

SOLDIERS SWAMP KING CITY AFTER PAY DISTRIBUTED

Two Million Dollars Given Men of 41st and 3rd Divisions; Enjoy Maneuvers

By Paul W. Hughes
King City, Cal., June 3.—(Sp.)—A $2,000,000 payroll was distributed to troops of the 41st and 3rd divisions in this area last week-end. The money was drawn from the vaults of the Bank of America here by pay officers from the many units of the two divisions and special troops Saturday morning and all men were paid before sundown of the same day.

Soldiers filled the town far beyond capacity and this community has not recovered from the deluge of soldiers yet.

Besides the usual forms of recreation the soldiers found a recreational hall called the Army Hayloft installed and ready for their use.

The Army Hayloft is on the same order of the service men's clubs in Tacoma and Olympia and has a restaurant, bowling alley, shooting gallery, reading and writing room.

This week the troops are engaged in their first actual maneuvers. The first maneuvers will last only three days and the following two weeks will be taken up with basic training in the field.

In moving such a large volume of troops into one area there are many obstacles to be overcome and the men find that they are living somewhat of a primitive life. All the men seem to enjoy all of this despite the minor hardships they have to go through with.

HIGHWAY AIRFIELDS RECOMMENDED FOR MASS PLANE MOVES

Washington, June 6.—(Sp.)—A $20,000,000 cross-roads widening program to provide 400 "satellite airfields" for mass movements of military aircraft was recommended to congress today by Gen. George H. Brett, army air corps chief.

The recommendation was made to the house roads committee at hearings on President Roosevelt's request for a $125,000,000 military road program.

These airfields, as outlined by Brett, would be provided by widening concrete highways at crossroads to 250 feet and providing there a 300-foot parallel graded and grassed strip. The widened highway and the strip would run from 3,000 to 5,000 feet.

By building the auxiliary fields at cross-roads, planes could land in any one of four wind directions, Brett said.

Foots Creek

Foots Creek, June 6.—(Sp.) Daily vacation Bible school opened June 2 at the Sunday school building, and Rev. Randall is holding meetings in the evenings.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Kille had as guests June 1, Mr. and Mrs. Miller and family of Grants Pass.

Mr. and Mrs. Barnes and small daughter of Los Angeles came last week to spend two weeks with Mr. Barnes' parents and his brother and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Lanco had as guests from May 30 to June 1 Mr. Lanco's nephew, George Hull, and wife and daughter Georgianna, of Salem. Mr. and Mrs. Lanco entertained with a dinner May 31 for the Hulls, Mrs. R. E. Cook of Gold Hill, Mrs. Floyd Lanco and son Bobbie and daughter Ruth of Trinity Center, Mrs. Mary Helms of Ashland and Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Lanco. The Hulls returned to Salem June 1 accompanied by Mr. Hull's aunt, Mrs. Helms, who had been visiting at the home of her brother, George Lanco.

The Pickett Auto Park was recently sold to Portland parties, who came June 1 to take possession.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Miller spent Tuesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. George Lanco at the Lanco mine.

Camp Beer Garden
Fort Leonard Wood, Mo. (Sp.)—The training center here will have its own beer garden if present plans of the "Morale Builders" materialize. The beer garden will accommodate 1,000 soldiers and will be "so attractive that trainees won't think of going to other places to do their drinking."

Tomatoes, Spuds On Same Plant

Cordelle, Ga., June 6.—(Sp.)—Have you any tomatos today? A Crisp county farmer has a new plant which he calls a tomatop. It has potatoes on the roots and tomatoes on the foliage. The stem, he says, is that of a tomato plant and it has potato leaves.

COVER SPRAY FOR CODLING MOTHS DUE BY JUNE 18

The third cover spray for control of codling moth on pears and apples should be completed on June 18, according to C. B. Cordy, assistant county agent, and L. G. Gentner, entomologist of the Southern Oregon Experiment Station.

They advise using one-fourth pound of dry deposit builder, three pounds of arsenate of lead and one quart of kerosene per one hundred gallons. Add to the partially filled tank in order named. Stove oil may be substituted for kerosene on Bartlett, Bosc and Nellis.

In cases of severe infestation on pears use of three pounds of arsenate of lead, three quarts of medium or light medium summer oil emulsion and one-fourth pound of spreader per one hundred gallons, is advised. If additional San Jose scale control on pears is necessary, use one and three-fourths gallons of oil emulsion in this combination. On apples use two gallons of light summer oil emulsion with the lead arsenate and spreader.

Growers wishing to use treated bands are advised to have them in place by June 15.

WHEAT INSURANCE TO TWO FARMERS

Two Jackson county farmers have received the first indemnities paid in the state for crop losses under the 1941 crop insurance program, the county conservation committee was notified today by Clyde Kiddle, crop insurance assistant of the state AAA.

The two county policy holders who collected for wheat crop losses were Homer A. Conger, route 1, Central Point, and William Tracer, route 1, Rogue River.

Tracer was paid for 75 bushels of winter-killed wheat after crop insurance adjusters appraised his losses at 100 per cent.

Conger was paid for 87 bushels of wheat killed by excessive moisture. He was insured for 118 bushels on six acres.

A total of 136 Jackson county farmers took out crop insurance on the 1941 crop, Kiddle disclosed. They paid 2,418 bushels of wheat in premiums for all-risk protection on 1,869 acres of wheat.
