elks lodge picnic last evening were John Hughes and Sam Jordan.

Minor Accident—Hugh Power, of 101 Portland avenue, and Elizabeth J. Sample of 108 South Oakdale avenue, drove cars involved in a minor accident on North Riverside avenue near East Jackson boulevard last evening, a report on file said today.

Make Flight—Though now residing in Ashland, R. A. Forbes, former president of the Crater Flying club here, is still a frequent visitor at Medford municipal airport. Last Sunday Mr. Forbes, accompanied by Mrs. Forbes, flew a Piper Cub plane to Portland. The couple enjoyed luncheon and a show in Portland and then returned to Medford, arriving here about 5 p. m.

In Jail Here—Capron L. Ball, 16, Klamath Indian of Chiloquin, charged with assault with a dangerous weapon, was brought from Klamath Falls last night by Paul Hanlin, U. S. deputy marshal, and placed in the county jail here pending further action in the case. Ball is accused of assaulting Ivan O'Neil, also a Klamath Indian of Chiloquin, with a knife last May 29. Ball's brother Joseph, is serving a life sentence for murder. He pleaded guilty in federal court here in the spring of 1938 to a charge of second degree murder. He was then 24 years old.

Plane Passengers—Miss Patricia Dippel departed on the noon United Mainliner today for Portland. Arriving on the same plane were Mrs. G. Gage, from Los Angeles. Arrivals on the forenoon plane were Mrs. Robert Coulter, from Seattle, Wn., and A. E. Stephan, from Portland. Departing on the early morning plane were Mr. and Mrs. D. Jameson, W. Thigpen and Thomas C. Blanchard, all to Portland. Arriving last evening were Eino Hemmilla, from Portland, and H. V. Simpson, from Vancouver, B. C. Departing on the same plane was Harold Wood, to San Francisco. J. H. Pomeroy arrived from San Francisco on the afternoon Mainliner.

Rialto Today

One of the West's most popular stars, Roy Rogers, joins forces with the hill-billy favorites, the Weaver Brothers and Elvira, in "The Arkansas Judge," which plays today and tomorrow at the Rialto theatre. Filled to the brim with good old down-to-earth humor and wit, "The Arkansas Judge" has the famous comedy singing team tracking down trouble in the Ozarks, their native stomping ground. "Cyclone On Horseback," featuring Tim Holt, plays as the companion feature with the Weavers' fun show.

WHEAT LOAN RATE FIXED FOR YEAR

Washington, June 6.—(AP)—The agriculture department announced today a schedule of rates—said to average about 98 cents a bushel—at which it would make loans to farmers on this year's wheat crop. Rates at the terminals were higher than those which would prevail elsewhere. The schedule for the terminals includes: Portland, Ore.—No. 1 soft white, No. 1 western white, No. 1 hard winter, No. 1 white club, No. 1 red winter, No. 1 western red, and No. 1 northern spring, all $1.05, and No. 1 mixed $1.02. Rates at other points, including farms, will be less than the rates at the closest and most accessible terminal market by

"Topper Returns" Boasts Stars

Joan Blondell and Carol Landis are the two blondes who get into Roland Young's hair as well as his heart in the hilarious new Topper film, "Topper Returns," which will open a three-day run Sunday at the Craterian theatre. Topper again gets himself into all sorts of trouble, including another dame with "ectoplasm" powers, and according to advance reports, this new mystery-comedy out-does the original in a thousand ways. Stars, comedy situations, spooks, a weird mansion where most of the action takes place and Eddie "Rochester" Anderson make the film one of the most eagerly awaited pieces to come from the movie capital in years. Others in the cast are Patsy Kelly, Billie Burke, Dennis O'Keefe and Jack Benny's radio stooge, "Rochester."

Judy Canova Coming To Rialto

The gal who stole your hearts and got all your laughs in "Scatterbrain"—Judy Canova—now comes to the screen of the Rialto theatre for Sunday and Monday in the crowning hit of her hilarious career—as the hay-seed girl who hit New York with a bang—the story of "Sis Hopkins." Bob Crosby and his Band are cast with the hill-billy star as well as Jerry Calonna of radio fame and Charles Butterworth of comedy fame. Music, laughter, stars and one comedy situation after another promises to make "Sis Hopkins" grand entertainment for the whole family, according to advance information on the Canova hit.

Auto Fees Set Mark
Salem, June 6.—(AP)—Motor transportation fees collected by the state public utilities commissioner during the first five months of 1941 set an all-time record of $582,970, doubling the total for the same period of 1935 and about $100,000 more than
